President - ANDREW JOHNSON, Vice President - L. S. Fosten, Secretary of State-WM. H. Seward, Secretary of State-WM. LINEWARD,
Secretary of Interior—Us. HULLIN,
Secretary of Thesaury—HUGH MC ULLOCH,
Secretary of War -- DWMS M. STANTON,
Secretary of May -- Ginson William,
Post Master Governi—WM Director
Attornov Jennyal—JAME S. Spern. Chief Justice of the Universitates -- TALMON P. OHAS

STATE GOVERNMENT. Covernor—Andrew G. Clrin, Sucre ary of State—Ed. Shiffer, Surveyor General—James. Barre, * Editor General—James. Sanker, Attorney General—Ww. M. Mervitte. Adjutant General—A. L. Resella. Chieffu tic of the supreme Court -Oko.

COUNTY OFFICERS President Judge-Hon James H. Gråham Associate Jugues ...
High Stuart
District Astornay J. W. P. Ollelen.
Prothonotary Samuel Shireman,
Clork and Recorder Ephraip Cornman, Registor—Geo W. North. Judges-Hon. Michael Cocklin, He Register—Geo W. North. High Shoriff—John Jadobs. County Treasurer—Henry S. Ritter. County Treasurer—Henry S. Ritter.
Coroner—David Salith
County Commissioners—Henry Karns, John M
loy, Mitchell VcCivillan, Superintendent of Poor House—Henry Snyder.
Physician to Jail—Dr. W. W. Dale,
Physician to Poor House—Dr. W. W. Dale,

.....0----BOROUGH OFFICERS Chief Burgess—John Campbell,
Assistant Burgess—William Cameron,
Ouncill—East Word—J. W. D. Gillelen, Andrew B. Zelgler, Geo, Wetzel, Chas U. Hoffer, Barnet
Hoffman, West Ward—A. K. Rheen, John Aws, Sobt.
M. Bijack, S. D. Hillman, Glerk, Jas. M. Masonhammor.
Borough Treasure., David Cornman High Constable, Linaunel Swirz, Wird Constables, Bast Ward, Andrew Martin, West Ward, James Wid

nor.

Assossor—William Neaker.
Auditor—A K Sheafer
Tax Collector—Andrew Keer. Ward Collectors—East
Ward, Jacob Goodyon. West ward, if R Williams.
Street Commissioner. Patrick Madden.
Jus'less of the Pasco—A. L. Sponsler. David Smith, Abem. Deluff, Michael Holcomb.
Lamp Dighters—Alex. Mack, Levi Albert.

CHURCHES.

First Presbytorian Church, Northwest angle of Cotte Square. Rev Chesay P Wing Paster -- Service avery Sunday Morning at 11 o'clock, A. M., and o'clock P. M. o'clock P. M. Secont Presbyterian Church, corner of South Han-over and Pomfret streets - Rev. John C Bilss, Paster Services commence at 11 o'clock, A. M., and 7 o'clock P. M.
St. John's Charry (Prot. Upiscops) northeast sigle of Contro Saurice. Roy. J. C. Cleic. Retor. Sargice. of Contro Square. Bond Coltrol, he tor. Surgice at the clock A. M., and Buckloner, P. M. Büglish Lutherson Church, Hedword, between Main and Louther streets. Rev. serio. Spiricel. Parter. Ser-ripes at 1, place A. M., as 1002, folick P. M. German Reformed Church, Louther, between Har o Fer and Pitt streets. Rev. Seminel Phillips, Pastro Services at 11 orders A. M., and to deleak r. M. Metholist it orders A. M., and to deleak r. M. Metholist it obtained scharge corner of Main and Pitt streets. Rev. Ph. 10331. Shortlesh, Pastor Services at 11 orders A. M., and 7 orders, P. M. Matholist E. Church J. second charge, Piev. S. I. Bowman, Peder, zer, desert hoory M. a. thun L. a. 1 orders A. M., and M. P. M. Church of ded Chapel Fouth West corner of West Stand Chapel Alley, Rev. B. r. Back, 1 4-to 2, zervices at 11 a, m., and for me. St. Patrick's Cheric Church, P. infect near Past of Roy Pastu. Services every other Sanbath, at 10 orders M. Vespers at 3.P. M. German forther and forther 1 streets. Rev. C. Bree, Jastor Services at 11 orders P. M. o Fer and Pitt streats. Rev. Samuel Philips, Paste

11 o'clore P. M. handes in the above are ne askery the proper possons are respectful to they us. DICKINSON COLLEGE Ber Merman M. Johnson, D. D. Presid n. and Proeor of Marid Science. William C. Wilson, A. M., Professor of Natural Science and Culator of the Museum. Rev. William & Boswell, A. W. Professor of the John K. Staymen, A. M., Professor of the Latin and Fronch Languager.

Hon Junes A. Graham, LL D., Protessor of Law.

Rev. Hanry C. Chesson, A. B., Principal of the John Hood, Assistant in the Grammar School BOARD OF SCHOOL DIRECTORS B. Osruman President, James Hamilton, H. Saxt e. R. C. Woodward, Honry ewshem U.P. Humerich Sacty, J. W. Eby, Tressorer, John Sphar Mexember Meet on the lat Monday of each Mouth at 8 Octock A.M., at Education Hall.

CORPORATIONS. Cyrellate Derivit Resses - President, R. M. Hender gon, W. M. Bestem Cash J. P. Hassler and C. B. Pfabler Tellors, W. M. Plather, Clerk June, Un regime Mes-ganger Directus, R. M. Henderson, President R. C. Woodward, Skiles, Woodburn, Stock, Bricker, John Zug, W. W. Dale, John P. Gorges, Joseph J. Legan, June Stuget, in April 1997, 1997, 2008, 2008, 2008.

First National, Bank .- Prosident, Samuel Hepburg Ca-hier, Jos. C. Hoffer, Teller, Aleiar C. Brind, c. Mes seeger, Jesse Brown - Wm. Ker, John Dungap, Rich'd Woods, John C. Daulap, - see Brenneman, John S. Cerrett, Sam'l Hapburn, Presents. CUMBERLAND VALLEY RAILROAD COMPANY .- Providen

Frederick Watts: Secretar and Treasurer, Edward M. Biddio: Superintondent. J. N. Lull. Plassenge trains three times a day. Parilah Accommo atton Eastward, leaves Carlisle 55 A. M., arriving at Carlislo 50 P. M. Through trains Rictward, 0.10 A. M and 2.42, P. M. Westward at 9.27, A. M., and 2.55 P. I. CARLISLE GAS AND WALER COMPANY. -- President, Lem-

OARMSK CYN W. P. COMPOYE, Problem, Lem vol Todd; Treasurer, A. L. Sponsler; Superinton an Goorge Wise: Directors, F. Watts, Wm. M. Bestom E. M. Biddle, Henry Saxton, R. C. Woodward, J. W Patton, F. Gardner and D. S. Croft. SOCIETIES

Cumberland Star Lodge No. 197, A. Y. M. meets a Marion Hall on the 2nd and 4th Tuesdays of ever month.

8t. John's Lodge No. 260 A. V. M. Meets 3d Thurs day of each month, at Marion 14.41.
Carlislo Lodge No. 34 L. O. of O. F. Meets Monday evoning, at Trout's building.
Letort Lodge No. 63, 1. O. of G. T. Meets overy Thursday evening in Pheem's Hall, 3d story. FIRE COMPANIES.

THE COMPANIES.

The Union Fire Company was organized in 1789 House in Louther between Pitt and Harover

The Cumberland Fire Company was instituted Feb.
13, 1809. House in Badford, between Main and Pomfret. ret. The Good Will Fire Company was instituted in Tarch 1855. House in Pomfret, near Hanover The Empire Hook and hadder Company was instituted in 1859. House in Pitt, near Main.

RATES OF POSTAGE Postage on all letters of one half conce weight or under, 3 cents prepaid.

Postage on the HERALD within the County, free, Within the State 13 cents per amount. To any part of the United States, 29 cents Postage on all than stent pipers, 2 cents per conce. Advertised letters to be charged with cost of advertising

MRS. R. A. SMITH'S Photographs, Ambrotypes, Ivorytypes

Beautiful Albums! Beautiful Frames! Albums for Ladles and Gentlemen, Albums for Misses, and for Children,
Pocket Albums for Soldiers and Civilians

Choicest Albums! Prettiest Albums! Cheapest Albums FOR CHRISTMAS GIFTS! Fresh and New from New York and Philadelphia

TF you want satisfactory Pictures and a polito attention call at Mrs. R. A. Smith's Photographic Gallery, South East Corner of Hanover Street and Market Square, opposite the Court House and Poss Office, Carlisle, Par.
Mrs. R. A. Smith well known as Mrs. R. A. Reynolds. and so well known as a Daguerrean Artist, gives per sonal attention to Ladies shir Gentlemen visiting her Gallery, and having the bast of Artists and polite atcin' those whis favor her with a ball get pictures sop-stor to here, notiven in New York or gilladelphia, or most with mor kind and prompt betantion Ambigolyper linserted in Kings. Lookiets. Presat Pics. Sc. Privide toopies of Daguarrotypes and Ambigolyper made of decased friends. Where copies a c defaced, if He-lite pictures may still be had, either for frames or or cards. All negatives, preserved one year and orders by mail or otherwise promptly attended to.

THE FORWARDING AND GRAFN Jn July 20, 1804-tf

DR: WM. H. COOK HOMOFOPATHIC PHYSICIAS" Surgeon and Accouching FIGURE at his residence in atrock, adding the methodist church ald-nativi 1,1864.

Tor Rent Building, on the South-east Councies the Centre equate of Carliele, For particular spely to January 6, 1865.

Affect Brown out than the country brings to the country brings to

CARLISLE, PA., FRIDAY, MAY 5, 1865.

NO. 18.

A NOBLE ACT OF PRESIDENT LIN-

COLN .- Many of the renders of the Ame:

ican no doubt, remember the little boy that drummed for the 5th New York Regiment whilst they were stationed at Fort Federal Hill. His name is Henry Czarnowsky, his parents reside at No.

664 West Baltimore street. When that regiment participated in the ceromonies of inaugurating the cometery at Gottys-burg, Henry led the drum corps, and by his superior performances attracted the attention of President Lincoln, who, upon conversing with the lad, was much pleased with him, and learning that him

parents were in humble oircumstances, he immediately gave directions that the

should be placed in the Military College at Allentown, Pennsylvania, where he is, now receiving an education .- Baltimore

ME A young mother, an the important occasion of making her little boy his first pair of colored trousers, conceived the idea that it would be more economical to make them of the same dimensions thehird and before, so that they might be changed about and wear eventy-and coabe fash-level them. Their effect when downed by the little victit, was ludierous in the extreme. Papa, at the first eight of the baggy garments so "fearfullly and won.

derfully made," burst into arear of laughter, and exclaimed, "Oh, my dear, how could you have the heart to do it? Why.

the poor little fel ow won't know w ether

GALLANT PEDLER. -As a lady of he's going to school or coming home."

RHEEM & WEAKLEY, Editors & Proprietors.

VOL. 65.

Poetical.

A NOVEL.

vol. I.

Maanlight evening-shady grove-

Two young people much in love;

Here hands one poor and proud;

Kisses-quarrels-sighs-caresags

Maiden yields one of her tresses;

Happy hours pass by uncounted,

Morning in the East looks raidy

Hero, with his hat in hand,

Comes her ditto to demand

Mother intercedes-no go :

Exit lover midst the din-

Augry parent storms-abuses-

And at once consent refuses;

Malden faints beneath the blow-

Shrieks-hystorics-protestations Mixed with old man's execuations

VOL. III.

Time-A mornlight night once more,

Gardou-flowers-umbra ; sous shade-

Tears-rope ladder-flight-pursuit-

Triumph-marriage-Gretna Green

Old man's rage-disowns forever-

Old man sickly--sends for child-

Young man making money fast

Old man's blessing dies at last

Get the money -- live in state-

Family mansion-jewels, plate,

uthiul couple prove probate-

Mother's wishes crowned with joy-

Alliscellaneons.

THE BEAUTIFUL DECOY.

From the Unpublished + bronicle of a Traveller.

It is well known to all in any degree fain har with the history of Mexico, that ists in every section of that miserably

a regular system of highway robbery e governed country; and that through want of interference of the authorities, chis has grown up into such a regular must be prepared to put his life in haz

zard at every stage, or be provided with a suitable contribution for los cabel ero del cameno (the knights of the road,)

who, in the event of finding you pro with a politeness only equalted by the evercharged fare for the last night's en tercamment. Why uch a systematiany interference, of the government of state authorities -- is one of those mysu

cal matters which among others so puz

zies and perplexes the intelligent foreigners, but that such is the disagreeabl

ed sountry can bear ample testimony.

the dates, they being non-essential to the

The first of the series occurred on the route between Vera Cruz and the city o

Mexico. In the regular diligencia run ning between the places just mentioned.

I had taken passage, and had passed through the beautiful city of Jalapa, and entered the gloomy town of Perote, with out meeting with any unusual incident, roa i. At Percte, where we halted for a relay and refreshments, all my fellow passengers took leave of me, very solemnly assuring me, that it assailed by the ladrones, or robbers, it would be much bet-suffer myself to be generally plundered, doing. I thanked them for their advice, and replied that I would take the matter

At l'erote, I repeat, all who had been Secorita Paula, as I subsequently as er ained her name to be, was in indeed in ting dark eyes-as into ujy serious consideration.

interest of the narrations themselves.

Time proceds-beir ties endear-

Onse branches year by year.

- Biessin - on t e good attend-

Ocheral g adness-moral end.

Gallant steed -- too late -- ights screen --

VOL. IV.

Scene - Outside the lady's door Lover, with half-broken heart.

t hamber window opens wide-

Little dog most kindly mute-

Manly accents -- serenada.

Debut of expectant bride :

Ugly rival-scarlet fover.

All forgiven-reconciled:

Swears he'd rather die than part ene-Y ung lady's father's study,

Obstacles to be surmounted.

Ugly riv 1, olt and stale,

Truth eternal-hearts united-

Herojne with great wealth endowed.

N ws of chang dess passion plighted

TERMS:--82,00 in Advance, or $2,50 within the year.

opening a conversation. "They tell me," said I, "that the ried, that her father and brothers were route between here and Mexico is a very dangerous one to travel."

"There is little to fear," she replied, tone, "except from the professional rob bers, and they seldom harm any one who advise any friend to be with any stran- of affairs. The dilligencia had been stopmakes no resistance."

"It seems strange to me," I rejoined, things as a matter of course, and deem the knights of the road, instead of boldly first opened. asserting your rights, and abating the evil by a manly spirit of resistance. For myself, I must consider it the most cowardly of proceedings, for any respectable party to set out prepared quietly to gratify the cupidity of the ladrone, and un-

"Every traveller, Senor," she replied; should before setting out, count the danger will be as great as yours!" cost of his journey, and as of course it is natural that he should value his life high ly, it seems to me natural that he should pay a certain sum for positive safety rather than put that life in jeopardy. For instance, in travelling from Vera Ciuz to Mexico, it he will first reason that so much is the fare by the diligencia, and that so much will be required for entertainment on the way, and so much for the contingency you speak of, he will her the manner in which it was to be to the stronges Nest. then have the exact cost between two used. points; and if he will look at the whole as the sum total of his journey, he will half a dozen times?" not seem to be robbed by any one party more than another "

"That," I replied, "may be, I believe is, the vexican mode of doing business, but does not tally with the preconceived ideas of as foreigners "

"But every one," replied the fair speaker, "should conform to the customs of the country he visits."

"And do you then go prepared for this highway roblery? and have you pofear in journeying by yourseff?"

"Well, Sener, what can I do? It. make the journey between I crose and and you certainly could not expect me to the read. go prepared to resist an a med band! As and formidable shape, that every traveller to fear I will not deny I have my share discharge it " of that; but so far, I never have met be ever as propitious."

"And have you really been robbed on our journey back and forth ?" I inquired. pared and willing, will make their levy stating landford, when he receiv s your ountry!' she laughed.

" And you expect to continue a repetiboldness of robbery is allowed-if not don of the same through the rest of your with the convenience, at least with rarely life."

"Who knows?" she replied. "A! east I hope I my be always prepared." have you never seen any disposed to esist these unlawful acts?"

truth, every travelier through that wretch-"Once Senor, an omerican and Englishman who were in the same dili-Some years ago, having business which gencia with me, fired upon the robbers. first called me to the Capital of Mexico, killing one and wounding two." and hence through the interior of the

" And did the robbers fire back ?" "Yes, but fled immediately, and fortucountry to the northward, I met with several thrilling adventures, which I renately injured none of our party." corded for the benefit of whosoever may "As I should have expected," re turned I. "You were not rebbed on that take an interest therein, omitting only

oceasion, I suppose?" "We were not, Senor; but the two tore gners subsequently paid dearly for their resistance; for in journeying back | Resistance is useless - you are our prisonand forth, both were killed, separate and er!" at different times, near the same spot .--You ee those crosses by the side of the road, Schor?" "I have observed them frequently but here they seem to be much more nu merous," I replied, looking forth from though being continually warned to be on my guard against the dangers of the the vehicle.

some one has met a viclent death," she rejoined; "and as we go along, I will call your attention to the places where the foreigners met theirs."

ter for me to take matters quietly, and "Do you know,' said I, 'that I am resolved to emulate their example, let the than to run the risk of having my throat consequences be what they may?" cut for resistance, as I had somewhat boldly proctained it was my intention of ed: "you are not in carnest, Senor?"

"Seriously so, I assure you." upon us both."

"Say rather, I should lighten the exny companions from Vera Cruz took advance -- and you yourself have acknowl aurney in that direction, but there was one new passeager to go forward, whom | edged that firm resistance but them to to my greeable surprise I found to be flight at once."

a beau that young lady some twenty years "But there were numbers opposed them, Senor, and you are only one" "But fortunately I have a couple of arm, just at the p int where she knew the revolvers. which, in two good hands, attack would be made; and her discharge one of those three beauties seldom met amount to some ten of a dozen shots, and to usion of long, black haves not a bad markeman." "Al Santa Maria ! yon will think betjames e a car cro the hands of ter of this, Senor—the very idea of rethe sature a win o an abimation the sistence terrifics me !!"

most to supplied arying in expression . But not the idea of robbery?" with every color, ng mood of the intel the Because I have never met with violequal possessor, 'A glance at her be lence."

on; and in return I gave her my own | cd a traveler may have to bestow." name, stated something of my history, with a sweet smile and in a melodious business and prospects, and altogether became more communicative than I would | put me in possession of the whole state that you Mexicans should take such versation gradually changing from one taking everything as a matter of course. resistance a very impolite way of treating ly brought it back to the point where it resolved to defend yourself if assailed?"

prepared to treat them to their just de- tion, I think it no more than right that bers, some eight or ten in number, and all, to defend yourself?" "If I had the means, Senor will accept one of them, it is at your ser- despair. True I had been outwitted and I fire it?' "With case. Senorita;" and product and I resolved to put the least favorable greediness prevalent among men, there the costly decorations of the millionaire; ing one of my revolvers, I explained to opportunity for defence and retaliation

" A very formidable weapon, indeed?"

you say like this?" I produced it.

observed, reaching over and taking it you will retain as a keepsake," I continfrom my hand. Then extending her ued, drawing the jewel from my finger hands, one of the revolvers in each, she and presenting it to a third. "I beg continued: " Armed like this, one might your pardon, Senerita," I pursued glanealmost count himself safe against a host! log at the Senorita Paula, who, with my who for certain reasons, and required to You say this is fixed in this manner?" pistols in her possession, was quietly standshe proceeded, cocking one of the weap Titz within the diligencia, regarding the the Capital some twice or thrice a year. one as she spoke and pointing it toward | whole proceedings with one of her sweet-

The words were scarcely uttered when beautful gold snuff box-set as, you perwith any rough treatment, and of course. her finger pressed the trigger, and one of ceive, with diamonds - will your ladyship I trust to the saints that my fortune will the burrels exploded with a sharp report | honor me by accepting this, a slight token A minute after, and while I was gently of my regard for the pleasure afforded chiding her, we heard a load, quick tramp | me by your company and conversation?" of horses, and several sharp, rapid excla . You are a very gallant gentleman, "I think I have paid my share to the mations. The next moment our convey- Senor," she lang ed taking the two re adrones for my transit through their since was stopped suddenly, and we saw volvers in one fair hand, and presenting ourselves surrounded by some eight or the other ten mounted o.en one of whom in a lond I reached the box towards her - to

> "Yield yourserves prisoners or die !" "Quek, Senorita," said I, extending slipped and fell between us the time for decisive action !"

her them suppose we yield-ier them off their guard and one quick, furtive nen the door.

" Quick, Senorita, for the love of God !" quickness of lightning, seized both weap cried grasping at her arm " Hold !" she exclaimed instantly presenting one of my revolvers at my head, the party was now only the work of a mo

" Great God !" I exclaimed perfectly stounded; " our prisoner did you say is It is not possible that one so fair and the with these banditti."

"It is even so, Senor, she replied, with "Each one stands on the spot where keeping one of my own weapons turned against myself, and significantly pointing the other towards the door. "You will oblige us by stepping forth and giving yourself into the care of of those good gentlemen, who will see that you are treated as a brave man should be but who will trouble you meantime for any little "Holy saints defend us," she excisim- change and valuables you may have to There seemed to be no help for it—the "You would only bring certain death | be utiful Senorita Panla Valerde was a env and accomplice of the ladrones She had entered the dilligencia at Perote for penses of the journey-for your knights no other purpose than to ascertain the leave of me, this being the end of their of the road understand retreat as well as exact condition of things inside, and be able to signa ize her associates as she passed along so that they might know exactly to make their work sure without risk. By a simple stratagem she had obtained m of the pistol as if by accident, was the vil except in works of fiction-tall, my iriends have repeatedly told me that sign to show them that all was secure, "I acknowledge myself conquered by being outwitted I' said I, bowing to la Senorita. Then turning to the robbers, who had now collected in a body, in front of the door of the diligencia, I continued: " Gentlemen! will you permit me to myself. I learned that she was unmar- in return, and said with a grim smile. "Si, Senor, we would be most happy vehicle; and one dutck' scarching glance tobbers, or he might not, but in either standing on their feet, holding their mus. "And have you really the nerve, after tangs by the bridle. Looking upon my "I have two pistols," said I; " if you my presence of mand, and did not wholly more closely to us. Prosperity and ad- ent who had gone in with them,

" Will you accept this purse?" said I. ' And this, you say, will shoot some 'producing one that held several gold coins and handing it to the chief of the ladrones "I think it safe to calculate that five "Thank you, Senor, you are very kind," harges out of six will explode. Senori- he said, as he took it in his hand and chinked the money.

"This diamond pin may prove accephe replied; "and such I can almost table to your friend," I added, as I quietfancy we are safe. You have another ly removed it from the bosom of my shirt and handed it to the gentleman on his left, who received it in the same polite "What a beautiful invention?" she manner. "This diamond ring I trust est smiles I must not forget this beau-"Have a care. Senorita; or you will tiful lady! I have here," I went on, at the same producing the article, "a very my hand trembled a little and just as the pre ent was about to touch her fingers, a ny hand : " quick! in Heaven's Same! "A theorem) pardons Senorita, for "And your fellow travellers," said I; | give me one of those weapons, for now is lawkwardness." I said, as I bent down to > pick it up. Nay," she repried, putting the weap . Now was the all important moment of ons behind her. "You will be too hasty life and death! All were in a measure glance snowed me that the girl still held "Oh, no! it will then be too late!" my weapons carelessly in one hand, with As I spoke the door was suddenly thrown the other remaining extended for the prize. open and three or four swarthy, heavily ! I lifted the box car fully but as I raised bearded men presented themselves to my i myself I gave a wild starting yell; and as > > the Senorita started back, I, with the ons, and wrenched them from her To wheel and commence firing upor ment. The first shot fortunately stretch ed out the chief; the second took effect on the one noncest to him; and by the through their had been cout to his tals of an image a section is a filter one gett of ly as yourself, is in any manner concerns to be a soil the astorned discubbes become in scatter to every direction. I had no disp si to to tolow them however, anoth. one of her most bewitching smiles, still er minute they might rally and turn upon me and springing forward I grasped the reins of a freed mustang and vaulted into the saddle. One more glance around show. ed the Schorita Paula upon the body of the chief, her laughter changed to grief and some of the scattered cowards bearing their weaponso to bear upon me. "Adaios, Senorita and Senores!" said

I. bitterly, "he laughs best who laughs The next moment I was dashing away pouring after me a volley, but fortunately down the road the half rallied robbers send a thrill of joy throughout the bound and startle the world, it probably had refer not touching their mark. They would the whole country by its enormity. It doubtless have followed me in hot pursuit the President on that day, but the want of but for the wholesome dread they bad of deteated the plan. His own letter showes my still undischarged weapons. As it that he had been brooding over the matter was I escaped, and entered the town of for months, and artful men in Richmond ed along so that they might know exactly Puebla in triumph; where it is almost the hope that it would save Rtchmond from needless to add a narrative of my exploits its impending fate, by the confusion; and made me a hero and lien for the time. would rustrate the well designed movements Here I fold my captured mustang and trappings for, enough to idemnify me for been perpetrated on the 4th of March, before Richmond fell it might have given a what I disposed of in the way of presents and the next day saw me an inside passen ger of the same diligencia, en route for Mexic, where I arrived in safety, with out any further event worthy of note.

What became of the robbers and their beautiful accomplica I never learned but had a far-reaching purpose and used him as what I disposed of in the way of presents new lesso of life to the usurpation at Rich. beautiful accomplice I never learned but had a far reaching purpose and used him as the lesson taught nie on that lourney I a proper tool for work then derey not appear in the purpose of the lesson taught nie on that lourney I a proper tool for work then derey not appear have never forgotten; and during the red did not comprehend the purpose. By demainder of my stay in that country, no lay the crime recoils upon the base plotters

Friends in Prosperity. One of the hardest trials of those who teresting and touching incident occurred officers in the army, and solorth, and so to receive anything which so distinguish fall from affluence and honor to poverty at York, Pa., during the stoppage of the and obscurity is to find that the attach- train there with the remains of the Pres-With this I quietly stepped from the ment of so many in whom they confided ident on Friday last, which is described was a mask, to gain their own ends, or as follows by a correspondent; While was a miserable shallowness. Some- we are taking in water the crowd opened a times, doubtless, it is with regret that passage from the station, and a half dozger of either sex in a strange country. ped in a wild gloomy place, and the dri- these frivolous followers of the world de- en ladies in black came through the As we continued our journey, the con- ver was sitting carelessly on his box, sert those upon whom they have fawned; cars. Generals Townsend and McColbut they soon forges; them: Flies leave lum meet them, and in a moment a solthing to another, Senorita Paula sudden- He might also be an accomplice, of the the kitchen when the dishes are empty. dier brings down a large waiter, around The parasites that cluster around the fa- which is a wreath of white roses, camecase there was little hope of assistance vorite of fortune, to gather his gifts and lias, and the most delicate and fragrant "We are coming upon a dangerous from him-any attempt of the kind would climb by his aid, linger in the sunshine, exotics. In the centre of the wreath is part of the road, she said; are you still certainly bring upon him a severe punish- but scatter at the approach of a storm as a flag, the blue field made of violets, the ment, sooner or later. I glanced up and the leaves cling to a tree in summer stars of white violets, and the red stripes "With your permission, Senorita?" down the road where it wound between weather, but drop off at the breath of of geraniums, making one of the most "I don't think it advisable," she re- dark, overshadowing trees, but discover- winter, and leave it naked to the sting- beautiful natural pictures ever prepared plied, "but still if such is your inten- ed nothing to give me any hope. The rob- ing blast. Like ravens settled down for for such an occasion. The ladies of a banquet, suddenly scared by a noise, York sent it, and General McCollum you should give me a chance to take a all well armed, were collecting around me how quickly, at the first sound of ca- broke over the rules, and allowed them to part in my defence, since my risk of part of them mounted, and the others lamity, these superficial earthlings are enter the sacred car. They carried it to the But a true friend sits in the centre, other down their fair cheeks, they left case as a desperate one, so far as being and is for all times Our need only re- it upon the cold bier Not a word wa plundered was concerned, I still retained | veals him more fully, and binds him spoken There were half a dozen pres

An Oil Romanco. Some ten or twelve years ago a boy and zirl, as is often the case, were-among the cholars going to school in one of the ownships a few miles east of Meadville The boy, as hoys always are, was rather full and stupid, getting, as a natural conquence, many a scotling, while the girl vas very apt, and helped him with his essons, as girls always will. He was very | more upon ensiness in the detail of exgrateful, of course, and promised to repay penditure than upon one degree's differher some day, "when he got to be a man ' ence in the scale. Guard against false plaudits of angels.

mere specks on the horizon.

listed. In the meantime the parents of the rirl that was the woman now, having become very poor, she was obliged to sup- and yet how often is his appreciation port herself, so obtaining a place in a governed by no other standard, as if good family, she came to Meadville to there were a pleasure in expenditure work. Last summer the young man the wounded and came home. Just before his return to theatmy, h viagre-emisted assured that it is real want; and it is he told her that he no do, probably, nover worth while to feel it a little, in order to icturn; that he had never forgotten the feel he relief from it. When you are promise made in his boxton I's days, and undecide as to which of two courses your purse. ne now wished in some marner to fulfil it: that he had not much to offer; only the third interest in three acres of land on Oil Creek: that he could not tell whether it would ever be worth anything, but whether it was or not she might have it and welcome. The gift was accepted and the papers properly made out before About six weeks ago the other two own ers of the land having gone on to develop beterritory, a forty barrel well was struck nd she was at once offered $10,000 for her interest, one acre of land. The first intimation the family where she is hving had of her good fortune was last week, when the gentleman, who, by the way lives in one the finest houses in the up ner and of town, baving mentioned that ie had been effered $10,000 for his projetty, was very much astonished was she made him the same offer, and said the house was sold she was wanted to buy it as a home for her parents. Thinking surely she must be "daft," he made some inquiries, when the facts were found out as stated above.

If she doesn't "put on airs," and marries the soldier boy when he comes back from the wars, the story will be finished in a good old-fashioned way, and we will duly notify our readers of the sequel.

What it Moant. When the Richmond papers announced, a few days before the 4th of March, that an event was about to transpire which would send a thrill of joy throughout the South, ence to the tragedy which has since startled known that Booth intended to assassinate

A Touching Incident .- A very in coffin, and as the tears chased one anversity are both revealers, the difference dry eyes came out The fragrance from disarmed, and now stood singly between being that in the former our friends those violets seemed like mouse from "You are very kind, Senor-but can numbers, but the idea of yielding to this know us, in the latter we know them .- Heaven. A neat tribute, plain but comoutrage was repugnant to my very nature | But notwithstanding the insincerity and | ing from the heart, will weigh against rest personal beauty was waking along narrow lane, she perceived just behind er a lowker of earthen-ware, discourant s with two panniers laden with his stock trade. To give the animal med bits a ster from to pass. It I dy saddedy pped aside, which we might ned the lookey that he van agray, and had not nocceded far when he f U. and a great is a vast deal more of esteem and fellow a starry flag of violets laid upon the ort of the crockery was broken. The yearning than is ever outwardly shown. corpse by the ladies of York. Old men ndy, in her turn, because alread lest There are more examples of unadultera- tottering to their graves, with rain pate man gloud load her will alose, if ted affection, more deeds of silent love tering upon their buld heads; wounded ot offer to inspir her, but to nece yexand magnanimity, than is usually sup-soldiers hobbling to the roadside to show aimed, "Never mind, ma'am; Basaam'a posed. Our misfortunes bring to our their love for him who sleeps before ss was frightened by the regel." side real friends, before unknown. Be- them; old women sobbing as though Sold .- Bob, that's a fine horse you nevolent impulses, where we could least they had lost their first born; fair maid expect them, in modest privacy enact ens brush away the tears, and men hold tave there, what's he werth?" "Three hundred and fifty dollars." many scenes of beautiful wonder amidst up their little ones to see the car that contains the remains of the people's "No, not so much as that."

you would pursue, choose the cheapest

This rule will not only save moncy, but also a good deal of trifling indecision -

Too much leisure leads to expense; be cause when a man is in want of objects

it occurs to him that they are to be li-

for money, and he invents exhauditure

in order to pass the time. - Tayler

BE The youth that has the mera courage to say I will not do it, because it is wrong, is brave enough for a gen eral If he case, even though trunted rebuke his fellows for evil nots, he i truly brave. Such a character alway moulds the elements of mind er an h'in carrying almost unlimited away an s respected by even the worst of hi playmates. It requires an effort to stan for the right at times, but, if it is suc cessfully done the road to honor and truth is easy to travel and by his example many are induced to walk in it -

This kind of bravery gives every boy a conscience that stamps in bold characters, purity of thought, highness of purpose and integrity of heart, upon his open brow. One of the world's renowned, one of whom we love and cherish, George Washington, was a brave

Dr. Johnson used to say that a habit of looking at the best side of every

When Fencion's library was on fire."

is not the dwelling of some poor man!"

This is the true spirit of submission; one of the most beautiful traits that can pos-

this world on its sunny side, and you functions are still measurably different

the schools; laying the basis of knowledge with cumparalleled speed universally a-

at the outset.

God be praised!" he exclaimed, "that boy.

notes from Life.

friend. "He was crucified for us I' ex-"Yes, every cent of it, another fifty on claimed an aged colored man, but the he top of that." shrill whistle sounds, and we leave a "Are you sure?" scene that can never be forgotten by "Yes, I'll swear to it." those who witnessed it. "All right."

"What are you so darned inquisitive MAXILIS ON MONEY .- The art of living easily as to money, is to pitch your "Merely for assessing purposes, I am scale of living one degree below your he assessor for this word and only wantmeans. Comfort and enjoyment depends d to know what you rated your negat." PROVERBS .- Better spare at the brim than at the bottom. Notwithstanding this strange promise, associations of pleasure with expendi Better balf a loaf than no bread. time passed on as usual, and when he got | ture-the notion that because pleasure Beware of the geese when the fox can be purchased with money, therefore money cannot be spent without enjoy-Better suffer a great evil than do alitment. What a thing costs a man is no true measure of what is worth to him;

Be reasonable, and you will be happy. Bear and torbear is short and good phil-Beware of little expenses. per e. Let yourself feel a want before

Buy what theu hast no need of, and you provide against it. You are more re long thou shait seil thy necessaries. Bold and shameless men are masters of nalf the world.

He ready with your hat, but slow with

Be slow to give airice, roady to do any CIVICE.

Both anger and haste hinder good coun-

By making a fau't, you may learn to do buer. By doing othing, men learn to do ill. Beam your web, and God will supply or with thread break the less of an evil ense m Beauty and folly do not often part com-

Bet er to ride on an ass that carries me han a horse that throws me

Beauty draws more than oven Be no to base, to outbid a o her Better to g to bed surpercess than to loost.- Liverybody remembers the prophecies of the Charlestonians in 1860 -61, that, if the North should at empt to resist the will of South Casolina, the grass would grow in the streets of New York, and cows would be pistured in Broadway. The fire eaters spoke with careless glee of this utter ruin and desolation, which they intended to bring upon the people of the North. Well, the southern correspondent of the London Times, writing from Charleston, on Jan. 14, 1865, says of that city:

CURSES WHICH CAME HOME TO

"I am told that in the height of sumevent is better than a thousand pounds mer, when the grass in the streets afyear. Bishop Hall quaintly remarks; forded pasturage to many wandering ' For every bad thing there might be a cows, and the wild fennel shot up eight worse; and when a man breaks his leg, or ten feet high, turning the city into let him be thankful it was not his neck." the semblance of a jungle, the sense of desolation was far more painfully felt w Already the hen partridge has been found nestling with her brood among the orumbling ruins. Already the owl has been heard to hoot by night from the sess the human heart. Resolve to see spires of the demolished churches."

CONUNDRUMS .- What is the longest have almost half won the battle of life and vet the shortest thing in the world plary occupation than playing cards? Because you play at cliess with two bishops, position; and as we rattled away from companion gradually changing the subwe would, we would as a severe cold resemble to be fall for for the consequences of their provided you take care to be happy in the gloomy town, I took the liberty of jeet, and seeming much interested in

The leader of the party bowed politely work.

Patter Leaves.