GRAND FAIR READ! READ! READ! Advertisements in newspapers, postors, or hand bills, have become so very common that people do not pay any attention to them, much less read, thom; consequently they deprive themselves of the great boundle for which they are designed. It is not only the laterest of the merchant to advertise his business, but in such times of high prices it is of the greatest importance to the consumer to know where he can purchase the best article for the least sum of money. Hence you will see the great importance of the great benefit which they present. Carlisle has numerous and flourishing pyr Goods Stores, Groceries, &c., all of which are first class business houses. There are atso about twenty or twenty-flyevoreders of Boots. Shoes, &c., all of which are selling, cheaper that, the cheapest. How this can be done we will leave to the mathematician to cypher out. But your especial-attention is invited to Plank's Bootand Shoe Ware Room, No. 78, North Handver Stroet, Cornor of Locust Alley, where you will find an immense Stock of Boots, Shoes, Hats, Caps, Men's and Boys winter Gloves, Undershirts, Drawers, &c., and all selling at such prices are actouising to the natives. Particular attention is requested to Wales' Arctic Galtor, for men and ladies wear. This celebrated gatter over-thee is made with a fine sheet of rubber between the linings and outside cloth, so that the cloth part of the article is as theroughly water proof as the rubber part.
