Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup.

Schemel's Fulmonic Syrup.

Seawed Tonic and Mandrake Pills, will cure Communication, Liver Complaint, and Dyspepsia, if taken according to directions. They are all three to be taken at the same time. They cleanue the stomach; relax the liver, and put it to work: then the appetito become good: the food digests and makes good blood: the patient begins to grow in fiesh, the diseased matter ripone in the lungs, and the patient out-rows the disease and gots well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

To these three medicines Dr. J. II. Schon . of Philadelphia, owes his unrelaxed success in the treatment of pulmonary consumption, The Pilminelphia, owes his unrelaxed success in the treatment of pulmonary consumption, The Pilminelphia, owes his unrelaxed success in the treatment of pulmonary consumption, The Pilminelphia, owes his unrelaxed success in the treatment of pulmonary consumption, The Pilminelphia, which is the seawed Tonic and Mandrake Pills must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver. To do this, the Seaweed Tonicand Mandrake Pilis must be freely used to Ceause the Atomach and liver, so that the Pulmonic Syrup and the food will make good blood.

Schenck's Mandrake Pilisact suppor the liver ramoving all obstructions, relax the duct of the gall bladder, the diestarts freely, and the liver is soon relieved; the stools will show what the Pilis can do; nothing has ever been invented except calomal (a deadly polson which is very dangerous to use unless wt the great care), that will unlock the gall bladder and start the secretions of the liverlike Schenck's Mandrake Pilis.
