100 PRIVEING -Our Job Printing Office is the riest and most complete establishment in the loun y. Four good Presses, and a general variety of material suited for plain and fancy work of ever da't, eathles us to do Job Printing at the shortest onot ce, tod on the most reasonable terms. Persons 14 san of Bills, Banks or anything in the Jobbing lio , will fluilit .o their interest to give us a call

General Information.

U S. GOVERNMENT.

President—Andrew Johnson,
Yion President—L. S. Foster,
Socretary of State—WM. H.Seward, Socretary of Interior—Las Hallan, Socretary of Unit - House,
Socretary of Theorem,
Socretary of Theorem,
Socretary of Navy—Hidden Mc

STATE GOVERNMENT. GOVERNOT—ANDREW G. CLRTIN.
Sore art, of thite-Wild SLIPER.
Surveyor tien-rail—LAMES. BARR,
A-thore denoral—RAVE SLERRER,
Attorney denoral—WM. M. MUREBITH.
A liptant General—A L. RUSSELL,
State Frosurer—HENRY D. Monra.
Chief Ju tie of the Supreme Court—Geo. W. Wood

COUNTY OFFICERS. President Judge-Hon James H. Graham. Associate Judges-Hon. Michael Cocklin, Her Hugh Staart
District A torney—J. W. D. Gillelen.
Peth motary—Samuel Shireman
Give an I Receiver—Ephralin Cornman.
Register—Geo W. North.
High Sheriff—John Jacobs.
Constr. Treasurer—Henry S. Ritter.
Commor —David Su th
County Commissioners—Honry Karns, John County Commissioners—Honey Karns, John oy, Aitchell McClellan, Supercutendent of Poor House—Henry Snyder. Physician to Jail—Dr. W. W. Dale. Physician to Podr House—Dr. W. W. Dale.

Chief Burgess—John Campbell,
Assistant Burgess—William Cameron, Town Council—Last Ward—J. W. D. Gilelen, An, drew B. Z. izler, (190, Wetzel, Chas. U. Hoffer, Barnet Hoffman, West Ward—A R. Rheam, John Hays, Robt.
M. Black, S. D. Rilliam Clerk, Jas., M. Masonhammer
Borough Trensuren, David Comman,
High Comstatite, Kananuet Swarez, Ward Constables, East Ward, Andrew Martin, West Ward, James Widssessor-William Noaker.

BOROUGH OFFICERS

Assessor—William Nonker.
Auditor—A. K. Shenfer
Tax Collector—Andrew Kerr, Ward Collectors—East
Ward, Jac-b Goodyen; West Ward, if R. Williams Street Commission; Patrick Madden.
Just tees of the Perior—V. L. Spinsler, David Smith, Abru 10 Juff Michael Holcomb.
Lamp Lighters—Alex, Meck, Levi Albert.

CHURCHES. First Presbyterian Church, Northwest angle of Cautre Square. Ray Conway P. Wing Pactor.—Services avery Sunday Morning at 11 o'clock, A. M., and 7 o'clock P. M. o'cloca P. M.
Secont Presbyterian Church, corner of South Harover and Poinfect streets—Rev. John C. Bliss. Pastor Services commence at the o'clock, A. M., and 7 o'clock P. M. John's 'hurch. (Prot Episcopal) northeast angl St. John's 'hurch. (Prot Episcopal) northeast angle of Centre Square. Rev F J Clerc. 4ector. Services at 11 relock t. M., and 7 o'clock. P. M.
English tutberau Church, bedford, between Main the Louther streets. Rev sam! Spreiser, Pastor. Services at 11 o'clock A. M., and 60% ('clock P. M.) there at 11 loctock A. M., and 60% ('clock P. M.) there at 11 loctock A. M., and 60% ('clock P. M.).
Minnist E. Dharch (hast charge) corner of Main and Pitt streets. Rev. Phomas H. Sherlock, Pastor Services at 11 o'clock A. M., and 6 o'clock P. M.
Minnist E. Church (hast charge) corner of Main and Pitt streets. Rev. Phomas H. Sherlock, Pastor Services at 11 o'clock A. M. and 7 o'clock P. M.
Michilat E. Church (second charge.) Rev. S. L. Bownin, Pastor. 1 ervices in Emory M. E. Church at 1 o'clock A. M., and 3% P. M. Machalist E. Church (second charge,) and N. S. Downin, Pastor, is ervices in Emory M. E. Church at 1 o'clock A. M., and 3/3 P. M.
Church of God Chapel South West cor. of West St and Chapel Mley. Rev B. F. Beck, Pastor. Services at 11 a, m., and 6/2 n. m.

t. Patrick's Can did Church Pomfret near Eastst Rev

Histor. Services every other Sab bath. at 10 o'clock. Vespecs at 3 P. M.
Ger nin Lutheran Church, corner of Pomfret and Bottor Liteness. Rev C. Fribbe, Castor. Services at 1 o'clock P. M.

DICKINSON COLLEGE Rev Hermin M. Johnson, D. D. Previd n. and Pro Johnson of Moral Science and Biblical Literature. Someel D. Hillman, A. M. Professor of Mathematics. John K. Staymen, A. M., Professor of the Latin and Jone h. Languares. French Languages, Han Ermes I Graham, LD D. Professor of Law. ence and Curator of the Museum.
Roy. James A. Mclaucy, A. M., Professor of the Greek and German Languages.
Rev Bernsrd H. Natiall, D. D., Professor of Philosophy and sugaish Languite. Rev. Henry C. Cheston, A. M. Principal of the Grammar School.

A. M. Trimo er, Principal of the Commercial Departt. Watson McKeehan, Assistant In Grammar School THE MARY INSTITUTE

ocal Music. Mrs. M. M. Ege, Teacher of Piano. Miss E. Gravann, Teacher of Frawing and Painting-Rev. S. Phinps, Lecturer on Elocution and Psychol-

BOARD OF SCHOOL DIRECTORS.

CORPORATIONS.

CVRLISLE DEPOSIT BANK.—President, R. M. Hender son Cashier, J. P. Hassier: Tellers, L. A. emith and W. A. Cox; Messenger, Jun. Underwoo; Directors, R. M. Handerson, Deposition 1, p. Underwoo; Directors, R. M. gas, John Stuart, jr., Ahm. Bosler, Henry S Skiles Woodburn, J. J. Logan, Wm. B. Mullin. Skiles Woodburn, J. J. Legan, Win. B. Mullin.

Frast National Bank.—President, Saunel Hopburn
Ca nler. Jos. C. Holfer, Patter, Abner C. Brinde, Mee
Sa. gar, Jaso Brown Wm. Ker, John Duniap, Rich'd
Woods, John O. Ounlap, sana Brenneman, John S.
Sterrett, Sam'l Hepburn, Directors.

CUMBERLAND VALLEY BALROAD COMPANY.—President, Frederick Watts: Secretar and Treasurer, Edward
M. Ballle: Superintendent, O. N. Luli, Passenge
M. Ballle: Superintendent, O. N. Luli, Passenge
trains three times a day. Carlisle Accommo atton.
Elatward, leaves Carlisle & 56 A. M., arriving at Car listo 5 2 P. M. Through trains Eastward, 10.10 A. M. and 2.42, P. M. Westward at 9.27, A. M., and 2.55 P.
M. QARLISLE GAS AND WATER COMPANY.— President, Lem usi Cold: Treasurer, A. L. Spon-ler; Superinter en, George Wise: Directors, F. Watts, Wm. M. Beetemt D. W. Biddle, Henry Saxton, R. C. Woodward, J. W. Patton, F. Jardner and D. S, Croft.

SOCIETIES. Oumberland Star Lodge No. 197, A. Y. M. meets a Marion Hall on the 2nd and 4th Tugsdays of ever mouth.

8t John's Lodge No. 200 A. Y. M. Meets $d Thurs day of each mouth, at Marlon Hall.
Carlish Lodge No. 91 L. of O. F. Meets Monday
evouing at Irout's hullding Letert Lodge No. 63, L. O. of G. T. Meets every

FIRE COMPANIES. The Union Fire Compuny was organized in 1789.

House in Louther between Pittand Hanover.

The Cumberland Fire Company was instituted Feb.
19, 1800. House in Badford, between Main and Pom fret.

The Good Will Fire Company was instituted in March, 1866. House in Pomfret, near Hanover The Empire Hook and Ladder Company was instituted in 1859 ifouse in Pitt, near Main. RATES OF POSTAGE.

Possage on all telegraph of the State State on the Helical Desiration on the Helical Desiration on the Helical Desiration on the State IS controlled annual To any part of the United States, 26 cents Postage on all transle to papers, 2 controlled Controlled Desiration of the Co

Albums for Ladies and Contlemen.
Albums f r Misses, and for Children,
Pocket Albums for Soldiers and Civilians. Ohoicest Albums! Prettiest Albums! Cheapest Albums FOR CHRISTMAS GIFTS!

polite attention call at Mrs. R. A. Smith's Photographic Gallery, South East corner, I lancer street and Marker Square, opposite the Court House and Post Other Called Parkers.

Office, Carlisle, Pa.
Mrs. R. A. Smith well known as Mrs. R. A. Raynolds Once, or the control of the control

Surgeon and Accouchour OFFICE at his residence in Pitt rectly or indirectly interest the citizens of Cumberland County. In fact the Legis-

A A A A Secretary of the control of Carlisle, Pa., Friday, January 12, 1866.

TERMS:--$2.00 in Advance, or $2.50 within the year.

A. K. RHEEM, Publisher.

lature has done little more than organize itself during yesterday and to day when it adjourned to meet on Wednesday morn day, the two Houses will meet in conven tion to elect a State Tressurer. Mr. WM.

H. KEMBLE, the Union caucus nominee.

the present fiscal year.

will undonbtedly be re-elected to the po-

The speeches of the new Speakers are characterized by a spirit of patriotism;

in tone and sentiment, speaking as they do for the great majority of our Legislators, these opening speeches of the Legislature cannot fail to ring in unison with

Hon DAVID FLEMING, Speaker of the Senate, was born in Washington county,

Pennsylvania, and while still a boy was taken by his parents to a farm in Dauphin county. He had a mere Common School education, as the formation of the study edited a newspaper in Harrisburg, and served as legislative correspondent for the Philadelphia newspaper press. In 1842

he was admitted to the bar, and since then he has built himself a practice in the courts here unsurpassed by any other attorney. In 1847 he served as Chief Clerk at Bull Run fully roused his combativepolitics, Speaker Kelley had always been a Democrat-a true Democrat; and on his return from service he espoused a vigorous prosecution of the war. With-up becomes eloquent and enthusiastic.

OFFICERS OF THE SENATE.

Speaker-David Fleming

Gratz, Montgomery; Col. Chauncy C

Sergeant at arms-Joseph Reblett, of

Door Keeper-John Martin, Lancas-

Librarian - Jacob S yers, Dauphin.

Speaker James R. Kelley, of Wash-

Chief Clerk-A. W. Benedict, Hun-

Assistant Clerk-Wm. H. Denniston

Transcribing Clerk-1st, C. W. Wal-

OFFICERS OF THE HOUSE.

Messenger-Wm. Duffy, Phila.

of Germantown.

Rogers, Erie.

Philadelphia.

gton county.

tingdon county.

Allegheny county.

McKean.

Common wealth.

the hearts of the honest masses.

sition which he has so ably filled during H. Kurtz, Philadelphia; 3d. John Moore

sulvània

Moeticul. From The Round Tuble.

VOL. 65.

THE NATION'S DEAD. Four hundred thousand men, The brave—the good—the true-In tangled wood, in mountain glon n battle plain, in prison pen, Lie dead for me and you! Four hundred thousand of the brave Have made our ransomed soil their grave, For me and you! Good friends, for me and you In many a fevered swamp, By many a black bayou,

In many a cold and frozer camp, The w ary sentinel ceased his tramp, And died for me and you! From Western, plain to ocean tide Are st-etched the graves of those who died For me and you! Good friends, for me and you! On many a bloody plain

Their reads awords they drew,
And poured their life-blood out, like rain A home—a heritage to gain, To gain for you and me Our brothers mustered by our side They marched, and fought, and bravely died, For me and you! Good friends, for me and you!

Up many a fortress wall They charged—those boys in blue— Mid surging smoke, and voltey'd ball, The brovest were the first to full! To fall for me and you! These noble men—the nation's pride— Four hundred thousand men have died For me a d you!

Good friends, for me and you In treason's prison hold Their martyr-spirits grew To stature like the saints of old: While amid agonies untold, They starved for me and you! The good, the patient, and the tried, For me and you!

Good friends, for me and you! A debt we ne'er can pay To them is justly due, And to the nation's latest day Our children's children still shall say " They died for me and you! Made this, our ransomed soil, their grave, Good friends, for me and you!

STEADY AND READY.

eady when fortune's dark shadows surround us Calm, when the winds of Adversity blow; Brave, when the world's hollow voice would su

Strong, though its wild waves tumultuous flow Steady in tempest, in strife and commotion Hope as our Anchor to stem the rude sea, Fierce though the billows and wrathful the ocean-Steady and ready our maxim shall be.

Ready, when sinister foes would oppress us Dauntless in conflict to do and to dare : Ready to echo the voices which bless us, When shielding the offs ring of want and despair Ready, to calm the low wailing of sorrow, To battle with wrong till the enemy flee Hoping and trusting to win the bri ht morrow-Steady and ready our maxim shall be.

Stoody, while dork streams around us are flowing Steady, the rocks and the quicksands to shun; Firmer in faith and full heartedness growing. Till the conflict is over, the victory won; Glimpses of sunshine steal round the dark river, Starlight and moonlight illumine the sea; Hall to the symbol—both now and forever, Steady and ready our maxim shall be.

Miscellaneons.

FROM HARRISBURG.

Opening of the Legislature—Absence the Governor-His Message- Speeches of the Speakers - Sketches of their Lives-Important measures on Foot. Special Correspondence of the Carlisle HERALD.

HARRISBURG, January 3, 1866. For the first time in the history of this Commonwealth our Legislature has convened in the Capitol of the State in the absence on foreign soil of him who performs the Executive functions. A Gov ernor who has by the choice of a large majority of the people of Pennsylvania held the chief magistracy of a great Commonwealth for five long years of trouble and turmoil, such as no other equal period in our history has presented, with all the honor incident to the high positionall the weariness of spirit which the embarrasments, the conflicting interests and the critical state of the public weal induced-has seen fit to leave for a time his home for sunnier shores, there to recuperate a constitution blasted by the de mon spirit of intestine strife Having performed his patriotic work faithfully. it was but right that he should rest from his arcuous labors. The brief message of Governor Curtin read to day, (which I enclose,) was writ- difficulty in passing a bill to recompense ten but a very short time previous to his the sufferers on the border by the various departure far Cuba. He then feared that raids, &c. hias absence might be construed into an unwarrantable neglect of duties, though his physician and all his triends were unanimous in urging him to make the trip. This modest disregard of self I think is evident to all from the manner in which, in his message, he appeals to that "affectionate consideration" which he has al ways received at the hands of Legislature. But the public interests have not suffered in the hands of the counsellors by whom be was surrounded of yore, and there is not a single voice of dissatisfaction at his absence raised in either House. Notwithstanding he fixes the early part of Febru ary for his return, it is the belief of his most intimate friends, among them Col SLIFER, Secretary of the Commonwealth, that the Governor will be here by the middle of the present month In his private letters he has exibited an earnest desire to return as soon as circumstances will permit. One of the features of his desease is swollen hands, which render ker, Philadelphia; 2d, A. D. Harlan, him almost unable to write.

Chester county; 3d, J. P. Williston, him almost unable to write. It is of course too early in the session for any important legislation. There will Allegheny county; 4th, M. Edgar King, Fulton, county; 5th, Robert Brown, Lycoming county. Postmaster-J. D. Kirkpatrick, Mercer be nothing of any great moment transacted until the return of the Governor .-county. Several bills, calling for local legislation, Assistant Postmaster-W. A. Rupert, have ben read in place, but none that di-Crawford county. Sergeant-at-arms-Charles E. Idell, Cumberland County .. In fact the Legis | Philadelphia.

Assistant Sergeant at arms-1st; Geo. Strain, Allegheny county; 2d, James B Work, Indiana county; 3d, Samuel Christ Impression county; 4th, Hugh M'Mullen Delaware county.

ing at ten o'clock. At twelve, on that Doorkeeper-James M'Gowan, Lawrence county. Assistant Doorkeepers-1st, J. Hall. Susquehanna county; 2d, Charles > Westmorland county; 4th, S. Y. Boyer, Dauphin county. Messenger-James M'Cauley, Philadel-

Assistant Messengers-Irt, William F Brockway, Erie county; 2d, J. J. Nofsker, Blair county; 3d, J. W. Powell Lancaster county; 4th, Samuel Nuce, Philadelphia.

GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE. To the Senate and House of Representati tives of the Commonwealth of Penn-

GENTLEMEN: The toils and anxieties f the last four years have, from time to time, brought on me severe attacks of of law, which he commenced at Harris | disease. From the most severe of these burg in 1838. Before that, he had been I am now slowly struggling cowards reinterested in contracts on the Bultimore covery. I find that to give my const tuand Havere de Grace Railroad, and in tion an opportunity to continue this strugshipping timber from North Carolina and without delay, make a short sea voyage Virginia for the Navy Department at and sojourn in a milder climate. Under Washington. During his law studies, he the pressure of this necessity I go to the Island of Cuba. It is my hore and intention to return in good season to welcome you on your arrival at the seat of Government. But if it should be found indispensible that my visit to Cuba should be prolonged to the early part of February, this message will serve to lay before you the cau-e of my absence at the com nencement of your session. In this case of the House of Representatives. There I feel sure that you will adopt such course is no sounder legal mind in the Senate, as shall consist with your wisdom and with the affectionate consideration which

and there is no sounder Union man in the I have always received at your hands. It would, however, not become mo Hon JAMES R. KELLEY, Speaker of forget that the issues of life are in the House of Representatives, was born | hands of the One above all, and that | in County Down, Ireland, in 1840, com- | many have tound death waiting for them on the foreign shore to which they have ing to this country in 1849. While taking been sent in search of health. Should his collegiate course at Hayesville, Ohio, such be my fate, I shall draw my "last | in 1861, he became fired with that spirit breath with a sense of the deepest gratiof patriotism which eventually wiped out ] tude to the people of the Commonwealth our insult at Fort Sumpter. Our defeat and their represen atives for the cheerful manly, untailing support which they have given during the last four years to the ness, and leaving his educational purgreat cause of the right, and to me and suits, he enlisted as a private in the 31st the cruel rebellion, and thought me wortles at Mill Spring, Pittsburg Landing, thy to be permitted to continue to that Corinth, Perryville, and other less decitime as the Chief Magistrate of the peo broke down and he returned to his home connected in that relation with such a splendid solitude. in Washington county, Pennsylvania In people during such a time ought to be

> man's ambition. ANDREW G. CURTIN. EXECUTIVE CHAMBER. Harrisburg, November 27, 1865

enough to fill the highest measures of any

the cause of the Union and contended for out solicitation, he was nominated by the CINNAMON FIELDS OF CEYLON.—Our Unton party of his county, in 1863, for morning was, as usual on our first arrival the Legislature, and after a bitter contaken up by visits; in the afternoon, we test, in which over eight hundred Demodrove in Sir E. Barnes's sociable through cratic votes changed names, he was electthe far famed cinnamon gardens, which ed. He is a quiet, unobtrusive man, covered upwards of 17,000 acres of land evidently in bad health, but when warmed In the Senate to-day, Mr. McConpoor, sandy soil, in a damp atmosphere; aughy, of the Adams and Franklin Distric presented his petition, contesting large apple tree, but when cultivated, is the seat of C. M. Duncan, who has the certificate of the Return Judges. The Democrats, it seems, polled a large number of votes cast by deserters from the of the laurel in shape, but of a lighter army, and it is upon this, and not so color: when it first shoots out, it is red, much upon the additional soldier vote ad changes gradually to green. It is received after the last meeting of the renow out of blossom, but I am told the flowturn judges, that Mr. McConuaughy iner is white, and appears, when in full tends to rely. There is only a difference blossom, to cover the garden. After hearof twenty five votes to overcome by provng so much of the spicy gales from this ing deserters' votes, which will, however. involve the most voluminous testimony The Committee drawn to try this case is from the plants, in passing through the gift of his dead wife. The ring was gardens; there is a very fragrant-smellthe fairest that could possibly have been selected-and will do justice in the case. ing flower growing under them, which at This committee, I believe, have resolved first led us into the belief that we smelt to submit some of the questions involved the cinnamon, but we were soon undeto the decision of the Attorney General. ceived. On pulling off a leaf or twig, There will be a great Railroad fight you perceive the spicy odor very strong. ly, but I was surprised to hear that the this winter, and perhaps another one on the River beds question, but of this more flower had little or none. As cinuamon ring! It would be no mean sum!" anon. I do not think there will be any forms the only considerable export of Ceycutting a branch was no less than the loss SIGMA. Chief Clerk-George W. Hammersly, growth, being well sheltered, with a high, Assistant Clerk-Lucius Rogers, o equable temperature, and as showers fall Transcribing Clerks-E. K. Haines. rain is uncommon, the ground is never merset ; James C Graham, Allegheny; parched. John T. Johnson, Centre; Henry M.

"THE MINSTREL BOY TO THE WAR HAS GONE"-"Julius, I ben to war! Yes, sir! Five balls lodged in this bosom l "Sho! Musket balls?" "No sir!" "Cannon balls?" "No. sir-ee!" "What kinder balls, then?" "Codfish balls!"

"Nobody ever lost anything by love" aid a sage looking person. "That is not true," said a young lady who heard the remark, "for I once lost three nights' sleep."

, A wag, having, married a girl named Church, says he has enjoyed more happiness since he joined the Church than he ever did before.

"WHAT is the difference between a I lost it that windy day? You're just spider and a duck?" "One has its feet on as good and sweet as you can be, Clara, a web, and the other a web on its feet." and I love you just as well as if you comfort at home, is unhappy indeed.

THE OLD MAN'S SONG. Oh, don't be sorrowful, darling ! Now don't be sorrowful, pray For, taking the year together, my dear,

There isn't more night than day. 'Tis rainy weather, my darling; Time's waves they heavily run . But taking the year together, my dear, There isn't more cloud than sun.

We are old folks now, my darling, Our heads they are growing gray; But, taking the year all round, my dear, You will always find the May. We've HAD our May, my darling,

And our roses, long ago;
And the time of the year is coming, my dear For the long dark nights and the snow. But God is God, my darling, of night as well as of day And we feel and know that we can go, erever He leads the way

Av. God of the night, my darling, Of the night of death so grim The gate that from life leads out, good wife Is the gate that leads to Him.

The Diamond Ring.

It was the night Lefore Christmas. Mr. Almayne did not observe the little blue nosed boy, crouching by the brilliantly illuminated plate glass window, as he sprang out of his carriage and went into the thronged shop.

How should he? But little Ben Har row's eyes, eager with the sickly glare of extreme poverty, took in every detail of the rich man's equipage, and his purple fingers clasped one another tighter as he looked.

"Oh!" he thought, "how nice it must be to be rich-to have cushioned carriages, and big red fires, and minced pies every day! Oh! I wish I were rich! And Ben shrank closer into his corner s the wind fluttered his thin, worn cloth ing and lifted the curls with freezing auch, from his forehead.

Nor did Mr. Almayne observe him when he entired his carriage, drawing or his expensive fur gloves; and leaning among the velvet cushions with a sigh scarcely less carnest than little Ben's had been.

The child's ideal of a "big red fire would have been quite realized if h could have seen the scarlet shine that illuminated Mr. Almayne's luxurious my efforts to maintain it, and with a drawing rooms that night, glowing softly Ohio Infantry, in which he served for prayer of thankfulness to almighty God on gilded tables, alabaster vases, and walls fourteen months, participating in the bat that He strengthened me till the end of of rose and gold-while, just before the gentle flame, the pale widowersat, thought fully watching the flickering spires of green sive actions, until his physical powers ple of Pennsylvania. To have my name amethyst light, and very lonely in his "I wonder what made me think of > home just then," he murmured, idly tap ping his feet upon the velvet rug. wonder what alchemy conjured up the broken bridge, where the willow branches swept the waters-the bridge where little Clara Willis used to set and study ber lessons, while I angled vainly for the fishes that never would bite? How love ly she was, that golden haired girl, with her blue veined forehead and dark, downcast eyes! I was very much in love with on the coast, the largest of which are near | Clara Wills; in those boy and girl days. Colombo. The plant thrives best in a I should like to know on what shore the waves of time have cast her barque. It it grows wild in the woods to the size of a is not often that a person one has known in lang-syne vanishes so entirely and utnever allowed to grow more than ten or terly from one's horizon. Poor Clara! twelve feet in height, each plant standing what glittering air palaces we built in the separate. The leaf is something like that future - how solemnly we plighted our be sufficient?" childish troths! And when I came back with the fortune of one whose golden collonades our fairy castles of happiness upreared its pinacles, she was gone And Mary was a good wife to me, and a true one-but she was not Clara Willis! As the thought passed through his brain island, I was much disappointed at not be- he instinctively glanced down at his finging able to discover any scent, at least er upon which he wore the betrothal gone! "Lost-it can't be lost!" he murmur ed to himself, trying to think when and where he had last observed it. "Can it have dropped from my finger without my knowledge? I must notify the police at once, and have it advertised. Poor Mary's

It was a narrow and sourky little street, lon, it is of course preserved with care; with here and there a dim lump flaring by the old Dutch law, the penalty for leebly through the white obscurity of the snow; little Ben Harrow knew every one of a hand; at present, a fine expiates the of its covered flagstones by heart, and same offence. The neighborhood of Co. ran whistling down the alley-way of a lon bo is particularly favorable to its tall, weather stained building, undauted by wind or tempest.

"See, sis, what a jolly glove I've frequently, though a whole day's heavy found!" he ejaculated, diving suddenly asmall room, only half lighted by a kero | day." sene lamp, beside which sat a young wo man busily at work-" Hallo! is the fire > out ?" "Wrap this old shawl around you, Ben," said the woman looking up, with a smile that partook more of tears t an mirth, "an I you won't mind the cold so much. All the coal is gone and I can't buy any more until I am paid for these caps. Did you sell any more matches?"

"Only two boxes," sighed the boy. I was so cold that I couldn't go around to the houses." "Well, never mind, Ben," she said cheerfully. "Sit close to me, dear-we'll keep each other warm. Oh! Ben I rich. should like to given you a nice whole goat for Christmas." Don't cry, sis," said the boy, leaning give me your shawl for a comforter, only were my whole sister instead of only half | CONDITIONS STATED BY MR.

She smiled through her tears. "What was it about a glove Ben?" He sprang suddenly up as if remem-

"A gentleman dropped it in the street. I ran after the carriage, but it went too fast for me to catch up Isn't it nice sis!" Very nice, Ben." She drew the fur glove abstractedly on her hand looked at the rich, dark fur

"Why, Ben, what is this?" Her finger had come in contact with something in the little finger of the glove and she drew it out. Even in the dim light of the lamp she saw the myriad sparkling rascets of a diamond ring.

"The gentleman must have drawn it off with his glove," she said, while little Ben stood by, in surprise and delight " Ben this is very valuable. We ought o return it to the owner at once." "How can we, if we don't know wh ne is?" said Ben. "It will be advertised, dear; every effort will be made to recover so valuable a jewel .- To-morrow morning you musnorrow a newspaper, and we will look as the advertisements."

"Sister," said Ben, under his breath is it very valuable? Is it worth a hun dred dollars?"

" More than that, Ben. Why?" "Oh! Clara," he sobbed, burying his face in her lap, 'a hundred dollars would be so nice! I wish it wasn' wrong to keep it "

Clara did not answer. She only smooth ed down her little brother's tangled locks, and he never know how, hard it was to her to keep back her own tears.

Mr. Almayne was walking in patiently up and down his long glittering suit o. rooms in the Christmas brightness of the n xt day's noon, when his portly foot man presented himself in the doorway. " Well. Porter?"

"There is a young person and a little boy down stairs, sir, about the advertisement."

" Ask them to walk in, Porter." Porter glanced dubiously at the velvet chairs and Wilton carpet. "They're very shabby and muddy, sir. "Never mind show them in."

Porter departed, by no means well pleased, and in a minute or two threw .open the door, and announced the young " Be seated," said Mr. Almayne courte ously. " Can you give ma any information in regard to the ring I have lost?" faded shawl, with a thick green veil over her face. She held out the fur glove, and within it a little paper box, from which blazed the white fire of the lost ring

" My brother found it last night in this glove, sir," she said in low a timid voice --The initials -M. A -correspond with your advertisement, so we brought it at once to the street and number specified? Mr. Almayne opened his pocket book.

"I have promised a liberal reward," taking out a tifty dollar bill, "will this Clara Willis threw back her veil, and "We are very poor, sir, but not so poor as to take a reward for doing our duty. Thank you all the same. Come, Ben. Henry Almayne's cheek had become very white as he saw the golden braidand clear blue eye of his sweet first love beneath the faded bonnet. " Clara!" he exclaimed, " Clara Willis!

is it possible you do not know me?" She turned at his wild exclamation. and gazed fixedly at him with dawning recognition. "Are you—can it be—that you are

Henry Almayne?" She falterd, only half certain of the correctness of her

He took both her hands tenderly and reverently in h.s. If she had been a duchess the action could not have been so full of courtly respect.

"Clara, do not go yet," he pleadingly said, "Let me unravel this enigma ofour strange lives. O! Clara if this Christmas day has indeed brought me the sun-hine which has never yet irradiated my life, I shall bless it all my into a narrow door-way, and coming upon life. I shall bless it ountil my dying

The sun flamed redly in the west before Mr. Almayne's carriage—the very one Ben had so ignorantly admired the night before -was summoned to carry Clara and her brother to their squalid home for the last time, For ere the new year downed above the wintry earth, Clara was married to the man who had courted her una very long one.

And little Ben Harrow, basking in the reflected sunshine of his half sister's happiness found out what it was to be

A young widow was asked why she was going to get married so soon after the death his head against her knee. "Didn't you of her first husband. "Oh, la?" said she, "I'do it to prevent fretting myself to death on account of poor Tom!"

He who is unhappy, and can find no

In our last number, we spoke of the recen speech of Mr. Colfax at Washington, and nuoted a passage in which he stated some of bome. the conditions which should be required for the reception of the seceded States. He thus roceeds to state other terms :--

But there are other terms on which, 1 th nk, there is no division among the loyal men of the Union. First, that the Declara-tion of Independence must be recognized as the law of the land, and every man, alicu and native, white and black, protected in the inalienable and God-given rights of "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness." Mr Lincoln in the Eurancipation Proclamation which is the proudest wreath in his chaplet of fame [Cheers], not only gave freedom to the slave, but declared that the Government asked. would maintain that freedom. [Applause." We cannot abandon them and leave them de fenceless at the mercy of their former own They must be protected in their rights of person and property, and these freemen must have the right to sue in the courts of justice for all just claims, and to testily also, o as to have security against outrage and vrong. I call them freemen, not freedmen. The last phrase might have answered before their freedom was fully secured, but they hould be regarded now as freemen of the [Loud and enthusiastic cheers.] econd. The amendments of their State con f their State conventions so reluctionly, un der the pressure of despatches from the Pres ident and the Secretary of State, should be ratified by a majority of the people. We all know that but a very small portion of their over, the old gentleman said to his guests: voters participated in the election of the delegates to these conventions, and nearly if not all the conventions have declared them in orce without any ratification by the people. When this crisis has passed, can they turn around and say that these were adopted gre vote under provisional governors and military authorities, and never ratified by a turned to nothing but a poor, little, short, opular vote? and could they not turn ov the anti Lecompton argument against us, and insist, as we did, that a constitution not catified by the people may have effect, but no moral effect whatever? Third, The Pres-ident can on all occasions insist that they hould elect congressmen who could take the ath preserbed by the Act of 1862; but in clinice of this, and insulting the President and the country, they have, in a large majority of instances, voted down mercilessly Union men who could take the oath, and ected those who boasted that they could ot, and would feel disgraced if they could. Without mentioning names, one contleman elected in Alabama by a large majori-

v, declared in his address to the people, ore the election, that the iron pen of history used would record the Emancipation Act as the bone. most monstrous deed of cruelty that ever dark ned the annals of any nation; and another one, who avowed that he gave all possible aid and comfort to the Rebellion nounced the Congress of 1:62 as guilty in enacting such an oath. [A voice —Put them on probation.] The South is filed with men who can take the oath. It declares, " nave not voluntarily taken part in the Rebellion." Every conscript in the Southern army can take that oath because he was forced into the ranks by their conscription

perhaps, their feelings of disloyalty, the country has a right to expect, that, before their embers are admitted to a share in the government of this country, a clear majority of in! l'en Harrow's sister was rapped in a the people of each of these States should give evidence of their earnest and cheerful loyalty, not by such spe chis as are so commi stand by and fight for the flag of the country againstall its enemies, at home or abroad danger now is in too much precipita tiom. Let us rather make haste slowly, and basis of indisputable loyalty will be as eternal as the stars. [Applause.]

Virginia Lovalty a Myth.

The Richmond (Va.) correspondent of the New York Herald says that Senator Williams, of the Reconstruction Committee, has visited Richmond, to make inquiries as to the state of public sentiment the: e, and says: " Senaror Williams has learned first that 'irginia loyalty, as represented in both social circles of Richmond, is well nigh an absolute myth His observations further e utterly devoid of respect for and tolerance this personal regard for the President y reason of his liberal course towards them, they look upon as the very conditation of loyalty. He finds and says that they cling may add that the boy was "kept at home with a tenacious fondness, unexampled in all disciplent totals." history, under the circumstances of the most disastrous defeat and sectional dominion, to the exploded fallacies of the confederacy as benevolent system of government, and che ish with a righteous reverence the leading spirits, both dead and alive, in the late great attempt against the integrity of the Union, which was completely foiled by the powers of the federal arms in April last. He also finds the popular sentiment of the Southern people, as such, undoubtedly and over wheimingly opposed to the Congress of the United States and all its functional and leg-islative tendencies, owing to the persistent refusal to admit the Southern delegates to their seats in either house at Washingtor They had confidently counted, by virtue of the councils of certain overweening conservatives at the North, to enter the council of the nation, and, in conjunction with these conservatives, rise with arbitrary and inso lent power, as of old-thus realizing, by muster stroke of confederate policy, their balmiest dreams of the opulent, overfearing, MARRIAGE .- What will the ladies say to son, in his "Economy of Health?" "The most proper age for entering the anded and slave driving autocrat of other holy bonds of matrimony has been discussed but never settled. I am entitled to my opi nion; and although I cannot here give the grounds on which it rests, the reader may ake it for granted, that I could adduce, were this the proper place, a great number of reasons, I oth moral and physical, for the dogma I am about to prop und: The max-im, then, which I would inculcate, is this that matrimony abould not be contracted be der the green willows that overhung the fore the first year of the fourth Septenniad. wooden bridge, ten weary years ago. It on the part of females, nor before the last was a short engagement -- and yet it was | year of the same in the case of the male; ther words, the female should be at leas 21, and, the male 28 years old. That there should be seven yours difference between the ages of the sexes, at whatever period of life he solemn contract is entered not be urged, as it is universally admitted there is a difference of seven years, not in the actual duration of life in the two sexes, mmetry of form, and the lineaments o

> -The Chambershurg Repository entered on its seventy third year, with its last issue, ablest journals in the country.

A GOOD story was told some years ago of old Marks, who prided himself upon never being mistaken in his judgment of a person's character from his phiz.

Mumor.

Wiit and

He was in the Western Market one day, to get a goose for dinner. In looking about, he saw a lot before a young woman with a peculiarly fine open countenance. "She's honest," said Marks to himself. and at once asked her if she had a voung-

" Yes. said she, "here's as fine a one as on will find in the market," and she looked up in his face with a perfect sincerity that would have taken his heart, if he had not ilready mude up his mind as to her chafacter.

"You're sure it's yourg?" "To be sure it is;" and Marks took it

All efforts to eat it were fruitless, it was so tough; and the next day he hastened down to the market, angry with himself, and more so with the flonest-faced girl who had cheated him. ່ ໄປເຂດນີ້ຂົ້າ " Didn't you tell me that goose was young?

sterday?" he exclaimed, striding the to he girl wrathfully. "To be sure I did."

"You cheated me," said Marks, "it was tough old gander." "You don't call me old, do you?" she

" No," I should think not," he replied. " No, I should think not, too. I am only wenty, and mother told me the goose was hatched just six months after I was born !'

FIVE DAUGHTERS .- A gentleman had five aughters, all of whom he brought up to ome respectable occupation in life. These daughters married, one after another, with the consent of their father. The first married a gentleman by the name of Poor, the second the name of Little, the third a Mr. Short, the fourth a Mr. Brown, and the fifth Mr. Hogg. At the wedding of the latter. her sisters with their busbands were present. After the ceremonies of the wedding were

"I have taken great pains to Rucate my daughters, that they might act well their part in life, and from their advantages and improvements, I fondly hoped they would do honor to the family; and now I find that brown, hogg."

IMPORTANCE OF PUNCTUATION .- Wanted—A young man to take charge of a very fine span of horses of a religious turn of mind.

A school committee man writes: We have a school house large enough to accommodate four hundred pupils four stories high. A newspaper says: " A child was recently run over by a wagon about three years old and cross-eyed wearing pantaloons which never spoke another word afterwards."

used by ladies made of cotton and whale-An exchange, in describing a recent celebration, says: "The procession was very fine and about two mile- in length as was also the

Parasol-A protection against the sun,

prayer of Dr. Perry, the Chaplain." The following juventity occurred at one of the watering places some years ago, before hairy muzzles wereso common as they are now. Mrs. G-was sitting at dinner with her little boy of four or five years ofet, and every man who stayed at home and age, when a bewhiskered foreigner came in refused to accept a civil o: military office and took his sent at the opposite side of the could take that oath; but these were not the choice of the States ately in rebellion with astonishment, till the mystery was d that a with astonishment, till the mystery was ninority of these States will cherish for years, | solved, when, suddenly, in rather too loud a voice, he cried out to the mother, "Ma! ma! he has got a mouth: I saw him put a tater

Coper is a Dutchman, and, like many another man, of whatever nationality, has a wife that is "some." One day ment of war, but that they are willing to the cold man" got into some trouble with a neighbor, which resulted in a fight. The neighbor was getting the better of the "old man," which Cooper's wife was not slow to we can then nope that the foundations of our see. The "old man" was resisting his enemy to the best of his ability, when his wife broke out with: "Lie still, Cooper! lie still! If he kills you I'll sue him for damages." It only remains to be said that Cooper did lie still, and was not killed. A down east editor, in a complimenary notice of a vigilant general, was made, by the omission of a single letter, to call him a battle-scared veteran. The poor man hastened to make amends in the next issue, by anches of the State Logislature and in the straing that it was his intention to have denominated the hero a bottle-scarred veteran. School teachers sometimes receive very funny excuses for absence of children from recitations. The following is about as original as any we over saw: "Ceptathomdigintaters." For the benefit of our readers > digging taters." HE KNEW HIM .- "Come here, my little fellow," said a gentleman to a youngster of five years, while sitting in a parlor where a large company was assembled. "Do you know who I am?" "Yeth, thir." "Who am I? Let me hear." "You ith the man who kithed mamma, when papa wath in New York."

A State fair is a queen; an agricultural fair is a farmer's daughter; a church fair is a parson's wife; an editor's fair is the pest looking girl he can get hold of; a charty fair is a female pauper; and the most unopular fare in the universe is boarding fare. MILTON was asked: "How is it that in some countries a king is allowed to take his

but may not marry until he is eighteen?" Because," said the poet, "it is easier to govern a kingdom than a woman!" QUESTIONS FOR A DEBATING SOCIETY. the following remarks of Dr. James John a If a man has nothing when he gets married, and his wife has nothing, is her things hizen, or his things hurn? Which is the most hul-place on the throne at fourteen years of age, sum, pumpkin sars or apple sars? A GENTLEMAN socing an Irishman fencing in a very barren and desolute piece of land, aid, "What are you fencing in that for, Pat? A flock of sheep would starve to death on that land." "And sure, your honor, wasn't I fencing it to keep the poor critters out," replied Pat. A Culifornia editor, some time ago. received a large document, which he was requested to put under his editorial head gratis.' He complied by placing it under his pillow, and expressed his determination to serve similar communications in the same way...

INSURANCE. The following toast was recently pronounced at a fireman's dinner, and was received with great applause: "The ludies-Their eyes kindle the only flame against which there is no insurance."

A PLACARD in the window of a patent nedicine vender, in the Rue St. Honors been a fearless advocate of justice and the right, and is unquestionably one of the allest journals in the country.

1 o'dlock P. d. 22 Nuea changes in the above are necessary the roper percessare requested to notify us.

CORPORATION: The Rector, Warnens and Vestrymen of St. John's Church Carlisle.
The Rev. F. J. Clerc. D. D., Roctor and Treasurer.
Mrs. John R. Shnead, Principal.
Miss A. E. Donkershy, Instructor in Languages.
Miss L. L. Webster, Instructor in Mathematics and

E. Cornman President, James Jamilton, H. Saxton R. C. Woodward, Hunry ewsham, C. P. Humerich Socty, J. W. Eby, Treasurer, John Sphyr, Messenger, Mest on the 1st Monday of each Month at 8 o'clock A. M, at Education Hall.

Postage on all letters of one half ounce weight of MRS. R. A. SMITH'S Photographs, Ambrotypes, Ivorytypes Beautiful Albums! Beautiful Frames!

Fresh and New from New York and Philadelphia TF you want satisfactory Pictures and

DR. WM. H. COOK, HOMOEOPATHIC · PHYSICIAN,