The Columbia (S. C.) "Phemix" contains the following resolution passed by a Democratic club in its vicinity:

*Resolved, That no member of this club shall employ rent lands to or patronize any Radical, after the present contracts shall have expired. And that, from this date we will not give employment to any freedmen who are stragglers over the country as day laborors, who cannot show that they are members of some Democratic association.

The Richmond correspondent of the New York Times says:

"There is one thing: certain: the whole aim of the Democrats of Virginia is to work matters in such a way as to replace the two races as nearly as they possibly can in the position they occupied during or just prior to the war; and they are confident that this can be accomplished by the overthrow of the Radical party, and that it will be done by their unsuspecting tools—the Democrats of the North. The triumph of Seymour will be a death blow to all hopes of the African race in the Sonth being permitted to enjoy life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, much less the right of voting or being educated." y strugged or windcas and dynoid these principles."

The Columbus (Ga.) "Sun," says:

If the Radicals, it continues, at-tempt in their desperation to play this, the last eard left them, they know that then silly cry of revolution now will then become a fearful reality?!

THE SAME OLD REBELLION STILL.

Judge Aldrich, who had the honor of a Democratic reception in Charleston a few days ago, said:

"This is a grand contest in which we are spragged; a contest for constitutional liberty. Blair's friends seem to cling to the notion that he may become President through the next election. Thus one of his neighbors, Charles Gibson, said at the St. Louis ratifiengaged; a contest for constitutional liberty, and it was the contest in which we have been engaged since 1861."

The Charleston "Morcury" expresses ittion meeting: "Mr. Blair, in his letter, tells us that ifhe be elected President of the United States, self as follows:

"Not one honest man, south of Mason's and Dixon's line, is ashamed of the musket he bore or the sword he draw in defense of the Confederate flag. The man who says he is ashamed of it lies. Let every honest man at the North be sure of the fact, that the nation and he tells you that if, in the exercise of his constitutional powers, it becomes necessary, he will use the necessary measures to remove them out of those halls.

A voice—'He is right,' and cheers.

The Savannah (Georgia) papers say that the meeting in that city to ratify the nomination of Seymour and Blair was very largorly, attended. We quote the following report of speeches made at the meeting from the Savannah Republican:

"A mid loud calls and cheering, the chairman introduced Gen'l. A. R. Lawton, who said: ave entered upon a new phase of political

VIRGINIA TO VOTE REGARDLESS OF LAW. The Petersburg (Va.) index asserts:—
"Under our laws Virginia has a right to

To the counting of our votes the National Democracy stands pledged. Let us do our duty—and vote. Let us leave to the people of the North their duty—counting our vote."

Mr. Williams of Shreveport, La., said at a New Orleans Democratic gathering, a few nights since:

"I believe we will carry our candidates as firmly as there is a throne of God. But "I believe we will carry our candidates as firmly as there is a throne of God. But even if defeat should fall upon us, do not be discouraged; the time will come when we will redeem the country. Let no man leave his native State—let us lay our bones in Louisiana, and if these scallawags and carpet-baggers remain, let's hunt them from the country." He said it was an occasion not for discussion, but for the earnest grasp of the fraternal hand. It was an occasion when every American, every Georgian, Savannahian—every man should be prepared to announce his allegiance. He came to give his heart and voice for what they were worth to the American-Democracy. Against those principles he had never rebelled. They were our principles in 1850, in 1860, in 1861, 1862 1863, 1864, and 1865. In vindication of them the blood of our people flowed freely throughout the land. We have never, never, never abandoned them. And now we are told by those who have returned to us from

Mr. Ramsey, a Democratic orator of Georgia, said in a speech a few days since:
Georgia has passed through a flery ordeal.
Some of her children, during the war she was compelled to ward, deserted her and joined her enemies. Let them be like Arpold forwar recursed. We have seen our soldiers fall, our cities in flames, our citicalled upon to strike together for this comzens torn from their peaceful homes. We looked upon it unmoved, and unblanched. But we can bear it no longer. We will mon cause. When the thunders of the storm shall be over, and the sun shall shine forth from the firmament, God grant that it may tion of the voters at the polls. The Richmond *Examiner is correct when it says that those who attempt to lead the Democratic party, if they intend to abandon its platform, 'might as well abandon its platform, 'might as well abandon its platform, 'might as well abandon the field, as they are whipped already.''

The Richmond *Whig says:

"We have no exactions to make of the Northern Democracy. We take their platform and their candidates just as they are. We have no objection to take to them.'
