

CARLISLE, PA. FRIDAY, MARCH 2, 1866.

S. M. PETERSON & CO. No. 37 Park Row, New York, and 6 State St., Boston.

FOR GOVERNOR, Gen. JOHN W. GEARY, OF CUMBERLAND COUNTY.

We print on the first page to day the message of President Johnson...

With regard to honesty of purpose or patriotism it is assuming rather bold grounds to assert that the President is immaculate...

In this apparent rupture between the President and Congress it behooves those who have the welfare of the great Union party...

The friends of Andrew Johnson, those who supported and admired him when he stood up against the traitors of the South...

It affords us much pleasure to inform the property holders of our County that the act of the State tax on real estate, which was published last week...

Dr. H. Voorhees, member of Congress from Indiana whose name was contested, was ousted last week by Col. Washburn...

The denunciation of Messrs. Stevens and Sumner comes with an especial bad grace from an Executive who has lately and accidentally come to power by means of the partiality of the party which have been...

for years the leaders. Thaddeus Stevens may be extreme in some of his measures, his utterances with regard to the President may have been and doubtless were unwise...

The Volunteer compliments Gov. CURTIN in its usually elegant style, as follows: The Governor may be 'the same general, kind, good-hearted man, with a pleasant smile on his face...'

Those who insist that the Country would have gone to destruction had not the President vetoed the Freedmen's Bureau bill are fond of saying that the U. S. Senate 'sustained the veto.' We think this is drawing it rather fine.

Samuel A. Black, Esq. We have omitted, heretofore, to refer to the appointment of Samuel A. Black, Esq., as Superintendent of the Middle Division of the Pennsylvania railroad...

Extracts from President Johnson's Speech. Delivered at Washington, Feb. 22, 1866. The following are a few extracts from the late President's speech...

THE NAMES ON THE OTHER END. The President—I am called upon to name three at the other end of the line. I am talking to my friends and fellow citizens...

JUDGMENT OF THE PEOPLE. Yes, fellow-citizens, there is an earthquake coming; there is a ground-swell of popular indignation. The American people will speak, and by their instinct if not otherwise, they will know who are their friends and who are their enemies...

No FAVOR WORK. The President—A gentleman behind me says that I began a letter. Yes I did begin a letter (applause), but that suggestion does not dispirit me in the least...

even if they didn't want; Congress dispensed with his former attendance on their meetings. Thus one by one the Democratic leaders are disappearing from the political surface...

Men may talk about beholding and about usurpation, but when I am beheld I want the American people to be the witnesses. I do not want it by hundreds and indirect means, but by the direct and open vote of the people...

Those who insist that the Country would have gone to destruction had not the President vetoed the Freedmen's Bureau bill are fond of saying that the U. S. Senate 'sustained the veto.' We think this is drawing it rather fine.

THE CHICAGO JOURNAL. The Chicago Journal says that last season has developed the feasibility of raising cotton and tobacco in Southern Illinois...

FROM WASHINGTON. Special Correspondence of the Carlisle Herald. HARRISBURG, March 1, 1866. I purposely delayed my letter until this morning...

THE HOUSE YESTERDAY. The House yesterday passed finally the bill that the persons residing in the vicinity of the Susquehanna and Potomac Rivers...

OUR YOUNG FOLKS. By the same publishers is an illustrated Magazine for Boys and girls, edited by J. T. Rowbridge, Galt Hamilton and Lucy Larcom. It is far ahead of any publication of its class ever attempted in this country...

THE MAGAZINES.—THE ATLANTIC for March contains: Passage from Hawthorne's Note Books; An old man's diary; A Rumble through the Market; The Freedman's Story; Nantucket; The Snow Walkers; To Hersa; An Amazonian; Doctor Jones; Communications with the Pacific; In the Sen; The Chimney Corner for 1866; The Old; Snow; Griffith Gaunt or Jeddah; Reviews and Literary Notices; Ticknor & Fields; 124 Tremont St. Boston. Terms $4 per annum or 35 cents single number.

and I was always punctual to my customers, and I might be able to give you readers the result of a meeting of a committee of members of the Legislature called for yesterday afternoon to make arrangements for the meeting of the Pennsylvania State Convention...

THE SPILING ELECTIONS.—Two weeks from to-day the annual spring elections take place and we deem this a fit time to urge upon our friends the importance of giving their early attention to the questions then to be decided.
