

CARLISLE, PA. FRIDAY, JUNE 22, 1866.

FOR GOVERNOR, GEN. JOHN W. GEARY, OF CUMBERLAND COUNTY.

A Petty Dodge At a fair, for the benefit of the Presbyterian church in Mechanicsburg...

A year ago, when the Southern people first discovered that they were thoroughly whipped rebels...

Another exploded prison keeper of the Union soldiers on trial for the inhumanities he committed on our men...

As to the threats contained in the Volunteer's article we can think of nothing to which they refer other than the attempts to burn our office...

The rebel leaders all over the country are beginning to talk about our government, our country, and the greatness and imperishability of the Union...

There is trouble in Chester Co. about the Internal Revenue Assessorship. Mr. Cheney, the assessor died recently...

How Union Men Talk in Texas.—The Western Texas, a journal which appears to be conducted by one of the old Lynch-law Rebels...

There is a strange similarity in the present anxieties and sympathies of the President and the Democratic leaders.

ONZIEBA BULLIES.—The New York journals complain of the arrival in that city of numbers of small green apaches...

It is stated that the President is now willing to surrender Jefferson Davis into the custody of the courts of law...

Who Were and Are Disunionists?

The article which we quote below, from the Detroit Post, ought to be read by every voter in the United States.

Almost every issue of a Democratic paper picks up now-a-days, charges the Republicans with being disunionists...

They are the men who declared that secession was not treason. They are the men who declared that coercion of armed rebellion was unconstitutional.

They are the men who styled the Union soldiers of one of which were found in the side of one of the Democratic leaders of the city of Detroit.

The Democratic Party.

By Geo. Thomas, in one of his late speeches, thus describes the Democratic Party: "That word Democracy was once an honorable party name."

It is a party name which was once an honorable party name. It is a party name which was once an honorable party name.

It is a party name which was once an honorable party name. It is a party name which was once an honorable party name.
