Probably the farmers of Cumber land county never in their history had promise of so abundant harvests as at the present time. The hay and wheat under the influ ence of the copious rains of last Spring have grown into rankness, and are in a fair way to ripen an abundance of the staff of life.-Our abundance will make up for the fall in prices and bring as much money to Cumberland county as when war prices filled our farmer's pockets. We ought to be grateful to the Giver of all good that He has seen fit to give us abundance wherewith to make up the losses and devastations of war. We hope our brave veterans, will contradict the predictions of their enemies, that the war has rendered them worthless, and will all show by going to work to help gather these crops that they are as valuable, as industrious and enterprising citizens, as they have shown themselves unsurpassed as brave and efficient soldiers. And we know they will, and all our people will yet be convinced that there is no education which will give us such patriotic, industrious, quiet, and peaceable citizens, as the stern discipline of righteous Yours, and the plants vigorous. These sheaves were cut with a sickle, and metal label containing the date, was tied to the band of each sheaf; every morning they were carried from the field to the barn, and laid on a mow over the barn floor. Each set of sheaves remained in the field one day, and were then housed; if wet, care was taken to dry them well.

On the 1st of August the sheaves were tak on down and threshed, by striking the heads over the edge of a board laid on an open barrel, and each lot carefully by itself, with its proper label. As soon as all the lots were threshed and arranged, the following was the result. Equal measures of each were Pounds. Onnec

As regards structure, they are original and philosophical; in purity, volume, and continuity of tone; in vocal versimilitude, that crowning excel lence which enables the planists to "sing" on the incument, your Pianos ever deserve the highest rank. Your invention, in my opinion, is destined to work radical change in the manufacture of Pianos throughont the world.

. From the N. Y. The N. Y. Times, July 12, says:-We have now an nstrument without an equal. It can sing with a smooth delicacy, perfectly unattainable on any other instrument; an ordinary player obtains with no exer tion, the fullness of a Grand Plane-Forte, and they must speedily supersede the old styles. GENTLEMEN:- Having thoroughly examined and tested the Planc-Fortes invented and patented by Mr. S. B. Driggs, I am of the opinion that the tone resulting from his improvements, as exhibited in the instruments under examination, in point of richness, dipth and brilliancy, equals that of the best Grand Plano Fortes, and excels them in pure, musical inton ation and actual tone, power thus approximating closer to what I consider perfection in the instrumer than has yet been achieved by any other system other Piano. The construction is simple and natural, all the extraneous lumber in the body of the instruction is disponsed with; the sound boards are merely two arched planks of thin wood, like the front and back of a violin; the strings are attached to a strong Iron frame, which is separated and entirely independent of the case, thereby dispensing with the old harp form of stringing, by substituting straight bridges, preserving at the same time the Over Strung Bass, of which Mr. Driggs is the inventor. By these improvements we gain much more vibratory power, at the same time preserving all its purity and richness of tone.
