MY VIS-A-VIS.

That which I see in you, I see in me. Well, well, how soon they say so. Do let me have the cap of you. That I may see it with my eye.

THE CAMPAIGN.

Meeting of the Union State Convention at Harrisburg, Pa. General John W. Geary, Secretary of the Convention, delivered the first address.

THE CAMPAIGN.

Mr. Lawrence, of Washington county, moved that Wm. B. Mann, of Philadelphia, be appointed temporary chairman.

THE CAMPAIGN.

Mr. Hall was then declared elected temporary chairman, and upon being conducted to the chair thanked the convention for the honor conferred upon him.

indications favored the nomination of the gallant soldier, the man around whom the people of Pennsylvania might rally with enthusiasm.

The military record of General Geary, as well as his civil services for the country, was a glorious vindication of the sentiments which he had ever professed.

1. Resolved, That this Convention, representing the Union-loving and loyal people of Pennsylvania, who never departed from the Republic, and who poured out their blood and treasure and devoted to the cause of the Republic.

2. Resolved, That the most imperative duty of the present is to gather the legitimate fruits of the war, in order that the fruits of the war, in order that the fruits of the war, in order that the fruits of the war.

3. Resolved, That failure in these grave duties would be scarcely less criminal than the failure to do so.

4. Resolved, That the work of restoring the late insurrectionary States to their proper relations to the Union, necessarily depends upon the making proper, and that the work of restoring the late insurrectionary States to their proper relations to the Union.

5. Resolved, That the national faith is sacredly pledged to the payment of the national debt, and to the suppression of rebellion, and that the people will not suffer this faith to be violated or impaired.

6. Resolved, That the public faith is not less solemnly pledged to the protection, in the enjoyment of all their natural rights, of the colored population who have been manacled by the fiat of the people.

7. Resolved, That the public faith is not less solemnly pledged to the protection, in the enjoyment of all their natural rights, of the colored population who have been manacled by the fiat of the people.

and some had already left, believing that they could never take part in the Government which they felt to be a Government of the people.

In conversation with a multitude of officers and soldiers, Kirby Smith's army, he was surprised to find how docile and submissive they were, never in a single instance hearing an unkind feeling expressed towards the Government.
