The Impeachment Question. | GENERAL GRANT AND THE PRESIDENT. Important Correspondence. In the U.S. House of Representalives last

Tuesday, the correspondence between Gen. of comment in political and non-political Grant and President Johnson in reference to the Secretary of War, which had been called for a day or two before, was received and read. It is very important and goes to show that Johnson is playing Autocrat Secretary of War, and orders Gen. Grant to ignore him also. He lords it over every tember of his Cabinet, and tries to make a t ol and a stool pigeon of Gen. Grar.t also the cor. espondence assumes another as--but in this he most signally fails. CATTLE DISEASE IN PENNSYLVANIA. We learn from the Hanover (Pn.) Spectator that a strange and fatal disease has made its appearance among the cattle in the country adjacent to that town, and that numerous larmers have lost some of their most valua ble cows. One farmer lost six cows, and two others three each, and some twenty cows are suffering with the disease, for which there appears to be no remedy. Considerable alarm prevails among the furming community r.
