IMPEACHMENT is the peaceful and -J lawful means provided by our Constitution to remove from office incompetent rulers, despots, and tyrants who would defy the law and override the legislature. In absolute monarchies, the power of the legislature is limited only by assassina-"tion and revolution. Take away from a Republic the power to impeach an intolérable ruler, and we would be compelled either to submit to his absolute despotish or to remove him by the monarchibal remedies. The surest way to avoid theory that a lie well stuck to is as good the employment of revolutionary and unconstitutional remedies is to apply fearlessly that which the Constitution provides and demands.
