and the second of the second	n an Chambrach an an an Anna an	the state of the s	م میں میں اور	an an ann an an an ann an ann ann ann a		Borran International Internation
and a start of the		Second and the second	an a				Long Transferrer	The second s
					(4) (1) (2) (2) (2) (2) (2) (2) (2) (2) (2) (2	par have the state of the second of the second s	out to Longite Desire ( ,2, 1 mile Best lear of Algeb	(in the second of the second secon	W - when the party of we the dust
						fiel and the fire hard thinks	<ul> <li>A state of the sta</li></ul>
						inter en
J. M. WRAKLEI	· · · · · · · · ·		CARLISLE, P	ENN'A, FRIDAY, OC	OBER 29, 1869.			TBRMS: IN ADTANCE, $2.09 u year.
02				and in the second of the second s			The second s
HITING.	what it is to despair of being united to the one I love."	impetuously up stairs, flung open the door of the room, seized his wife in his	ing. Blessed soul ! who shall for lid i	he thinks cannot fail to pxort a most sal- utary -influence. To the question, what		a go on simultandously	radiate a glow of hearifelt resignation,	angliest I know you uid not tell mid-
on the of time I linger,	" But your mother-your father."	arms and clasped her to his heart. "My wife." he whispered in her ear.	to her, but who does not wish she had been able to take it fresh, and unwearied	le course of action he would pursue if, as the common anticipation now is the ma-	To the second se	e "Suppose a carge of wet grain ar rives at this elevator. The same ma	whereof the influence will be diffused more widely and enduringly than he	ling any shirt the state of the
Look ut upon a sea, Where hips are salling outward, From ficther land ablw?	"Unless I am willing to leave them for your.sake, I am not worthy of you."	"Such you are and ever shall be before	out of her morning hours? Some wonien seem to find a real pleas	jority of the bishops assembled in Rome should expressly sanction the ultra Papal	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	d   chinery is applied to its discharge, bu	could have imagined. In the ever pro-	wages, for he is willing."
These ptions ships are beams	"But then the loss of wealth, of posi- tion, of the surroundings of refinement."	"Now I begin to think that you do love me," she said, smiling in his face" You	in sewing. It soothes their nerves, and	theories of the Roman, Sec, and leave no	to the contrary notwithstanding, nover	shifted about to dry it in the "air, it is sent into a spout which conducts it to	Right against Wrong, Truth against Er-	show of wild heasts passed through the Treas out upon the main. That that has loved and cherished ; And come not back asin	"Do not say anything more about it I am willing to leave all for your sake.	do love me ? you really think you do,	their griefs and cares passing away as	repudiate those theories, the Father re-	Wise men laff every good chance they	another building owned by the same	lute discomfiture-only postponement,	the store rushed to witness the specta-
10, Faith 10po sp-ak words desmfort	am weary of being without you." "Would you be willing to become my	George ? " He clasped her more tightly to him.	the work for some loved one grows under their hands,	for consideration until the resolutions of	kan get. Laffin is only a weakness in phools.	house, with all the modern improvements.	repulse, and the ill success of a misdi- rected attack-an unwisely planned ma-	cle. A thief saw the opportunity, and entered the rear door to seize something,
Were for these good dredb Thacheering you and me	wife this day-this hour ? Your fathe		There are garments, sacred as the grave clothes in Christ's sepulshre, that		more honesty than it can show.	Here, upon drying kilns, each 50 feet square, 15,000 bushels of wet grain can	I himself firmly on the Good is allied with	but in a twinkle found himself clutched
Life v be a heavy burdes.	and mother might otherwise put obsta cles in our way."	I should not feel ashamed-yet they are not my parents, but have only played a		in the United States. He has come over to see and study the country of which he	Whenever I find a real handsum wo- man engaged in the ""wimmins' rights	be dried daily. At the time of my visits the kilns were all in full blast with a	all the moral forces of the universe, and is certain of ultimate triumph. The evil	after a struggle was captured. Not only
Woulver keep the suilight Fro: Boul's half open door	"I am willing, this hour-this minute." "They do not know of my position in	part in which I have instructed them	Sons and husbands have been thus clothed, who knew not what they were	has been so long an ardont admirer. In-	business," then I am going to take my	cargo of oats from a sun' en canal boat,	and the base, the selfish and the syco- phantic, may seem to flourish for a sea-	articles from other stores recovered.
I will with" resignation-	life." "They still think you are wealthy—a	are worthy people."	wearing; but a blessing always goes with	eloquence traced the greatness of this	cession.	grain, when dry, would be put upon the	son; but their verdure soon less away	When asked by the merchant why he
Throud darkness, outward ailing, Unath a heavenly sky	I did." "Come, then, we will go our way with	And he did shake hands with them, And what is more, he helped them.	Some mothers have learned in early	country to its open Bible and its popular and free religion, and he wants to see		dried," will the o ts be ground for hu-	and is forgotten, leaving the good to stand forth like the evergreens of the	quit their work, the reply was, "You' told me never to leave the store when the
I shal within the harbor,	Ned, and become before the world what	A merry party was gathered that ove- ning at Mainwell's house, a party con-				destroyed, if sold cheap, will they be,	forest in winter, when the Summer foliage which dwarfed and obscured them	others were absent, and I thought I'd
<ul> <li>White ships at anchor 10</li> <li>All mesures that were take</li> <li>Fros night world into 40</li> </ul>	we are now in spirit, husband and wife and then at once we will take the car	winting of Mr. and Mrs. Mainwall and	tion. Dear mother, keep this gift for	few weeks or months he expects to re- turn to France; he may or may not go to	than slander.	like other trash, mixed with "Norway	lies shriveled at their feet. Happy they who learn in childhood, and treasure	once more : "Double that boy's wa-
· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	for the home I have for you-a home which, though lowly, will make you	11	colors-sharpen your pencilssketch-		world-the natural ones, the common	This malt house is 212 feet long and 54	through after trials and temptation, the grand lesson of the ago-the philosophy	and sold a gooding a satury of $2,000
THE HUAND OUT WITTED.	happy." "Whither you go I will go."	never was in better spirits, nor let it be	your nerves," it will brighten your	But the strong basis of his religious be-	every day phool, and the dagham phool.	iron gutters, and fire proof floors where	of living to noble ends Packard's	a year, and noxt January will become a member of the firm.
A week at watering place, and most	They were married in a quiet way in	who forgave their daughter and her hus-	and cheerfulness to your life; and the		THE ELEVATOR AT BUFFALO. A great deal of engineering skill has	the barley is sprouted, after having been steeped, 500 bushels at a charge. The	Monthly.
of the time : day spent in the com- pany of Mblainwell, the gentleman	wicked Ned consiving at the mischief	bandwithout hesitation.		Christ, in the inspiration of the Scrip- tures, and the excellence of the Christian	been displayed in the erection of the giant elevator now in operation in various parts	the basement, and the flues are conduct-	BRBAD-CAST UPON THE WATER.	Josh Billings, (Henry W. Shaw,) is thus written of by one who knows him :
whom Miss Worth's old friendhad in- troduced to lone morning on me piaz.	The next train sped with them to the city.	ing in Mainwell's car, "two can play at that game, can't they?"		civilization of the nineteenth century. Father Hyacinthe is now in the prime	of the country, and our readers will pro-	ed up to and form the bottom of the kilns	the time of the discovery of rold in Cafi.	He is cortainly quite as ugly as Nasby. In many of his articles, in broken En-
za. She hadled with him sing the shore on the onlight evenings and she		Mainwell took Ned's jeering very so-	weariness. It has been company in soli-	of his manhood. He was born in 1827,	bably be interested in some items respect- ing the Niagara elevator at Buffalo,	the air or gas of the furnace imay pass		glish, he surpasses all who have tried this class of writing. But to fully appreci-had danced th him in the thronged	carriage they took at the depot in the city had drawn up before one of a long	. Tes, salu ne, alter a lew moments	refreshment and strength. Very hum-	father was rector of the academy. Hav-	which we cull from a letter of one of the correspondents of the New York Tri-	of allou grain can be delivered from the	made his way to the mountains, and	ate him one must see and know him.
	block of brown stone houses in a splendid		ble skill will serve to reproduce a leaf or flower; and the work pays for itself. If		hune:	store rooms of the malt house to the cars which run between the building and the	worked hard for months, but with little	quaintest specimen of humanity I ever met. Five years, ago he was an auction-tributed her als among manygentle- men, and shed found her ided well	" "What do you mean ?" she demanded,	she ought to have taken me regardless	only one learns by it the infinite beauty of nature, and comes near to God by	four years of theological studies, ordain- ed priest, and soon after called as profes-	one of 25 others which line the river upon	elevator.",	clothes worn out, and he must either	eer in Poughkeepsie, New York. He nigh realizon Mr. Mainwell Only the evening bre, their talk halwith-	as she accompanied her husband up the broad steps to the door.	of my circumstances, for myself alone, and without hesitation even. And yet	seeing how inimitable are his works,	sor of Philanthropy to the seminary of Avignon. Later he became professor of	both sides for a mile from the harbor's mouth. Buffalo has often been called	THE VIRTUE OF PERSISTENCE.	starve or find his way back to San Fran- cisco, and get employment. He started	has since removed to New York city, where he keeps his boarding house drawn' itselfom the general toic to which each h been congonial, ad in	"I mean," he replied "that this is the home, and this is the workshop."	when she tested me, I myself was found	Finally, every good husband should	theology at Nantes. After that he was	'the world's granary ;' a view of these elevators at work proves it. But a few	I think the world is very generally	on foot and slowly made his journey. One afternoon he came to the bank of a	amused by his irrepressible oddities. As her admiraticof his intilligene and manliness, shhad encouraged a ap-	And he led her in. Among other rooms to which he conducted his wife	wanting. Shall we ever learn to disre- gard a person's occupation, and to look	of this kind, and every wife should do	parish of Saint Sulpice in Paris. Feeling	years ago all the grain was handled in the bushel measure ; many will be glad	misled by that vague term genius. Far be it from me to deny that some are born	stream which must be crossed. A ferry-	cape observation. His broad, bent form, his immense hat, his large, cagle like proach to thatersonal ort of conversa-	was one fitted up as a workshop, where;	only at the character and soul?" Ned shrugged his shoulders dubiously.	the same for her husband. Don't in- fringe on each other's little Saturday af-	a vocation to the monastic life, he spent two years in the novitiate of the Carmél-	to learn how it is handled now. I pro-	with loftier capacities, quicker percep-	"What is your charge?" asked the	features are always noticeable. His
tion which rates to be and matri- mony.	as he said, he was accustomed to indulge his love for mechanical work, after hav-	Mainwell added	ternoon; reverence each other's pleas-	ite Gonvent of Lyons, then joined that order, and at once produced a sensation	one of the great devators by which this	others; yet I think what is best in a hin.	"One dollar, sir."	weakness is for chewing tobacco and telling storics. There is no such story
And now t find Mr Mainwe this morning, with is coat of and assith's	ing, as he assured her, regularly served his time at learning a trade.			by his brilliant sermons. He preached	is accomplished as my memory willenable me. The produce of the great West is	cy Of the three desidedly most wife A	stream till I can find a crossing place."	teller in the land. Such laughable yarns as he spins are not easily put in print; apron on, engaed in meding p .sk ! He was doing i publicly. The liek was	Mrs. Mainwell stood and looked at him intently.	SATURDAY AFTERNOON.	garden, because he thought it was a		so enormous that it requires enormous	and brilliant young men I have known	"Are you hard up?" asked the ferry- man.	The only lounging place he has is in the office of the New York Weekly, for on the door the led to theniddle the	"This is your house ?" she asked. "Yes, madam."	It is our opinion that every human being needs to have some one thing in which	waste of time. We have seen a wife im- patient of the botanic specimens, bugs	and In the summer of the same year went to Paris, when, at the Church of	buchale of arriver biob and page in attended.	tremens, another sunk into an early grave.	"I'm dead broke," was the despond- ing reply.	which paper he contributes weekly arti-
front piazza were the fashing blics and gentlemenwore sitting propond-	"And you are not poor, but rich ?".	ho takes pleasure for itself alone not as	or butterflies, that littered a husband's study. We knew a good, consciontious	Madeleine, and later at Notre Dame, he	After several destructive fires, which	respected, but also a victim of alcoholic stimulation; and a third, though hardly	"Jump in; I'm not the man to send a	cles. When the lecture season is at hand-
His back was towards hoas sheap-	"You speak the truth, Mrs. Mainwell." "And why did you play this jest upon	In old times, when children were strict- ly schooled and ruled, Saturday after-	mother who tumbled her son's mineral-		of gentlemen determined to build an ele-	thirty, is to day a vagabond and a cum berer of the ground, to whom it would be	fellow adrift;" and with a few vigorous strokes they were soon in the middle of	dollars a year from lecturing, and as proached, leaving on the model hor friend. Anna West. She ecound	me ?" "To see whether you really loved me	noon was the children's perquisitetheir	these people were either, cruel or bad-	greatest living pulpit orators, not only of	vator that should be fire-proof; the Niagara was the result. It is almost	yers upperte to land a dallas All theme	the stream.	much from his newspaper work. Al- ways cheerful, genial, witty, and kind, him, looked intently at him give her	for my own sake." "Ah, pretty, indeed + And suppose	little puculium. Then they did what they pleased. At all other times, they did	hearted, but they had never considered the sacred right of over human being to	France but of the whole Christian world was undisputed in any quarter. No	wholly composed of stone, brick and iron, inside and out The tall structure there	really achieved decided success in their	looking earnest in his face, asked-"Is	he is liked exceedingly by his circle of friends. Perhaps some of our readers tompanion over to a participang state whe	you don't love me ?"	as they were bid. Grown children need something cor-	a play spell.	great journal of this country or of Eu-	all elevators known as the 'tower' is ex-	better days; they could be industrious and efficient if they would, and for		will remember the publicity that was
o him. "Do you like that sort of wrk, Ir.	"But I do." "Humph !"	responding to this. They need time when they let off the strain of the dread-	one have their own Saturday afternoon.	the brilliant oratory of Father Hya-	tremely liable to take fire, on account of the accumulation of dust, which is dry	months at a time were so; but they had not the true purpose, or they could not	"Didn't your father belong to the	given a little time ago to the marriage of one of his daughters, who had become Mainwell?" she asked.	So there was a little family quarrel on the spot.	ful MUST something which they can do or leave undone at pleasure, but which	a bit of pure pleasure is not a thing to	tilled the world-with amazement, Father.	and highly inflammable. This tower has eight iron floors, reached by an iron,	have faltered and fallen as they did. good, they would never have been thus	church in B street?" "Yes."	noted. She was as handsome as he is am a natural mechanic."	"_ "Now invite your father and mother to come and see us," said Mr. Mainwell,	they do for pure love of it.	be despised Hearth and Howe .	part of the Christian world.	spiral stairway., The side walls are with- out openings. The foundations are stone	Had they lived-less-to-self- and	"I thought so; and with that he drew from his pocket a bag, and commenced this."	after the clouds had cleared away, some-	What this thing is varies with charac- ter. With somoit is purclougling-sitting	PERE HYACINTHE IN AMERICA. Father Hyacinthe arrived at New	Father Hyncinthe, according to Jus	and brick; the superstructure iron. The	deserted by their guardian angels. I know there is a small class of whom	counting out gold pieces. "I have made five hundred dollars by ferrying passen-	The age of the world is one of the most abtruse problems
"It is my trade," he replieding from his work and turning to he	"I will," she replied, "I will. But	in a state of quiescent enjoyment of sun- shine and nature. Wordsworth calls it	York on Monday morning, on the steam-		main building is 125 by 130 feet, the walls resting upon piles driven to the solid-	the world says, 'they see the heart of things by intuiton; they are poets from	gers; here are three hundred of them	which science can attack. Sir Wm. Thompson has tried to apply mathema-trade !" she said faintly.	first you must go with me to see them, and to pacify them in view of what we	"The harvest of a onict eve?"	er Periere from Havre. At the same time we have from the French papers	come so conspiciously known, the French	roc'. The bins, which contain an enor- mous weight when full, rest upon inde-	impulse only; orators, statesmen, critics, sages, because nature would have it so:	for you. You can pay me when you are flush; or, if that don't happen, then	tics to its solution, using three different - methods. His first method is from cal-
	have done."	as the murmur of brooks.	letters from the Superior of the Bare- fonted Carnalitas to Father Hyzeinthe	papers, with what fruth we have not yet learned, publish some interesting partie-	pendent foundations. There are 192 solid	I beg leave to doubt that men of this	all right. You think I'm crazy per-	eulation of the internal temperature of

"Yes, with what fully  $2^{(1)}_{2}$ , appears to have  $3^{(1)}_{2}$ , and  $1^{(2)}_{2}$ , appears to have  $3^{(2)}_{2}$ . The second data is single appearing the indiversal in the second data is single appearing the indiversal interval in the second data is from the second data is ion attacked by illness. Father Hyaown gravity into boats, or cars, or other facility of rapid and brilliant executions, the displeasure of his order, though they the displeasure of his order, though they einthe confined himself at first entirely, bins. Grain keeps best in wood, so the as the result of past study and acquire-The glorifled patron saint of all loafers, the divine Wordsworth, has settled this toward the Church of which he has been within the limits of the instructions matter for all his followers in two given him by his superiors; the comuch a distinguished member. It scenis mencement of his discourse was cold wise. The centre bins are 73 feet deep, that there has been no actual interferand unimpassioned, and failed to excite and those under the lowest part of the ence with his preaching, and no formal any enthusiasm in his audience; sudden What splendid loafing was done in all complaint that in the pulpit at any rate roof, 52 feet. An iron ladder is built that lake region, as he wandered in a he was at all heterodox. But he has rely, however, he followed his own inspirainto one corner of each to enable a man tion, and uttered an eloquent apostrophe peatedly been found fault with during the past five years for letters, addresses, present assembly and in the Church, &c.,' to political and other clubs, and asand on the universal selfishness which remonstrance seems to have had no efprevailed in its place. This latter porfect, the general of the Carmelites at tion of his discourse caused no little sur last forbade him to publish any letters or No wonder men looked on his poetry discourses, to deliver any address, exprise, and was the subject of much comment. In a second sormon he announced meeting not strictly religious and Catho- quite plainly a preference for morality olic. It was on receipt of this order that the 'world," he said, "and have every-Father Hyacinthe determined to leave the where found only germs of intelligence onveut, and wrote the letter which ha, and atoms of understanding. I have encauseô so much stir: tered the cloister, and have there buly FR. DOMINIQUE DE SAINT JOREPH. met with abortive saints." The Arch-Father Hyacinthe is at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, were he will remain in secluthis sermon preached, and was highly offended at it. In the first burst of his visit Boston and Washington. At the expiration of his two months visit to indignation he sent for Father Hysointhe, to the bright skies and rainbow woods of this country ho will proceed to Rome to and forbade him to preach in any church America, as to the showery green re- seek admission to the Ecumenical Coun- of his diocese. The urgent representagions of the English lakes. Hawthorne cil. He brought letters of introduction tions of the highest society in Lyons induced him to withdraw this prohibition to Goneral Dix and Rev. Henry Ward Beccher, and is a personal friend of the Re again sont for Father Hyacinthe. and the poet character of his short pieces post Longfellow, and other distinguished in a mild and uncommonly forbearing through a public elevator to be passed post Longfellow, and other distinguished manner, but before him the harm he through the cleaner, if not already clean, there is, we can truly mean only that we would do to the Church if he yent on speak the English language. Fernando Wood was fellow passenger with us violent attack upon it. Father and extended many attentions to him flyacinthe could not resist this friendly uring the voyage, which was very agree. | address, and promised to control himself able and pleasant. in future, It was not intil lately that A number of visitors called during the he found hinself unable to keep this day to pay their respects to the great promise any longer. reacher, but only asfew had the pleas-Father Hyacinthe has taken a bold nre of being admitted. The father was step. Still wishing to remain a Roman

future time; consider how Demosthenes made himself an orator against a host of

'Sire.'

HAVE RISEN.

"What the dence are you about a ?" house and stopped. "Where the deuce are you taking me?" he exclaimed to Mr. Mainwell, 1h, he added, when the latter turn and asked Mainwell, looking sharply at his glanced at him. '"But while 1 are wife. here you might as well enjoy you f."

Mr. Mainwell excused himselfrom joining the party, and they wentray, leaving him to finish his work. Miss Ellsworth left him withoany word at parting.

"It is well," he muttered to headf. "If she cannot take me as I am, s is not worthy of me. The woman ant, marries me must take me for myself

He stood and looked after her untiso had disappeared. She did not once ra to look back. He gave his shoulders a shrug, m pressed his lip, uttered a cyical "humph I" and turned to finish his ho kept his hat, which certainly was full half a dozeń years old. work.

"Let her go," he muttered, who his was through and was putting on hiseat "I thought perhaps that I had foul." woman after my own heart. Aulst parties.

this world of wealth and fashion shha lost her soul. Let her go." out speaking. - 8

He avoided her thereafter. He dnot beek to catch her eye for a bow of og-nition. When she entered a dring room where he was, he would go o by inother way. But he was morean ever in the company of Ned Whiter

Ned, in passing to and fro betweenss

Ellsworth and him, served still as art place?" of link between them.

"You are a cynical fellow," said d, ne day: "Why don 't you takne cople as they are? You will find od nough in them." "But they wont take me as in That is the trouble.'

"Pooh ! 'You see yourself thate llows no other suitors to accordy or. Do n't you see she is alone o he other girls the most of the time

"Her heart is full of vanity."-"Pshaw! She is trained to lux notions ; that 's all."

Mainwell's trunk was awaiting and the stage, outside, on the plaz 'he time this conversation was go on the trunk were his initials, " Miss Ellsworth, passing that wa the initials-not by chance, for sh bon very busy sorutinizing the shat lay together in a pile-and he saw the initials she starte urned pale. She recovered herse withdrew with her companion way, and then stood still and sontly Mr. Mainwell came Ned upon the piazza. He eliRID turn his eyes toward her, and not-met for the first time sin oft him while he was at work 4 look. The ice was broken. broached her to bid her good by What the conversation was sued between the two; when the loft alone by means of Ned's in at in spiriting away the rest of the sp ay, is unknown, save the follow-"But I am a locksmith." "No matter." "Are you willing to live as ione who with his hands ear read ?" "I am willing to und o be with you. I have suf During these last few days

i int

stanzas: "Come and see," was her reply as she "Content if he may but enjoy proceeded to step from the carriage. The things that others understand "Here, wait." he exclaimed after his hesitancy; "let me get out first and help you out. What does this mean?' sort of illuminated fog, trailing clouds of glory after him ! How gool and fresh "Follow me," was her reply. and dewy he made the hot sultry air of

She led him up stairs-up, up, through English literature, which had become throngs, and dirt, and smells, to the close and sweltering with Byron brimfourth story. Here she opened a door without knocking, and the two entered. stone 1 The woman was dressed neatly, and so as a new evangel, and quoted it with cept in church, or to take part in any were the children, but they were all dressed very poorly, in keeping with the tears in their eyes, for there was in it the place. The man was clad more carelessvery rest and repose which the hot, weary turbulence of modern life made necesly, and even more poorly. On his head Sary.

Wordsworth was and still is the poet "My husband, Mr. Mainwell ; my of repose and peace, as needful now as father and mother, brothers and sisters," when he wrote. He is, to be sure, essentially English in his details. It is an said Mrs. Mainwell, introducing all English landscape, English trees, and sion, it is said, for ten days, and will then English flowers he presents; but the

Mr. Mainwell stood and stared withspirit of his poetry applies equally well "Ask their pardon, George," said Mrs. Mainwellen for running away with

"Who are they ?" was a follower of Wordsworth in spirit.

"Have I not told you ; didn't I in His prose is essential poetry, and it is roduce yoù ?" that gives the never dying charm to "Who were they I saw at the watering them, and will make them immortal as far as the English language is immortal. "Some wealthy people who had seen me at the milliner's where I sewed for a Dr. Holmes has, in "Elsie Venner," paslivelihood-served at my trade, Georgesages which show that, even his subtle, moreurial temperament had felt the and who fancied my appearance, dressed charm of his silent, quiescent state of me up, and took me there with them !"

"You jest with mo," he said with baptism into nature. Brilliant as he is ghastly smile. in social circles, it is evident, from some "Do I? do I. indeed? These people of his writings that he has been for many hours of his life a hushed and silent listener and pupil, a passive reseem to recognize me as a daughter and as a sister, jest, indeed ! You will find ceiver and believer of Wordworth's docthat out." "You are too cultured, too tasteful, trine: "Nor less i deem that there are p we too fine featured !!" Which of 'hensely soor minds in press, That we can feed this mind of 10,00 "All this a milliner may be, or a sow ing girl. Look for yourself among the In's wise passiveness, class. Is it not true? All that we girls and bear it.

Think you in all this nighty sum need is dress." That nothing of itself will com-, Mainwell lifted his fist and dashed

But we must still be seeking !." The resting grounds of minds how through the air. He ground his teeth. and turning away left the room, slamever, must, be various; but we think ming the door violently behind him, mon and women more and more wear

His wife took off her hat and cloak out for want of them. When, O busy friend ! hot with the and flung herself down at the table and Wall street chase, when do you get a buried her face in her handkerchief. The door opened again, and Mainwell Saturday afternoon ?-and where do you put in his head. play? Where, poor, dear mothers of a" "You have deceived me," he said, little comfortable play ground ? These "but come-you are my wife-I will try noisy, bright, romping crowding boys She sprang to her feet and confronted and girls, who, every one of them, press upon you and leave you not a moment

"Your wife, am I?"- she exclaimed o yourself, have they each a favorite 'Your wife, and doomed to live with ittle amusement or solace. Tina and Bessie have their dolls and haby houses one who does not love her, but was in -Tom and Jack their boats and railroad love with her circumstance! No sir: you may go. I will not live a wife un cars-your collegian his cigar and his newspaper-your daughter her embroidloved for myself-you must take me thus ery and music. What have you? Is be soon his dying bed) sent a stirring or I will stay. Still I can work." there a moment anywhere sacred to your letter to the "liberal priests and laymen He closed the door and retired dow own private peculiar pleasure? What is of Germany, exhorting them to have cour the stairs to the street, clonching his your Saturday afternoon? What thing hands and his teeth as he went. "The horrid disgrace of it," he mutdo you do purely for the pleasure it gives, tered.! "The derision that will be my not as a duty.

would soon be lost in senseless triumph lot. And then to marry such a girl !" Some mothers have their reading, of a fanatical bigotism." Father Hya But at the street door he tarried. 'He which leads to late hours. When every cinthe expresses his adn tration of the had a struggle with himself there all gay head in the hive is on its pillow, and wise and moderate words of the German d alone. Suddenly he turned and dashed i the clock ticks in the still house, then i ishops lately assembled at Fulda, which greatly fatigned by the voyage and de- Catholic, he has defied the orders of his ired to retire at an early hour. Superior General. Father Hyacinthe is entirely frank Boston, October 18-The pastors of the about his intentions and his present situs: Evangelical churches in Boston and viation, Ho desires it to be understood cinity, at a meeting yesterday, appointthat he is still a Roman Catholie. He ed a committee to confer with Father has never been, he says, an Ultramontane; Hyacinthe and make suitable arrange is not now, and never will be. But he ments for extending to him a public re denies that there is any reason for identiception, if such a step is doemed advis_ fying Ultramontanism with the Catholic able. irch. He indulges the firm hope that the Council will not, as is commonly-anticipated, consolidate the Ultramontant theories and constitute them the creed of the Church; but that, on the contrary, it will leave the door wide open for those who, like himself, have been throughout t is a great deal cizier tew be a good love than a decent sament. life the devoted champions, of al more liberal construction of the Catholie doe great family of boys and girls, is your trines, and who in particular, have de fended the entire harmony between the Christian religion and the great achievements of the civilization of the nineèenth contury. Natur is a kind mother. She couldn' Father Hyacinthe expressly declare wel afford to make us perfekt, and so his full concurrences in the sentiments of she made us blind to our feelings. Father Lacordaire, who die l, according Study the heart if you want to learn to his own words, "an impenitent liberal and of Count Montalembert, who recently "natur in a man's hed." from his sick bed. (which he expects to Friendship is simply the gallantry of f-interest.

Beware ov the man with half shut eyes-h6'ain't dreaming. age, as without the courageous profession One of the safest and most successful of the liberal Catholics the "Church allents I kno, ov is to be a good listner

Fools are the whetstones Better make a weak man your enemy lian your friend. Curiosity is the instinct of wisdom.

to examine the grain or sweep out the on the want of brotherly love in the dust when empty, or for any other parimile of manuscript page of Byron's poems, and mark the numerous erasures pose. The valves for discharging grain nd interlineations, arguing slow compoare plainly marked by registered numsition and a puzzled brain, and note well bers, and are opened or shut in the lower that the man who writes a poem, a serstory, information being conveyed by mon, an elaborate review, an eration in speaking tubes throughout the building day; he has been many years acquiring to those in charge of the various depart- that facility, and you will agree with ments. The boiler and engine which set me that the vulgar supposition that some over dogma. "I have wandered over in motion the ponderous machinery are are so gifted by nature that they may in a separate, fire-proof building, away achieve distinction without effort, is confrom any danger from sparks. Some of tradicted by a thousand facts where it the grain is shamefully dirty-a disgrace seems sustained by one. My sometime: to the growers. Bometimes the cwners friend, who perished miserably of delicof such grain contract to have it run bishop of brons, Cardinal Bonald, heard through the cleaner, with which every um tremens, often affected to write without labor; yet I happen to know, from perfect clovator is furnished. In this one his intimate family connections, that he the dirt is driven by a powerful blast repeatedly shut himself-up for months through a sheet iron pipe, two feet in and devoted his whole energies to study. diameter, and discharged into the river. In these periods of hibernation the spark-Tons of a good manurial substance and ling effusions which he seemed to dash off some grain are thus wasted, though many inspromptu, after his return to society, weed seeds are got rid of. There should | had essentially their origin, be a law requiring all grain passed At all evenis, he'sure there is no chance in the universe; and when we say before being offered for sale.

are ignorat of the relation of cause and Now let us suppose that a vessel full of dilect in that instance. All things are grain has arrived. The steamer upon governed by law, from the falling of an which I am new sailing up Lake Erre, valanche to the growth a violet. the Dean Richmond, is capable of carry- said an envious courtier, to whom Louis ing 38,000 bushels of wheat. Imagine, XIV. was praising one of his generals if you can; the labor of transferring such | who had just achieved a brilliant triumph, a cargo, by the old process, with pails, Sire, Marshal Villars, is very lucky, tubs, half bushel measures bags, hands, 'Lucky, sir?' promptly responded the shouldors, caris, and horses. Noy, as grand monarque, Marshal Villars Jucky, soon as the hatches are off a signal is did you say? No, sir I He is a great given to the engineer, and directly the deal more than that !..... nachinery of the tower begins to rumble, A true and noble success is within th and a ponderous iron case rises, until reach of every human being who rightly high enough to swing its foot out over apprehends and will diligently seek it the hatchway. Another signal, and down It may very well be quite other than the it drops into the pile of grain. This is the aspirant meditatos-it may even seem de leg, and contains a belt of iron buckets | foat to the superficial observer-but God which scoop up the grain and carry it into still reigns, and no heroic and unselfish the first story of the tower. There it is aim can ever be really defeated. If fiv poured into the hopper of a Meighing, thousand aspire to fill the Presidentia machine gauged exactly for 100 bushels. | chair, it is very cortain that all cannot

The moment the scale turns a man in have precisely that outward and visible I judge a-man's virtey bi his pashum charge stops the supply and opens a valve stamp of success they covet; but, were t the bottom, which lets out the grain they fifty thousand and their aspiration while he makes a score. Then he closes the rather essential than circumstantial, to abandoned. Looking at this little waif, lower valve, and opens the upper, re. enlighten and bless their countrymen the merchant in the store promptly said: peating the operation so often that 7.- rather than rule them, there is ample 000 bushels an hour are thus weighed. work and scope for them all, One may sides he's too small." I know he is As fast as it falls from the scale hopper be privileged to teach thousands to loathe indolence, frivolity, display and vice, it is taken up by another elevating belt. and emptied into a receiver at the top of and love ... industry, sobriety, modesty, in the boy's eyes, which made the merthe tower, whence it runs to any part of virtue, while another inculcates the same the building. If it has to be cleaned it lesson only in a narrow, seeluded neighis reweighed and loss charged, as well borhood, unpraised, unsung, unchronias a small charge for cleaning. The eled, save in the books of the recording quantity, quality, and owner's name of angel. The scope of influence in these But after consultation the boy was set the wheat in each hin is registered, the two cases is different, but the measure of to work. elevator proprietors being responsible essential success is the same. Whenver

'A few days after a call was made, en for the contents. The grain is sold by | has learned to find delight in doing good, | the boys in the store for some one to re sample, but can be readily inspected and and and in nothing inconsistent therewithmain all night. The prompt response of quantity ascertained by visiting the hin. to whatever good is within his reach, and the little fellow contrasted well' with the If the grain heats, it, in immediately not repine that his opportunities are such reluctance of others .... In the middle of transforred to other bins, the operation only as Henven has been pleased to the night the merchant looked to see if giving it a thorough airing. As the floor voucheafe him can never esteen his life all was right in the store, and presently in bones, which gives Apployment to of the bins is 20 feet above the level of a failure. Should sickness or causality discovered his little protege busy scissorthe ground, it will readily be seen how | confine him for years to a bed of suffer. ing labels. " What 'are you doing ?" Those who become disguisted and withe casily canal boats or cars can be une ing and dependence, he will thenceforth said he ; fildul not tell you; to work where it was to come from; and as long occan's tides and the earth's movement as I live, if I have only a crust, when I bins are made of planks six to ten inches ment, in fact, I know of such instances; have the biggest half." on its axis, and as the calculating back find one of his sons in want, he shall of celipses proves, has taken place-if the earth has been gradually losing ve-The loan was gratefully accepted; by written that day to be read through all locity on its axis, we can calculate back its aid the traveller was able to reach to the time when its velocity would have San Francisco, earn enough to pay this been so great as to overcome centripetal benefactor, and return safely to his home. natural impediments; examine a fac force on the equator. This will give an

This story, with the exception of the extreme limit beyond which time the name, is a true one, related by the trav- earth could not have existed. A third eler himself, illustrating the preceptmeasure of the age of the earth is drawn Cast thy bread upon the water, for from the nature of the sun. It has for thou shalt find it after many days .--ages been giving out heat ; and it can American Agriculturist. be proved that, while the sun may have emitted heat for 100,000,000 years, it

When we are considering the health of cannot have done so for 500,000,000. A hildren, says a writer in The Methodist, writer in The North British Review, com t is imperative not to forget the imporbining these different lines of argument ance of keeping the brain fallow, as it comes to the conclusion that some 10cere, for several of the first years of 000,000, or 15,000,000 years is all that their existence. The mischief penetra- can be allowed the geologist for the sucted by a contrary course, is the shape of cession of life that has existed on the bad health, provish temper, and devel- globe, and that the assumption of Lyoped vanity is incurable. Some infant ell, Huxley, and others of hundreds of rodigy, which is a standard of mischief millions cannot be allowed by the more through its neighorhood, misleads them. exact methods of mathematics and nat-But parents may be assured that this ural philosophy.

early work is not, by any means, all gain -----even in the way of work. I suspect it is WEALTH. a loss, and that children who begin their education late, as it would be called, will One great cause of the poverty of the present day is the failure of the common rapidly overtake those who have been people to appreciate small things. They in harness long before them. And what advantage can it be that a child knows feel that if they cannot save large sums they will not save anything. They do more at six years old than its compeers. specially if this is to be gained at a sac not realize how a daily addition, he it. ever so small, will soon make a large rifice of health that may never be repile. If the young men and young gained ? There may be some excuse for women of to-day will only begin and this early book work in the case of those hildren who are to live by manual la begin now, to save a little of their earnbor. It is worth while, perhaps to run ings, and plant it in the soil of some the risk of some physical injury to them, good savings bank, and workly or monthly add their mite, they will wear aving only their early years in which we can teach them book knolwedge. The a happy smile of confidence and indepenshance of mischief, too, will be less, be dence when they reach middle life. Not only the pile itself will increase, but the ing more likely to he counteracted by desire and ability to increase it will also their after life, what folly it is to exhaust in the least its montal energy, grow. Let clerk and tradesman, laborat which, after all, is its surest implement and artisan make now and at once a beginning. Store up some of your youthful force and vigor for future contingency. HOW SOME OF OUR MERCHANTS Let parents teach their children to begin early to save. Begin at the fountain A few years ago a large drug firm in head to control the stream of extrava this city advertised for a boy. Next gance, and then work will be easy. To day the store was thronged with applichoose between spending and saving cants, among them a queer looking litis to choose batween poverty and riches. tle fellow, accompanied by a woman Let our youth go on in habits of exwho proved to be his aunt. in lieu of travagance for fifty years to come, as faithless parents, by whom he had been they have for fifty years past, and we shall be a nation of beggars with a tage monoyed aristocracy. Let a generation "Can't take him ; places all full ; be such as save in small sums be reared. and we shall be free from want. Do not small, said the women, " but he is willbe ambitious for extravagant fortunes, ing and faithful." There was a twinkle but do seek that which is the duty of every one to obtain-independence and a chant think again. A partner in the comfortable home. Wealth and enough firm volunteered to remark that he '" did s within the reach of all. It is obtaine not see what they wanted of such a boy, by one process and by one only-saving. he wasn't bigger than a pint of cider.

Ignatius Donnelly has been making speeches in Minnesota against protective ariff.

A girl of the period in Detroit prome ades the streets in a "plug" hat, and carries a cane. Jackson. Tennessee, has glarge trade umbers of people. The meeting of Congress is approache ing. Speaker Baine is in Washington.

and a second the second share the second state of the second second second second second second second second s . . .

natur; there ain't no human

Thar are menny ways to find out ho rave and how honest a man may be, but thar ain't no way to find out the extent of his vanity. A lie is like a cat-it never comes you in a straight line.

BILLINGS'S BEST,

Mon mourn for what they have lostimmin for what they hain't got.