

The Carlisle Herald.

CARLISLE, NOVEMBER 5, 1860.

Coal is getting dearer.

Overcoats are in demand.

Court begins next week.

Chestnuts are abundant.

The squares are full of leaves.

The farmers are hucking corn.

The Court House roof is finished.

Everybody talks about the cold.

The velocipeude nuisance continues.

The Soldiers' Monument still progresses.

College street is opened to the Walnut bottom road.

On Saturday morning last, Mr. Lewis

Bush, of the firm of Gorham & Bush, travelling merchants, Carlisle, met with an accident at Bridgeport.

In the lifting of his goods at that place, Mr.

Bush attempted to complete a cart—his foot was caught in the trap, and somehow his foot was torn from the track, he, however, landed with his head over it, literally smashing it to atoms.

Mr. Rutherford, of Harrisburg, was sent for, and after removing him to the United States hotel, the foot was amputated, leaving the heel portion remaining. Bush is doing as well as can be expected under the circumstances, and is attended by the Old Fellows of Harrisburg, of which one is a member.

Mr. B. has the sympathy of the entire community, and was one of the most obliging railroad men we knew.

That sterling old Republican paper,

the Bucks and Schuylkill Journal, thus kindly notices us:

"The Carlisle HERALD, a time honored visitor, is brightening up with increasing years." The last two issues showed an "improvement in its paper." In its head, next to the compliment,

We were gratified to find the editorial program for some years, we found on our return to the reading room longer, brighter, and more alive than even when we were accustomed to regard it as one of the best of our exchanges.

Excessors, administrators! and gnatship agents, to be presented at the next Orphans' Court, or before the third day of November next.

John B. Dugligh, esq., member elect of the Legislature from this county, was surprised by his friends some time since,

when he made quite an elaborate speech, it is very creditable practice, and it doubtless astonished a good many of Mr. L's neighbors who had not heretofore supposed that he was much skillful in making it.

The annual election for directors of the Farmers' Bank took place on Monday last, when the following were elected:

Thomas Paxton, A. J. Herman, Wm. H. Miller,

John W. Craig, head, Abram Witmer, and

John C. Heikes.

The following named gentleman have been reelected officers of the Bank:

President, Robert Given; Cashier, J. C. Hofer; Tellers, W. M. Ogilby.

A young man named Abraham Tyson, aged 17 years, left his father's home at

Norristown, Pa., October 1, 1859, and has not been heard of since. His parents are very anxious for his return, or any information as to his whereabouts, and would gladly welcome him home.

Hallow Eve fell on Sunday last, much to the disappointment of that large class of smart fellows who see lots of fun in mischief. Saturday night was substituted by those who were bound to have sport, but the fun would have been doubled, if not trebled, if he had not been soothed, like a baby, in bed, by the arrival of his mother.

A terrible and distressing affair enclosed in town on Tuesday, the result of negligence. In leaving school, he around. A little girl, aged about six years, daughter of Mrs. Eaton, had been sick for some days, but was far from recovered as to be able to sit up in bed.

Doctors were immediately summoned, and every thing possible was done for the little sufferer, but all to no avail.

He was hurriedly sent to Dr. Bush, and died on the way to the hospital.

He was buried on Wednesday morning, when he died.

Approved of the union between the two branches of the Presbyterian church, on the basis submitted by the General Assemblies of said churches; and whereas we have no sufficient reason to believe that such a union will be consonant to their respective interests.

Resolved, Unanimously, that we will do all we can to render such union a great and permanent and glorious success.

Presbyterian refused to release Rev. J. W. Wrightson, who had been called to St. Joseph, Mo., his people opposing his removal. He remains at Greenfield and Waynesboro. Since last meeting, Mr. W. H. Hills has been ordained and installed pastor at Gettysburg. Mr. A. P. Kelso was ordained in August, as an evangelist, and his name sailed for India. A church has been organized, in most exigent circumstances, in Buck Valley, Fulton county.

Rev. Mr. Rankin was appointed his removal.

He remains at Greenfield and Waynesboro.

In the lifting of his goods at that place, Mr. Bush attempted to complete a cart, and somehow his foot was torn from the track, he, however, landed

with his head over it, literally smashing

it to atoms.

Mr. Rutherford, of Harrisburg, was sent for, and after removing him to the United States hotel, the foot was amputated, leaving the heel portion remaining. Bush is doing as well as can be expected under the circumstances, and is

attended by the Old Fellows of Harrisburg, of which one is a member.

Mr. B. has the sympathy of the entire community, and was one of the most

obliging railroad men we knew.

That sterling old Republican paper,

the Bucks and Schuylkill Journal, thus

kindly notices us:

"The Carlisle HERALD, a time honored

visitor, is brightening up with increasing

years." The last two issues showed an

"improvement in its paper." In its

head, next to the compliment,

We were gratified to find the editorial program for some years, we found on our

return to the reading room longer,

brighter, and more alive than even when we were accustomed to regard it as one of the best of our exchanges.

Excessors, administrators! and gnat-

ship agents, to be presented at the next Orphans' Court, or before the third day of November next.

John B. Dugligh, esq., member elect of the Legislature from this county, was

surprised by his friends some time since,

when he made quite an elaborate

speech, it is very creditable practice,

and it doubtless astonished a good many of Mr. L's neighbors who had not heretofore supposed that he was much

skillful in making it.

The annual election for directors of the Farmers' Bank took place on Monday

last, when the following were elected:

Thomas Paxton, A. J. Herman, Wm. H. Miller,

John W. Craig, head, Abram Witmer, and

John C. Heikes.

The following named gentleman have been reelected officers of the Bank:

President, Robert Given; Cashier, J. C. Hofer; Tellers, W. M. Ogilby.

A young man named Abraham Tyson,

aged 17 years, left his father's home at

Norristown, Pa., October 1, 1859, and has not been heard of since. His parents

are very anxious for his return, or any

information as to his whereabouts, and

would gladly welcome him home.

Hallow Eve fell on Sunday last, much

to the disappointment of that

large class of smart fellows who see

lots of fun in mischief. Saturday night was substituted by those who were

bound to have sport, but the fun would

have been doubled, if not trebled, if he had not been soothed, like a baby,

in bed, by the arrival of his mother.

The Second Presbyterian Church Parsonsage requested a meeting of the congregation to be held in the parsonage, on Saturday evening, October 25, 1860, at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of discussing the question of the propriety of the separation of the congregation.

The meeting was opened with a few words of welcome by the pastor.

After a few words of welcome by the pastor, the meeting was opened with a few words of welcome by the pastor.

After a few words of welcome by the pastor,

the meeting was opened with a few words of welcome by the pastor.

After a few words of welcome by the pastor,

the meeting was opened with a few words of welcome by the pastor.

After a few words of welcome by the pastor,

the meeting was opened with a few words of welcome by the pastor.