

The Carlisle Herald.

CARLISLE, OCTOBER 15, 1895.

Special service will be held in St. John's church next week, in connection with the convocation of the clergy of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this section of the State, as follows: On the evenings of Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, the 19th, 20th, and 21st, at 7 o'clock, and on Wednesday and Thursday mornings at 10 o'clock. The open-air sermon, on Tuesday evening, will be preached by the Rev. A. J. Barrow, of Bedford, Pa.

Our Democratic friends held a very orderly and respectable meeting in the Court House, on Saturday evening, which was addressed by our worthy friend Wm. H. Miller, esq. The constitution of the independence and sovereignty of the Commonwealth were discussed in the same strain, and in nearly the same language, in which the issues treated when the orator in his place belonged to the National Union party which our friends may remember had a sort of a precarious existence during part of the summer of 1860.

Last Sunday we were favored with a full day's rain, very much to the discomfiture of every body who was charged with any official duties about our churches. Those who were not fit to go, noticed.

We are indebted to Mr. Henry E. Beiderl, of the farm of Henry Blue, formerly the Lee farm, for some of the finest apples of the Pound and Red Flower varieties, which have seen the season. One of the Pound spicas weighed 20 ounces, and measured 14 inches in circumference. All such fruits thoroughly received.

A private letter from a friend brings the good news that George H. Ellinger, a native of Aiken, of Lancaster city, has been elected Mayor of that place by a majority of 22.

Most of our readers are aware that our former fellow citizen and ex editor of The Volunteer, Mr. George Sanderson, has for more than a decade been presiding over the corporate destinies of Lancaster, and up until about 12 o'clock, M. of Tuesday last, that gentleman and his coppery friends felt probably secure in the belief that the godly citizens of Lancaster had practically conceded to his Honor a life estate in the Mayoralty, with a possible hereditary succession. But the Rip Van Winkles had a rude awakening to the fact that their rule is forever gone, and that henceforth the official robes are to rest upon the shoulders of a vigorous, progressive young Republican, whose administration will bring economy, good government and prosperity. We trust with all our heart that Mr. Ellinger, in his present benevolent, but other wise the sure conviction that his loss will prove an incalculable gain to his adopted home.

Wm. Aug. Atlee, the Mayor elect, is a son of that eminent surgeon, Dr. John L. Atlee, himself a lawyer of distinction, having made his mark in the District Attorney of Lancaster county, and having established a reputation as a gentleman of undoubted probity and worth. We heartily congratulate him and his people upon his election.

Hon. Wilson Hinsley, of Philadelphia, addressed the friends of Geary and Williams in the Court House, on Friday night last. There was a very large attendance and the meeting was in every respect a success. Mr. Hinsley delivered a very able and masterly address, in which the issues of the campaign and the merits of the candidates were very elaborately discussed. It was applauded most enthusiastically, and when he closed he received expressions from many of his audience. Mr. Hinsley's effort certainly entitled him to a very high rank among our best political speakers.

One hundred soldiers left the Garrison on last Monday morning.

The Carlisle Band has been constantly employed during the past week, playing considerately for the Empio and Agricultural Fairs. Last week they played considerably for the politicians. They make excellent music, no matter where they play, and we hope they may receive the ample encouragement they deserve. They appear in a neat new uniform, their only need is to be sure of getting paid.

The Farmers' Home Association, this association of people are from the mid-state of Southern States and it relates some of their transactions in, Jr. J. O. Atlee, Co., an attorney and a few weeks ago dissolved his partnership with George W. Cox, and took quite the office of Atley's Scraps, and he is now in the care of Mr. Hinsley, Daily Journal.

Hospitality!—The Friends of Geary and Williams, after a long and tedious discussion, have agreed to let us hold their annual meeting at the home of Hon. H. G. Holden, 44 Old City Street, New York.

Our residents have deserved the very best, and we trust, that we deserve only the very best of them. But now, the remarkable recovery of Mrs. Hinsley, of Cambria, from her disastrous and somewhat protracted disease, has brought a ray of light into the lives of those who are interested in the welfare of our country.

GO TO THE TRADE.—We are determined to rival any market in the quality and price of our goods. Please come to see us.

We have secured and fitted up two rooms in Hinsley's building, for holding meetings.

Services in Reformed Church on next Sabbath by Rev. J. A. Peters, Pastor elect, morning at 11 o'clock and evening at 7 o'clock.

The closing hours of the fair on most unfortunate accidents we have been called out to record for a long time, and one which has cast a gloom over a whole community. While a number of persons were driving and riding around the course, a horse, which Dr. J. A. Macay, of Greenville, was riding, became unmanageable and plunged into the wheel of a buggy in rapid motion, and fell, throwing the Doctor upon his head. He was overtaken, insensible, and removed to a house near at hand, where he lingered until 4 o'clock on Monday morning, when he expired.—Every care and attention was given to the wounded man; all the physicians, and indeed, the people of Greenville generally, tendered their aid and sympathy, but to no avail. He had been fatally injured by the fall, and never became conscious while he breathed.

Dr. Macay, the deceased, was a son of Dr. C. T. Macay, of Greenville, and was engaged with his father in the practice of medicine. Though yet quite a young man, he was extensively known throughout the community through his practice, in which he had already gained considerable distinction and was highly loved and respected wherever known. His sad and sudden death has filled his family and friends with sorrow, and renders the echo of the fair, which up to that time had passed without incident, exceedingly melancholy. His remains will be buried at Middlebury Church, Cumberland county, this (Wednesday) morning, at 11 o'clock.—Chambersburg Reporter.
