The Democracy and the Debt.

The two great political parties, has ng made up the issues of the campaign, by the selection of their respective tandard-bearers and the enunciation of their principles, the canvass is being nost vigorously conducted all over the country. Already have four States assed upon these issues. Kentucky, three-fourths of whose voters either actually participated in the rebellion or that party. gave aid and comfort to those who did. has gone, as was expected, heavil-

Democratic. Vermont, Colorado and Maine have declared in favor of the men and principles of the Republican party, by overwhelming majorities .-Nebraska votes on Tuesday, the 6th day of next month, and all eyes are now turned anxiously towards Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana, an the great battle ground of the campaign. While the Democracy have no hope of carrying Ohio, they are making a most vigorous effort here, in our own State, and n Indiana. That the Republican party will carry these two States, however, in spite of Democratic effort, misrepresen ation and fraud, viewed in the light of the elections already held elsewhere, s almost a foregone conclusion. Indeed, the only possible way in which the Republican party can lose these States, is through the inactivity and ndifference that might arise from over confidence. This must be avoided .-Although we may justly feel almost bsolutely certain, we should make success doubly sure by working carnestly and unremittingly for it. Frank Blair, the rebet candidate for the Vice Presidency, most truly stated, immediately after the New York Conrention, that the main issue between the two parties is the question of Reconstruction. But, having made a fight apon this subject in the late elections nd having been terribly worsted, the emocracy are now attempting to dodge that issue, and are busily employed in isrepresenting the National Debt and other things he swore that when elected or appointed to any official station ing so humiliating in the history of American politics as this tergiversation. It was, perhaps, not unfit that Mr. Seymour, after presiding in 1864 over the Chicago Convention, which declared the war a failure, should preside over the Convention of 1868, in which a proposition to discredit the debt contracted to carry on the war was received with "tremendous cheering," and that he should be the chosen instrument to exercise this act of national turpitude. I do not believe that the wishes or conferring upon him the power to do so, he would " remove all foreigners, spot aliens, or Roman Catholics from office or place, and that I will in no case appoint such to any office or place in my

About Assessments. Republicans, remember this fact, nd act accordingly. Wherever there s a Democratic Assessor in any Borough or Township you must make a personal application in order to be assessed. These men will assess Domocrats without such application, but will not assess you, unless you go to them. Remember this and act accordingly.

Tell your neighbors this, and see that they are all properly assessed. HAVE the soldiers, who put the rebellion down, forgotten how they felt when while in the field, they heard from the Copperheads at home? Do they remember the fire in the rear from Vallandigham and Pendleton and Seymour? Can they forget how they pledged themselves to remember and honor those who aided and encouraged the Union cause by their influence at home, and how they swore to visit a just retribution upon those home traitors who were striving to defeat them? The time has come now for these things to be remembered. ONE VOTE for Hartrauft and Campbell in October is worth two for Grant that is among that portion of it who he will have good reasons to give vent and Colfax in November. - If we carry sold out their birth-rights for a mess of to his disappointment in still more pit the first election—the second grand and final victory is sure to follow. Welcome to President Dashi -Oa- Wednesday morning last, a forma reception was tendered to Roy ROBERT . Dashjel, D. D., newly elected Presitent of Dickinson College. The College Chapel was well filled with the trustees faculty and students of the College, and a Lincoln war a gute President, ava wie by an address of welcome by WM, H MILLER, Esq., of the board of Trustee. President kasa; and now sind sie so arg Mr. MILLER referred in very pathetic la guage to the relation which obtains be tween Dr. D. DASHIEL and his almo mater-"Old Mother. Dickinson," arguing therefrom that it should be the former's filial duty, in the vigor and strength of manhood, to throw around the venerable matron his strong right arm, cherishing and protecting her. Turning to the assen bled faculty, Mr. MILLER, with cheeries humor recounted some of their valorous achievements in the battles against igno ance and superstition.

Mr. R. K. Wimprough, of the Senior Class then delivered a very chaste and elequent welcome on behalf of the students. espeaking for the Dr. a long and pr The Dr. then assumed the Presidenti desk and in a speech full of deep feeling days, formally accepted the position to which he had been called J. At the clos of the President's comarks, Prof. S. D. HILLMAN, stated that the prospects for the continued and enhanced success of the 'ollege were never brighter and that everything augered in favor of her future advancement. The large audience were then introduced individually to Dr. DASHIEL and all expressed sentiments of the highest esteem and good will. We will give a detailed account of the proceedngs in our next.
