CHANGE OF WEATHER -The change f the season, is now setting in, has its effect a greater extent upon the health of our tizens. Accustomed to go about in their othes without under clothes, &c., during be warm summer season, we forget that the range in the weather requires also a change garments and hence colds, fevers and ther sickness, is much heard of. We would perefore advise our friends not to forget to the foren take that necessary change in clothes which ne weather so much r quires, and thus preerve their health which they have heretoare enjoyed. Those needy of clothes will nd it to their advantage to call at the store f Mr. Julius Neuwall, between Drs. leiffer & Zitzer, North Hanover Street, arlisle, who has just returned from the ties with the largest stock of goods, such Overcouts, pants, vests, woolen shirts. oats, Boys & Youth's clothing, Gents' Furnhing Goods, '&c., that has ever been rought to the town of Carlisle, and who ssures bargains to those who give him a all. Don't forget to try him when laying a your fall and winter stock.
