CONNECTICUT UNCHANGED

The President Appeals to the People

He Has been Answered at the Ballot-box The news from Connecticut, says the Harrisburg Telegraph, shows clearly and definitely that the usin who drew his sword for enemies of their country: his country in the hour of its danger has been sustained, and that the man now President of the United States has been signally rebuked. There is no misunderstanding this result. It was not so much an issue involving an interest of local importance in Connecticut, on which the election of yesterday hinged. Both candidates were men of real spectability. Each had experience in pub- by all officers conversant with the circumlic affairs. Both were men of ability, and either would make a good Governor. But these facts did not enter into the campaign. The issue was one solely and only between the Pecule and the President. The President referred his official action to the People. The People accepted the reference, deliberated calmly on that action, and notwithstanding they were tempted by the promises of patronage openly made by the President, and threatened by the parasites sent from Washington to carry Connecticut against the People, the people of that glorious State have pronounced a verdict against the President! Nothing less, nothing more than this can be made of the result in Connecticut. It means a blow at treason, alike that which sought to destroy the country, and that which attempted to degrade the Government to the uses of whip ed rebels. It sustains Congress in clear and unequivocal terms. It pronounces a verdict in favor of the representatives of the people from all the States mho have been true to the national honor who have insisted only on such readjustment as will secure indemnity for the past and security for the future. Will the President now submit to the People? That the issue was Yairly made between Congress and the President, can be seen from | cursed and cost the country enough. He the following extract, which we take from the New York World, his special organ in New York:

"PROSPECTS OF BOTH PARTIES. "Beyond doubt the contest will be a close one, and the vote the largest ever cast in Connecticut.

"The political battle of Tuesday will be the first square fight between Andr w Johnson and the Disunion Radicals, and if Connecticut goes for the President's restoration policy by electing English, so will go the Union in October and November."

CLYMER ON JOHNSON.

In the Senate of Pennsylvania, March 6, 868, Mr. HARRY WHITE presented a reso; ation in the words following: "Whereas, Gov. Andrew Johnson l'ennessee, a brave and loyal man, whose devotion to the Union is fully attested by his sacrifices and efforts in behalf of the cause of his country, and ex-Gov. Joseph A. Wright, a distinguished and patriotic citizen of the State of Indiana, are about to visit Harrisburg, and propose to address the cople on the great questions now agitating he public mind and which are of so much oment to the stability of the general government: therefore,

Resolved, That Gov. Andrew Johns of Tennessee, and ox-Gov. Joseph A. Wright of Indiama, be, and they are hereby tender-ed the use of the Hall of the Senate this afternoon, for the purpose of addressing their fellow-citizens of Pennsylvania."

The courtesy proposed was not unusual Not a season passes but the Hall of one or both the Houses is occupied either by popdar conventions or public addresses. But the resolution of Mr. WHITE excited the that ensued Mr. Chymer, brought forward two reasons for refusing to extend this couresy to Gov. Johnson. One of these renons was founded on professed public policy; the other on private antipathy: Hear him

1. "I here boldly proclaim that he is not it this hour, and never has been by the con-titution or under the laws, the Governor of he State of Tennessee, except when years go he was elected to that office by the people. SENATORIAL QUESTION IN NEW JERSEY. A resolution to go into the election of a United State Senator for New Jersey, in place of John P. Stockton, ousted from his seat, was defeated on Wednesday in the New Jersey Senate by the defection of James M Scovel, Senator from the Camden district, who voted with the Democrats against the resolution, every other Republican Senator voting tor it. A similar resolution passed the lower House. But for Scovel's defection the vacancy in the United States Senate would have been immediately filled. Mr. Scovel. gave as reasons for voting against the resolution that he wanted to know first who was to be elected Senator. He wanted a Radical, and no more conservatism, which had party shall have been duly convicted, shall believed that Mr. Stockton in truth was en titled to his sent, and agreed with the decision of Judiciary Committee in his case. Editor Carlisle Herald: Sin,-Knowing the interest taken in the cause of education, by the citizens of your ncient Borough and vicinity, I take the liberty of sending you a catalogue of our school, and a notice of the closing exercises of the Winter term, clipped from the Cleveland Herald, of the 16th inst., you will see, that the Institution is under the charge of worthy sons' one of the noble little army, she of them already occupy no mean position in the literary world, and we think that our worthy Professor stands second to none, as a classical scholar, a disciplinanian, and successful educator, he is surpassed by few men gleeting that which alone can perpetuate the prosperity of any country, viz, the mental and moral training of the rising generation, and notwithstanding the rapid progress in that direction, now making, east of tho mountains, you will find here a rivalry worthy your notice, and calculated to command you respect. Institutions of learning of a very spectable grade, are rapidly occupying available point, and like so many sun irradiating by their light, all intervening-space. From their halls are yearly going forth not only the accomplished men and omen, here fitted for the various positions n business and social life, but the well train, ed common school teacher, whose business it is to gather from all ranks and classess the youth of both sexes, and prepare them as future students of these higher institutions? A people who make virtue, Liberty, and Intelligence their motto, and are faithful to the principles which will secure them, will secure a high position among the nations of the earth, and such I hope will be the destiny of our beloved, and once more happy coun-

CONFIRMATION

GEdmund Calamy a distinguished English Presbyterian minister enquires" whether it be fitting, requisite, or allowable, that impoas God's officer, should be used on this occasion?" and he answers: "that there is general unanimity among those who have been most diligent in searching into ceele siastical antiquity, in reporting this as the practice of the primitive church; and that, not only while miraculous gifts continued. but afterward. That it is convenient and warranted by Scripture as well as antiquity, was the opinion of our first Reformers here in England, and the most celebrated divines we have had amongst us ever sine the same was the sentiment of the famou Calvin, who founded Confirmation by imill be difficult to fill.

FIRES.-On Saturday morning last a building occupied as Stable and Slaughter house, belonging to John B. Noble, was totally destroyed by fire. Supposed to be the work of an indendiary. On Saturday night between the hours of welve and one o'clock a Stable situated on in alley running between Pomfret Street and Church Alley was set on fire and destroyed. A quantity of hay was burned. The buildng was owned by A. W. Bentz Esq.

On the same night an attempt was made o burn the Emory Methodist Episcopal Church. It appears that the building was entered by breaking open a door in the base nent and a quantity of straw placed under he steps and set on fire. The steps were partially burned but the fire went out from want of air. It is a lamentable fact that incendiary

Three within twenty four hours is too much for even the patience of our long suffering citizens to bear. Cannot something be done to put a stop to such things? These ires are evidently not the result of any feelng of revenge but of a devilish spirit of mischief after resulting from the consumption of bad whiskey. Would not the organization of a night police force and the closing of bar rooms and saloons at an earlier hour have a good effect?

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT .-- At a regular meeting of Letort Lodge No. 63, I. O. of G. T. held in their Hall, the Committee appointed to draft resolutions on the death o Bro. Jas. S. Halbert, reported the follow ing preamble and resolutions, which were, unanimously adopted. Whereas: In the death of Bro. Jas. S. Halbert, late a consistent member of the I. Q. G. T., Letort Lodge No. 63, has lost an earnest worker in the cause of the regeneration of fallen humanity, and whereas; the evils of intemperance are so alarmingly on the increase in our midst and the loss of a worthy member makes us conscious that untiring energy and zeal alone can replace the influence he exerted in our behalf. Therefore,

Resolved, That in the death of Bro. Hal bert, our Lodge has lost an efficient mem-ber and worthy Brother, and that in his death we recognize the chastising hand of he Almighty.
