JOHN JACOBS, Shorlf. Sept. 20, 1866. FRENCH, ENGLISH AND AMER-AGENTS WANTED FOR THE PICTORIAL BOOK OF ANECDOTES AND INCIDENTS OF THE REBELLION:

Heroic, Patriotic, Romantic, Humorous, and Tragical. WHERE is a certain portion of the war that will never go lute the regular histories, nor be embedded in romance or poetry, which is a very real part of it, and will, if preserved, convey to succeeding generations a better idea of the spirit of the conflict than mixig dry rejects or careful narratives of sweats, and this part may be called the gossip. The Fun, the pathes, of the war.

These illustrate the character of the leaders, the humor of the soldiers, the dwetlen of woman, the bravery of men, the pluck of our heroes, the romance and hardships of the service.

The volume is profusely illustrated with over 300 engravings by the first artists, which are really beautiful; worthy of examination as specimens of the art. Many of them are set into the body of the text, after the popular style of Tobshirg's Pictorial Field Blook of the Revolution. The book's contonias include reminiscences of camp, picket, spy, scout, bivouce, siego and battle-field adventures; thrilling feats of bravery, with drollery, conical and ludicrous adventures, etc., atc. Amusement as well as instruction may be found in every page, as graphic detail, brilliant wit, authentic history, are skillfully intorvoven in this work of illustrative and the surface of the carry art.

This work, sells itself. The people, are tired of dry.

orary art.
