HERE is a certain portion of the war that will never go into the regular histories, nor be embodied in romance or postry, which is a very real part of it, and will, if preserved, convey to succeeding generations a better-idea of the spirit of the conflict than many dry reports or careful narratives of events, and this part may be called the gossip, the fun, the pathes, of the war.

These illustrate the character of the leaders, the humor of the soldlers, the devotion of woman, to bravery of men, the pluck of our heroes, the romanes and hardships of the service.

The volume is profusely illustrated with over 300 emgravings by the first artists, which are really heautiful, worthy of examination as pecianous of the art. Many of them are set into the body of the text, after the popular style of, Lossing's Pictorial Field Book of the content of the profuser of the profuser is the ling foats of bravery, wild drellery, comical and ludicrous adventures stee, etc. Auusement as well as instruction may be sound in every page, as graphic detail, brilliant wit, authentishtory, are wellifully interwoven in this work of literary art.

There is nothing equal, in the way of a plaster, to the-Porous Thater of Mr. ALLOOME Everything is pleasant about them. They are the plaster of the day, and a fit type of of our present advancement in science, and art.—In Asthma, Cough, Kidney affections, Gout, Rheumatiem, and local deep-seated pains, they,
afford permanent relief.

J. F. JOHNSON, M. D., on "Topical Remedies."
From a personal knowledge of these plasters, we cin tatig that they are decidedly preferable to any other, in use. Wherever relief is to be obtained by the use of a plaster, we should recommend them.
