THE MANDRAKE PILLS

are composed entirely of roots and herbs, obtained from the great storehouse of Nature, and their salutary effects will appear as soon as the medicine is brought to the test of a fair experiment. SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS do not produce any nause aor sickness of the stomach; but when given for Dyspepsia, it may be proper to use them in connection with SCHENCK'S SEAWEED TONIC. By this judicious treatment the digestive faculties are speedily restored to their full vigor, and the worst cases of indigestion may be cured.

When we reflect that the liver is the largest internal organ of the body, that to it is assigned the important duty of filtering the blood and preparing the bilo, that it is subject to many disorders, and that when it is diseased or inactive the whole body suffers sympathetically, it is not surprising that a medicine which can restore the healthy operations of the Liver should produce wonderful changes in the general health, and effect ures which may appear to be almost miraculdus.
Headache of long continuance, severe pains in the side, breast and shoulders, aching of the limbs, a feeling of general weakness and weetchedness, and other alagning and distressing symptoms, indicative of imperfect or disordered action of the liver, are speedily removed by the use of SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS.

enjoyment of life, are all relieved by the use of SCHENGK'S MANDRAKE PILLS.

Dr. SCHENGK.—Dear Sir: I take pleasure in scuding you a certificate in addition to many you have already received from suffering humanity. Lean scarcely find language sufficiently strong to express my heartieft gratification of the wonderful cures your MANDRAKE PILLS and SEAWEED TONIC have effected in the entire cure of one of the most stubborn cases of the affection of the liver. For three years I suffered beyond description; all my friends, as well as myself, came to the conclusion that my time in this life was short. Such was the terrible comdition to which I was reduced that life to me had become a burthen; my whole system was in a state of inflammation; I could not eat, I could not sleep; my whole body was filled with pain; swelling would arise in my wrists and ankles, rendering them totally useless. Ob-Aeveral occasions I was attacked with a rush of blood to the head which would fall me to the ground, and I would be carried away for dead. I applied to several eminent physicians of our city, who administered all the medicines that they thought would reach my case, but of no avail.

One of them said he could do no more for me, and advised mo, as a last resort, to deink cod liver oil. Not relishing the herrid tresh I declined to take it. Accident put your advertisement in my hands. I called on you; you examined the and told me the relish and Tonic with an observance of ditt, pledging your word that in one week I would find myself another man. I followed your advice, and, as you predicted, an astonishing cure was effected. I have known Hodand's German Bitters favorably for a number of years, I have used them in my own family, and have been so pleased with their effects, that I was induced to recommend them to many others, and know that they have operated in a strikingly bencheial manner. I take great pleasure in thus publicly proclaiming this fact, and calling the aftention of those afflicted with the diseases for which they are recommended, to those bitters, knowing from experience. recommended, to those bitters, knowing from experence that my recommendation will be sustained do this more cheerfully as Hoofland's Bitters is intended to benefit the afflicted, and is "not a rum drink

Yours, truly, LEVI G. BECK. F

From Rev. W. D. Seighied, Paster of Twelfth Bay tist Church, Phila.

Gentlemen:—I have recently 'cen laboring under the distressing effects of indigestion, accompanied by a prostration of the nervous system. Numerous remedies were recommended by friends, and some of them tested, but without relief. Your Heofland's German Bitters were recommended by persons who had tried them, and whose favorable mention of these bitters induced me to try thom. I must confess that I had an aversion to Patont Medicines from the "thousand and one" quack "Bitters," whose only aims seems to be to palm off sweetened and drugged liquor upon the community in a sly way, and the tendency of which, I fear, is to make many a confirmed drunkard. Upon learning that yours was really a medicinal preparatist Church, Phila a sear, is to make many a confirmed drunkard. Upon learning that yours was really a medicinal preparation I took it with happy effect. Its action, not only upon the stc mach, but upon the nervous system, was prompt and gratifying. I feel that I have derived great great and permanent benefit from the use of a few bottles.

Very respectfully yours, No. 254 Shackamaxon Street

From A. M. Spangler, Editor of the Culturist, No. 25 North Sixth Street. PHILADELPHIA, July 15, 1865. PHILADELPHIA, July 15, 1865.

Some eighbeen months since I was a severe sufferer from Dyspepsia. I was not only unable to take plain food without suffering great distress, but had become so debilitated as to be almost unfitted for active business of any kind.

After trying a variety of so-ckilled remedies, all of which preved wortbless. I was induced, at the suggestion of a medical friend, to give Hoofland's German Bitters a trial. I accordingly purchased six bottles, which were taken in accordance with your directions. The result was complete removal of all distressing symptoms, after fating or drinking, and a full restoration of strength, so that I now eat all ordinary kinds of food with impunity, and am able to attend to all the actives duties of a large and arduous business as well as at any period of my life, the good effects of the Bitters were manifested before I had taken the first bottle. ottie.
I have also used it in my family with the happies I have also used it in my family with the happiest results, and take great pleasure in adding my testinony to that of the many others who have been benefitted by them. I find great bounds from the use of a vigorous appetite, but give a health tone to the stemsch, by strengthening its discative powers.

If the above testimony will be the means of inducing any who sulfer from dyspepsia to give your bitters a trial (when it, I feel confident, will give them re lief) it is at your service. Yours, truly.

I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are suffering from general debility or from diseases arising from derangement of the liver.

Yours, truly. E. D. FENDALL. From Rev. D. Morrige, Pastor of the Passyunk Bap-list Church, Phila. From the many respectable recommendations given given to Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I was induced to give them a trial. After using several bottles I found them to be a good remedy for debility, and a most excellent tonic for the stomach.
