LANE, of Kansas, when he gave symptoms of ratting to Johnson, was so appalled by the public indignation which met him on his return home, and as to well say, "Go and do thou likewise."

It is a noteworthy fact that while the General Government pays six per cent. interest in gold on her bonds, Massachusetts can borrow unlimited amounts-at four per cent., having recently negotiated a loan of three millions in gold at that low rate of interest. There are no repudiation schemes in Massachnsetts, because Democracy is powerless there, and the credit of the Bay State stands above that of the National Government.

THE seven Senatorial Renegrades are sold-out Republicans, dishonored Senators and disgraced men. They have shown themselves incapable of political fidelity, patriotic independence or personal truth. They have been guilty, not only of treachery to their official trusts, but of such a lack of personal veracity and honor, as to entitle them richly to be expelled from the Senate, kicked out of the Republican party and scorned of all men.

THE Ku Klux Klan has about run its course. The negroes, against whom its operations are mostly directed, are trying firearms upon the ghostly visitors, and, as the making of real ghosts of the sham, ones is not what was bargained for, there is a growing disposition among the Klu Kluxes to drop the ghost business altogether. "Hunting ze tiger is fine sport," said the French sportsman, "but, be gar, when ze tiger hunts you'!" It's a good joke to shoot negroes, but when the negro shoots you the joke losses its point. __ Toledo (Ohio) Blade.

Notwithstanding the infamous attempts of the Republican party to prostitute the forms of justice to their own selfish ends, truth and right have once more been triumphant .- Volunteer.

Such stuff as the above coming from such a source as it does is truly refreshing. "The infamous attempts of the Republican party to prostitute the forms of justice &c." Has the Volunteer forgotten that the leading organ of its own corrupt party, The New York World, openly counseled the raising of ten millions of dollars for the purchase of seven Republican Senators to vote for the acquittal of the renegade President? Advocating the principles it does, it is the lican party will march to an even greater veriest impudence and impiety for it to talk about "the infamous attempts" of an organization whose very principles and through the corrupt means resorted to conduct are in antagnoism to all that is by the friends of the President will base and infamous in the administration of national affairs. Bribery and corruption have secured the legal acquittal or Mr. Johnson, and, this being so much in harmony with Democratic practice, the Volunteer gloats over the baseness and treachery of the men who sold themselves and betrayed their party and country.

We will give ful likewise. particulars in our next issue.

On Saturday the Senate sitting as High Court of Impeachment went through the solemn formula of voting on the 11th Article, and on that article the great apostate was acquitted; the friends of conviction falling short one vote. Thereupon, the further consideration of the subject was postponed until the 26th inst. This article was selected because it was elieved to be the strongest, and would give cofreut test of the strength of the respective parties. The names of the men who, at the cost of eternal infamy, betrayed their party and their country are : Messra. Fessenden, of Maine; Fowler, of Tenessee; Grimes, of Iowa; Henderson, o Missouri; Ross, of Kansas; Trumbull, of Illinois; Van Winkle, of West Virginia -seven apostates who are as deserving of ensure and condemnation as the usurper himself. We have already spoken of the treachery of these men, of the corrupting influences to which they have yielded, and of the indignation their con duct has excited throughout the length and breadth of the land. Although the vote in a legal sense has acquitted him, its moral effect is and must be that of conviction. If but thirty-five Senators voted for conviction-one less than the legally required number-but nine een voted for acquittal. And thus thirty-five men, under the solemn obligations of their oaths as judges and Senators, have voted that Andrew Johnson is guilty of high crimes and misdemeanors; and, the simple fact that, under the presence of party go hang himself, like Judas. Ross, of discipline, personal malice, the jingle of Kansas, the people of that State may the silver of the whiskey ring and the mighty influence of Executive patronage ineteen votes were secured for his acquittal, in its moral effect amounts to nothing. True, it is sad and disheartening to find that men, hitherto esteemed and revered for their severe Republicanism and patriotism, should fall by the wayside in the great march of progress and reform. But, on the other hand, it is full of cheer and encouragement to find the great mass of the Republican party undismayed by the treachery of men in high places. Indeed, everywhere, betrayal seems only to have induced a firmer resolve and steadier purpose among the loyal men of the nation. But, we are told that the defection of these Senators was caused by the intervention and influence of Chief Justic Chase. That it is his object to found a new part; of which he shall be the acknowledged head. It is but a few years since, that Mr. Johnson himself, aided by the whole patronage of his Administration, and a number of Republican Senators and journalists quite as able and shrewd as any of these apostates who now surround the Chief Justice tried this same game, and what was the result? We were just then in that of Congress. There certainly was great danger that he would succeed in war to its successful termination. Herfame they ever possessed. And if such plish the defeat of the Republican party. section of our unreconstructed territory? But not being thus wise, they will certainly learn wisdom from experience. Thus has money, official influence and political intrigue secured what proves to be a legal acquittal of the great criminal. Nevertheless, the country and world will look upon Andrew Johnson as morally convicted of high crimes and misdemeaners charged against him in the articles of Impeachment. That this view of the case is accepted not only by the friends of Impeachment, but also by his own supporters is evidenced by the fact that their exultation over the acquittal is of so tame and | Enthusiasm Intense! -- They De-

Let the Chicago Convention but dis charge its duty faithfully, and the Repubvictory this fall, than it has ever yet a chieved. The failure of impeachment make the friends of the party and country all the more determined to secure the election of General Grant and the success of our broad and generous principles. Chief Justice Chase and Impeachment.

In the many betrayals which the Re publican party has suffered at the hands of trusted leaders, there is, pehaps, none that seems so utterly base and ungrateful litical enemies to the country: as that of Chief Justice Chase.

Since the organization of the party Mr Chase has been honored with every high position in its power to bestow, with the single exception of that of the presidenoy. He was elected Governor of Ohio afterwards Senator from the same istate and upon the accession of Mr. Lincoln to the Presidency was first appointed Secretary of the Treasury, and afterwards Chief Justice of the United States. During all this time his political views were not only in accord with those of the party, but more often in advance of them. Indeed he was looked upon and and revered as a leader in the advocacy of the great principles of universal equality and justice, and yet this man has turned his back upou his whole political record, has dabbled the ermine of the court in the pool of political intrigue, and has even gone so far as to induce others to take part in his Judas play.....

But the question may be asked, why has Salmon P. Chase thus acted? What interest has he in betraying the party that has done so much for him? The only answer to these questions is to be found in the disappointed and cha Town and County Matters. grined ambition of the man. Ever since 1860 Mr. Chase has been of the opinion that he ought to be President of the United States. Even in Mr. Lincoln's cabinet did he make display of that pleasant self conceit. Indeed, it in the end induced him to resign, in order that he could figure around for the numination of 1864. Again disappointed he in a measure subsided. Mr. Lincoln afterwards appointed him Chief Justice. His friends who, admired and loved him. but who nevertheless, lamented his great fault, thought that certainly this highest of all positions would fill the measure of his lofty ambition. But here again were they doomed to disappointment. The position of Chief Justice was not the field in which his intriguing talents could find their coveted employ ment. SOLDIER'S MONUMENT.-For a long time we have heard nothing in relation to the proposed monument to the memory of the Cumberland county soldiers who fell in the defense of their country during the late rebellion. CORN PLANTING .- Owing to the ocurrence of such frequent rains during the whole spring up to the present time, th farmers of this county have been greatly de layed with their work of all kinds, and now n the latter part of May, from the best information we can get, not much more than half the corn has been planted.

CATTLE FEEDING .- Mr. Jacob Mum na, Sr., and his two sons, residing near Mechanicsburg, fed during the past winter forty head of cattle. One lot weighed 61 680 lbs, averging 1,542 lbs. per head. He sold his cattle on the first of April to Messrs. Ebert & Wallet of York, at 10 cts per lb., realizing the large sum of $6,168 for the lot, or $154,20 per head. His net profit was $69 per head, amounting to $2,760, giving him 2,00 per bushel for all corn fed. We are exceedingly glad, to find our farmers so centrally turning their attention to the ceding of cattle. We doubt very much if their be another department of the business which affords so ready and great profits. Let our other farmers emulate the example of Messrs. Mumma, Brennenan, and the Messrs. Moffat's Life Pills and Phonix Pitters ere first used in private practice in 1825. They ere introduced to the public in 1835, since which me their reputation has extended, until they have a sale in excess of all other Cathartic and Purifying Medicines. There is hardly a family among civilized nations who have not personal evidence of their oneficial effects. Their great success is owing to their uniform reliability, in cases of Constitution Billious and Stomachic diseases, whether of long c shindus and stomachic diseaser, whether of long or phort duration. They are ontirely vegetable in their composition, and harmless to the gentlest infant. One ingredient opens the pores of the skin; another is diuretic, and stimulates proper action of the kid-neys, a third is emollient, locsoning phiegin and hu-mor from the Jungs, other proporties are warming om unhealthy secretions. Their combi is, to regulate the impaired functions of the system, and to produce health. It is not asserted Moffat's Pills are a cure-all—that they will cure alll complaints—but under ordinary circu mater be relied upon to cure Nervors and Sick Headache, Costiveness, Dyspep ia, Indigestion, Jaundice, Liver and Billous Complaints, Cold, Scurvy General Weakness, &c.
