ELASTIC STITCH FAMILY

SEWING MACHINES,

Are the best in Use,

FOR THE FOLLOWING REASONS:

They are more simple and durable easier kept in order, make a shorter and more elastic stitch, a tighter and more beautiful seam than any other Family sewing Machine from two common spools, requiring no rewinding of thread, fastens both ends of the seam by their own operation, and though every fifth stitch is cut the seam will not rip.

The Very Highest Prize, the Cross of the Legion of Honor, was conferred on the representative of the GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINES at the Exposition Universelle, Paris, 1867; thus attesting their great superiority over all the sewing machines.

NEW INVENTION IN GRAIN DRILLS.—The subscriber, having procured a patent for a novel and most excellent improvement to certain kinds of Grain Drills, whereby the grain instead of being planted in 3 4 inch rows as in the old method is scattered over a surface of three inches, thus securing an equal and even distribution of the seed, and a consequently greater yield of grain.

This improvement can be readily attached to any of the drills now in use.

STOVES AND TIN WARE.

IF YOU WANT TO SEE THE most perfect Parlor Stove ever offered to the public, step into

WM. FRIDLEY'S

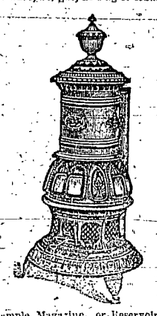
Stove Store East Louther street, in the rear of Halbert's Grocery Store and see the

GREAT AMERICAN BASE BURNER

in operation. It is a perpetual Burner, and perfect Radiator, as well as a perfect Ventilator of the room, and is warranted to consume less coal than any other Stove of the same size, ever offered to the public, requiring but one ordinary scuttle of such coal once in twenty-eight hours, being perfectly simple in all its working, having a simple line to regulate the fire for keeping at night, one kindling of fire being all that is required during the winter. No dust, no gas, no slag or clinker.

PERFECTION IN OPERATION!

THE GREATEST EQUALITY OF PRODUCTION.



NEATNESS IN DESIGN!

COMPACTNESS IN SIZE!

THE FOLLOWING IMPROVEMENTS:

ITS IMPORTANT PEculiarities ARE THESE:

1—An ample Magazine, or Reservoir, for Coal, having a free of charge month, this magazine being adjustable to different heights of six to nine inches from the grate, so as to accommodate the supply of Coal as to its size and quantity, thus permitting the maintenance of a certain depth of coal for active combustion within the fire-pot (whether it be of nut or stove size), which is the only way to burn Anthracite coal to advantage. Different sizes of coal require more or less depth for perfect combustion.

2—A Funnel, or Hopper, for the passage of the coal to the magazine is so arranged as to permit the introduction of fresh coal, without allowing any escape of fumes and gas into the room; and further, when the Stove is left with its top uncovered, compelling any fumes that may escape from the supply in the reservoir, upwards to its top, to pass over the top of the reservoir into the surrounding flue, and so to the base and outlet.

3—A Fire-pot with a continuous Flue, over its entire upper edge and down its whole body to the base and outlet flues by which means the heat is transmitted, not in separate flues several inches apart, as is usual in downward draft Stoves, but by a continuous sheet of flame in contact with the entire circumference of the outer casing of the Fire-Pot, from the top of the Fire-Pot downwards, giving a far more extended surface of radiation of the heat that any downward draft Stove can use.

4—An ample Grate Surface and Air Passages, and a complete arranged Grate, for shaking and dumping, with a good size Ash Pan to receive the ashes and clinkers.

☞ We also wish it to be noted, that there is an absolute

SECURITY FROM EXPLOSIONS OF GAS!

up in the removal of the cover from the Stove, which so commonly occurs upon the removal of the covers with other Magazine Stoves, for such is the effect of the Funnel, as constructed and arranged in reference to the Magazine and its surrounding Flue, that NO GAS CAN ACCUMULATE IN THE UPPER PART OF THE MAGAZINE TO EXPLODE, nor can a current of air, or draft, be created upwards through the Magazine to inflame its contents, which happens with other Stoves injuring and destroying the Magazine itself.

Every feature of this Stove is calculated to effect.

☞ ECONOMY! ☜

IN THE USE OF FUEL, DURABILITY IN THE CONSTRUCTION AND SYMMETRY IN ITS PROPORTIONS.

In addition to the above Stove, Fridley keeps on hand a full supply of the best Cook, Parlor and Office Stoves.

Tin and Sheet Iron work of all kinds on hand, and Spouting, Roofing and Jobbing of all kinds, done at short notice, and of the best material, Patterns, Cards, and Jars of the most approved patents, and in conclusion the best Portable and Brick Sett ever offered to the public for reference call on T. Conlyn; F. C. Hamilton; Dr. Geo. Kedlich; A. L. Sponsler; H. Saxton; Prof. Hillman; D. J. Ledlich; J. Risler; and others.

Furnaces,

To speak at length of the different Stoves would occupy too much space, but we deem it necessary to call the attention of the public to the

The Empire has many valuable qualities which can only be fully appreciated by seeing it in operation. We claim that it is the superior to any other stove now in use, and we feel satisfied that we can convince all who will favor us with an examination of the Stove that it is worthy of their patronage.

LOOK OUT DRY GOODS MEN

TO THE PUBLIC.

I have just returned from the East with my Spring Stock and as usual I am selling Goods a little cheaper than any other Dry Goods House in town. I do not think it necessary to occupy a column of newspaper to endeavor to keep up my reputation for selling cheap Goods, nor do I wish to resort any clap trap to gull the public. All I ask of them to call and examine for themselves, and if not satisfied with the prices, not to buy. Remember the stand—No. 82, North Hanover street, next door to Dr. Rheffer's, and Miller & Bowers' Hardware store.

WM. A. MILES.

P. S. I will say nothing about my third and fourth grand openings.
