Gentlemen:—I have recent even laboring under the distressing effects of indiging, accompanied by a prostration of the nervous aim. Numerous remedies were recommended by frie, and same of them tested, but without relief. Yolfcofland's German litters were recommended by jons who had tried them, and whose favorable me'n of these bitters induced the to try them. I muganfess that I had an aversion to Patent Medicinesm the "thousand and one" quack "Bitters" whosely aims seems to be to palm off sweetened and drug liquor upon the to be to palm off sweetened and drug liquor upon the community in a sly way, and the hadency of which. I fear, is to make many a confirmed unkard. Upon learning that yours was really a sidefinish priparation I took it with happy effect. action, not only upon the stemach, but upon the sous system, was prompt and gra lifying. I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic, to il who are suffering from general debitity or from disease arising from derangement of the liver.

Yours, truly. E. D. FEDALL.
From Rev. D. Merrige, Pastor of the Passynk Baptist Church, Phila. tist Church, Phila.

From the many respectable, recommendation given given to Dr. Hoofland's de man Bitters. I was siduced to give them a triat. After using several bylies I found them to be a good remedy for debility, and a most excellent tonic for the stomach.

From Rev. Wm Smith, formerly Prator the Vincentown and Miliville (N. J.) Baptist Churches, Phila. Phila.

Haying used in my family a number of bottles of your Hoodand's German Bittors. I have so say that I regard them as an excellent medicine, specially adapted to remove the diseases they are resummended for. They attempthen and invigorate the sptem when debilitated, and are useful in disorders of the liver, loss of appetite, &c. I have also recompended them to several of my friends, who have tries them, and sound them greatly beneficial in the respiration of health

Yours, truly, WILIAM SMITH, D From J. S. Herman, of the syman Reformed Church. Rutstown, Berks County, A.

Respected Sir:—I have soon troubled with Dyspersia nearly twenty years and have noise used any modicine that did me aymuch good as Hoofland's Bitters, I am very much improved in health, after having taken five bottles Yours, with respect,
