Southern Press and Elections.

The tone of the Southern press in regard . to the recent elections is generally that of mournful anxiety to learn what is to follow. The Richmond Times thinks that it is doubtful, whether the President will obey the voice of the people and advise the acceptance of the amendment proposed by Congress, or whether he will remain firm in his present profitless resistance; and in conclu-

"Without representation in Congress to defend our interests, and mother resort to arms being out of the question, we have nothing left but to endure the malignity, insults, and outrages of a gigantic and merciless despotism with dignity and manilibess. We have now little left besides the memory and traditions of our splendid courage and and traditions of our splendid courage and that honor which passed scatheless through that honor which passed seatheress through the furnace of civil strife. By silent, dignified endurance of our wrougs we may retain, in the midst of our misfortunes, the respect of manifind; but by slavish, servile concessions, we shall lose all which renders life endurable."

vice, but is a little odd in its view of the

"We are all aware, because the fact is trumpeted to the world, that the ficrest envy and hate is cherished by the radicals for Dixie and every thing Southern; why forsooth? Because they were unable to win any of the battles; hence, they vent their spite by winning elections. Why did they not come out of the war with their hands decked with the harre!? The world knows why hopes they take heart anto them. elections:---why, hence they take heart anto them-selves in elections."

The Norfolk Old Dominion accuses the Northern copperheads of bad management in putting themselves forward, although they are so obnoxious to the people, and says in reference to Heister Clymer: -

"We might just 'as well expect to see the "We might just as well expect to see the people of the South walk up to the polls and pronounce themselves diots, by voting formen of the Brownlow's stripe. This class of men are as odious to the majority of the Northern people as Brownlow, Jack Hamilton, & Co. are to a majority of the people of the South. Indeed, these respective factions are causing the defeat of the conservative element, and the triumph of the radicals?"

The Louisville Journal has two editorials, · evidently from different hands, taking precisely opposite views of the subject. One is doleful in the extreme, and exclaims :--

"What amount of woe may not this reck-"What amount of wee may not this reca-less, unscrupulous, remorsoles, and infuria-ted party, waxing all the hate and wrath and vengeance, and holding full and irre-sponsible power in their horrid hands, a-chieve during the approaching Congres-sional session and the two that are to 101low it! Eves and hearts may well ache at the appalling prospects! Had has come, and 'worse is behind.'"

The other accepts the elections as an omen of the downfull of the Union party:-

"Its very success will contribute to defeat it. The pussions which now inflame it will devour it. The fruits of its measures will full upon it like concuming fire. The Nemesis of the people will hang upon its track. The stars in their courses will light against it, as they fought against Sisera, whose op-pressions were not blacker or more damning. has fichieved its linal victory over the peo-

The Memphis Avalanche on the morning of election day thus treated the subject :-"If radicalism gains strength by popular approval, then the trouble of the South begins in sad carnest. Then will begin that war of races' of which Jefferson spoke, war of ruces' of which Jefferson spoke, when he said the white and black man could not live in the same government, both being free. We have lost property, sons, fathers, kindred, but as yet we have not lost our kindred, but as yet we have not lost our National Debt, and leaves the kindred, but as yet we have not lost our honor. If the doctrine of Thad. Stevens The doctrine of Thad. Storens prevail, then begins the war to degrade ustration begins the war to degrade ustration to dishonor our manhoody and in this struggle for honor and liberty and life, the black man is doomed, though the pillars of the temple of liberty itself should go down. Not only the negro, but his allies among ustration of negro equality; the people of the South are a unit. WEST VIRGINIA.

The glorious news of the Republican tries winter, we said that in this way the most effectual reduction of the Presidential patronage could be made, and that thousands of uscless officials might be ferretted out in every branch of the service. A telegraphic dispatch published yesterday, furnishes a content in bright hopes for her recent applies to the vision. people of the South are a unit. To day is pregnant with all that is good or evil for the South. The elections in Pennsylvania, Iowa, Ohio, and Indiana, may make the Southern people the trie friends of a common Union, or they may make them such foes to everything North that the country will not be worth a satrap's salary."

The Richmond Enquirer has a theory that the Democrats have had gains in the large cities, such as Philadelphia and Cincinnati, and that the rural districts only have given increased Union majorities, and moralizes; upon it in such sentences, as theso:-" With all their boasts of learning and in telligence, there is not a more ignorant people to be found in Christendom, on subject outside of their daily avocations, than the multitude of ten and twenty and lifty acre farmers that cover the face of the earth in the Northern States. . . in point of general knowledge, and liberality of ideas, there is no comparison between the Southern people and the classes at the North to which we refer."

At-the Borough election held here last March, Capt. Jno. A. Waggoner was elected Collector of the West Ward. Sometime about the beginning of May he received an to our Commissioners here, to receive from that one office is as much as any one man is entitled to; and appointed Mr. Parkinson, Court for a mandamus to the Commissioners to give the duplicate to him. On Monday morning Judge Graham read his decision-in Court, requiring the Commissioners to give Mr. Waggoner the duplicate and ordering further that they pay the costs of the pro-coeding. The question of law involved in this decancy, but are bound to issue the duplicate to the person elected to that office, he being a resident of the Ward in which he wa elected and having tendered sufficient bonds for the faithful performance of his duties. An important question of practice was also decided by declaring that in such cases a mandamus was the proceeding to admit any one to an office to which he had a legal right and which was illegally withheld, although the office might be at the same time held by one under color of an illegal appointment. We hope this decision will teach our friends in the Commissioners' office that they like other mortuls are amenable to the law.
