our readers, we commend the article to their cardill porusal;—
A hundred and one makers of Organs, Cottage, Parlor, Cabinet, American, School Organs, etc etc., are each claiming to make the best Instrument in the world. Being comparatively a now instrument as at present constructed, we are convinced the public are much less capable of judging of its micrits, or domerits, thair of most other instruments. If there is really an essential difference in them, if there are some excellent and some worthless ones, this public are less than the sum of the some of the second of t

The question is often asked, what are "reed organs?" We adswer, they are, in most cases, nothing in they world but the old miologoen in disguise. Many of the so-talled organs have the zamo bellows, the same reeds, and the same general internal strangoment. With the bellows turned on edge to gain room, they have simply put on a more pretentious exterior and a more high sounding name. But an organ, to be in reality an organ, matching or with fine the wind-chest the reeds open, and the tone has from the spand and perfect it as if into the full round tone, similar to the flute or play rate from the bellows, fine which wind-chest the reeds open, and the tone has from read scanney be obtained in any other way known. I have known Hoodand's German Bitters favorably for a number of years. I have used thom in my own family, and have been so. pleased with their effects, that I was induced to recommend their to many others, and know that they have operated in a strikingly beneficial manner. I take great pleasure in thus publicly prejeatming this fact, and caling the situation of those afflicted with the diseases for which they are recommended, to those bitters, knowing from oxperione that my recommendation will be sustained. I do this more cheerfully as Hoofand's Bitters is intended to benefit the sillicted, and is "not a rum drink."

From Rev. W. D. Selgfried, Paster of Twelfth Bap-list Church, Phila.

Gentlemen:—I have recently been laboring under the distance in the laboration accompanied by the distressing effects of indigestion, accompanied by a prostration of the nervous system. Numerous remedies were recommended by friends, and some of them tested, but without relief. Your, Heodand's German litters were recommended by persons who had tried them, and whose favorable mention of these bitters induced nae to try them. I must confess that I had an aversion to Patent Medicines from the "thousand and one" quack "Bitters" whose only aims seems to be to palm off sweetened and dringged liquor upon the community in a sly way, and the fondency of which, I fear, is to make many a confirmed drunkard. Upon learning that yours was really a medicinal preparation I took it with liappy effect. Its action, not only upon the sternach, but upon the nervous system, was prompt and gratifying. I feel that I have derived great and permanent benefit—from the use of a few bottles.

Very respectfully yours, W. D. SEIGFRIED, . No. 251 Shackamaxon Street, goneral weakness and wretchedness, and other alarming and distreasing symptoms, indicative of imperfect or disordered action of the liver, are speedily removed by the use of SCHENCK'S MANDHAKE PILLS.

Costiveness, piles, bitter or your creatations, and that indescribable feeling of oppression, mental anxiety, languor, lethargy, and depression of spirits which unfit a man for the management of business and the enjoyment of life, are all relieved by the use of SCHENCK'S MANDHAKE PILLS.

Dr. SCHENCK.—Drar Sir: I take pleasure in sending you a certificate in addition to many you have already received from suffering humanity. I can scarcely find language sufficiently strong to express my heartistic gratification of the wonderful currenyour MANDHAKE PILLS and SEAWEDT ONNIC have edicated in the entire cure of one of the most stubborn cases of the affection of the liver. For threywear is sufficied beyond description; all my friends, as well as myself, came to the conclusion that my time in this life was short.
