Dear Madam: As I am about to leave this place, you will pardon the laberty I I am taking. I feel that it is my duty to tender to you and all the members of your family my heartfelt thanks for the kind manner in which I have been treated, while an inmate of this prison. Allow me while an inmate of this prison. Allow me also, to thank you in behalf of my mother, with her hope that you may never know trouble. Believe me dear Madam I have not always been the character I am now supposed to be, but I might now be filling a respectable position in society, had I taken the good advice of my friends. But instead I must eke out the best years of my life within the gloony walks of the penitor. life within the gloomy walls of the peniton tiary. I will say good-by and may Goobless and prosper you and yours.

1 am Dear Madam
Very Respectfully

LETTER FROM ADAM TITUS -ADAM TITUS, the prisoner, now in jail here, awaiting the execution of the sen-GRAHAM, at the last term of Court, sends to us the following letter which we give to our readers without comment.

To the Editors of the Carlisle Herald: GENTLEMEN—Will you please insert the following lines in your local column, and receive the thanks of a doomed man. That 18 all I have to offer for the present time.

I am very Respectfully

Your humble Servant. ADAM A. TITUS.

To My Friends in Public: GENTLEMEN-AND LADIES—I, knowing that my days are numbered, and that they are few and short, and firmly believing in the blood of Jesus Christ, that through him God will forgive my sins, and judge me in the Spir-it for my sins committed in the fiesh. And heartily reporting my next life I delice to it for my sins committed in the flesh. And heartily repenting my past life I desire to say to, and ask my friends to forgive me, for any and all my misdeeds towards them in deed or spirit. As I hope to be forgive me by God, I earnestly pray you to forgive me for all my great sins committed on this earth. And to my enemies (if any I havo) I humbly beg for pardon from them—and freely forgive them myself. I desire when my end shall come, to feel at peace with all men, so that I may meet my God; and all men, so that I may meet my God, and hear him say through His Son, Thy sins are forgiven thee. I bring these few lines to a close, and bid all my friends a hearty farewell. I am my friends
Very Respectfully Yours.
ADAM A. TITUS.

Base Balt. On Saturday afternoon a friendly game of Base Ball was played at the Garrison between the Keystone Club of this place and a scrub nine tionrd at that post. The batting of the soldiers was heavy but they were no match for the fielding of the loys, who won the game as will be seen from the following second.
