We intended to have called attention to Hoofland's German Bitters advertised in our columns. Thu Bitters, as perhaps overy body is aware, is as much staple article with the drug store as flour is with the grist mills, and call for it where you will, you cannot go amiss. There is no botter 'medicine before the public, it contains no alcoholic ingredient, and come mends Tiself to temperance people, who sack to avoid whatever intexicates or leads to intemperance. Mos people resort to tonics in the spring of the year, Hoofland's stands at the head of them all, and is potent at any time of the year. Those who would come out in the spring with a cleansed and invigorated system should begin its use now.

The above is the unsolicited statement of the Edite
"PATRIOT," Wankegan Ills. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC. Combines all the ingredients of the Bitters, with pure Santa Cruz Rum, orange, anise, &c. It makes a delightfully pleasant preparation, and is used for the nenguounty prossent preparation, and is used for the same disease as the Bitters, in cases where some Alcoholic Stimulus is necessary.
