The Iron, Coal and Copper Deposits have recently at-tracked the attention of large operators in the Cities, who pronounce them exceedingly valuable. These Mineral Beds, in addition to the value of the Timber which is the principal inducement, render the Lands work ten times the price the cost the Company. The "Chalybeate and Saliphur Union Springs" were frequented by many people from all sections every summer previous to the war, and only need improve-ment and development to make them among the most valuable in the country.
