The rush of visitors to Mt. Holly this season has been unprecedented. We are informed that the Hotels there are unable to accommodate one-third the number to that has arrived. A movement is now on foot to have the large hotel extended or a new one built and we understand that the visitors offer a very large sum for that purpose. We would be pleased to hear of this being carried out and hope ere long to announce it. Should the South Mountain Iron Co., build its railroad through Holly which is now considered almost certain, and suitable buildings be erected for the accommodation of visitors, The rush of visitors to Mt.
