							Since second more an unanormalist a second second statement of the DRY COGES.				TNT			ant bit wollie foreitat. Stallauft district.	N-N
Tents dor						alt Fland Andrew Andr	n - 20	in lange the second second
							The state of the second st	A ATAL TARDO GHT KI MULARDA Mag
SULPHI CRAYD CRATTE						The second se	-co)	Land Contraction Contraction (Contraction of the Contraction of the Co
A SE STRAKTEV )			CARLISLE, PENM	VA, THURSDAY, DE	CEMBER 23, 1869.	a an	n dianier companier 🧼 v completer 👘	TIRMS: IN ADVARUE,
J. M. WEAKLEY. ] J. M. WALLACE. }						The second se	arrested for forgery. Never, shall I for-	There is a good deal of tailing in Phil-
VIOTORY OF BLENHEIM.	PEN - PICTURES OF -PRETTY PANTALOONATICS:	CHINESE FUNERAL. Ah Poy, a Chinese morchant, died in	GEORGE PEABODT. The New York Sun is responsible for	FAUNTLEROY, THE FORGER. BY WILLIE COLLINS.	me had been received. I was looking	ceeding. I could hardly believe in it mysolf. I opened the safe and looked at the house motor again. I locked it oute	get the terrible Monday morning when those tidings reached me, and when I	adelphie, among the brokersabouts cer-
It was a summer overlag, , Old Kaspar's work was done, And he befere his cottage door	There are some very pretty faces at the meetings of the Womans's Suffrage	San Francisco a few days ago. The	the following : It has been contended by some of our	What I am going to tell you, gentle- men, happened when I was a very young	ing about going when one of my clerks	table in a fury of vexation against my-	knew that the partner was Mr. Fauntle-	overblirdened with millions, 1, 513, 515,77
Was sitting in the sun, and by him sported on the green	Society, on Twenty-third Street, their talk to the contrary notwithstanding.	gular ceremonies of his funeral: , While the bells were ringing, and only	ablest thinkers that the greatest amount of good done in the world has been be-	man, and when I was just setting up in business on my own account.	to see me immediately on very important business.	self. There the money was, upbraiding me with my own-inconceivable folly,	I was true to him -I can honestly say I was true to my belief in my generous	the old man could not bear an idler, and many were the quarrely between His little grandchild Wilhelmine. She saw her brother Peterkin	Mrs. Blake is pretty. She has spark- ling, prominent, gray eyes, with dark	mourners came out in the street. Then	stowed by bachelors. Whether this be true or not, we often wonder that many	My father had been well acquainted for many years with Mr. Fauntleroy, of	"Did he mention his name?" I in-	telling me in the plainest terms, that I had risked depriving myself of my best,	friend-when that fearful news reached me. My fellow morchants had got all	them. w, et al.6 grant , gold o filw grant At last, the old way, duite out of the
Rofl something large and round, Which he beside the rivulet In playing there had found ;	brown hair. She is pleasant in her man- ner, easy in her speech, frequently. hu-	the sidewalk, draned with red, white,	men, famous for their kindness of heart, and generosity of disposition, should re-	the famous London Sanking firm of Marsh, Stracey, Fauntleroy & Graham.	"No, sir." "Did you ask him for it?"	and kindest friend henceforth and for-	me that two of Mr. Fauntleroy's fellow.	tien de said a contra the the said of the
He came to ask what he had found, That was so large, and smooth, and round.	morous, and always pointed. When		main single through life. There is no more remarkable case of this sort than,	Thinking it might be of some future service to me to makemy positionknown	"Yes, 'sir. And he said you would be none the wiser if he told me what it was."	once toward making all the atonement	trustees had come up to London to make arrangements about selling out some	to make up your mind to what business
Old Kaspar took it from the boy Who steed expectant by ; An 1 while the old man shook his head,	like a marriage certificate. Her great	volues with white cowls on their heads.	that of the late George Peabody. It is said that in his history there is a romance that perhaps has nover yet been made	to a great man in the commercial world, my father mentioned to his highly re- spected friend that I was about to start	"Does he look like a begging letter writer."	that lay in my power. I felt that, as soon as I began to cool down a little,	stock. On inquiring for Mr. Fauntleroy at the banking house, they had been in-	be a lounger, and go to work you shall.
And with a natural sigh, " Tis some poor fellow's skull," said he,	lighted, so she said, that she had on her host silk dress while being sketched for	heveled. Several of them wept in a	public.	in business for myself in a very small	"He spoke sharp and decided, sir, and said it was in your interest that he came,	way now left out of the scrape in which	formed that he was not there; and, after leaving a message for him, they had gone	mode ad the state film states and a film a
"Who fell in the great victory." "I find them in the garden.	this picture. She wants to wear trow-, sers only motaphorically, because she	genuine mannor, but the rest howled in such a way as to justify the statement	A number of years ago, when Mr. Pea- body was just entering upon his career of success as a business man, in Balti-	Fauntleroy received the intimation with a kind appearance of interest, and said	and that you would deeply regret it afterward if you refused to see him."	self. I took my hat, and without stop-	with their stock broker for a future day,	steel in my office, and work enough you'll
For there's many here about; And often when I go te plough, The ploughshare turns them out,	thinks woman's dress the most tasty in its present form. Mrs. Blake has two	were hired mourners. When the coffin	more, he met by chance, in the street, a poor girl who was but a child, but whose	that he would have his eye on me. I expected from this that he would wait	at once, then."	the bank to make a clean breast of it to	when their follow trustee might be able to attend. The stock broker volunteered	and miterio for the realized to be gove out
For many thousand mon," said he, "Wore slain in the great victory.	children and one husband. Sheas strong minded.	it several times, weeping, wailing, and	pleasing face and gentle manuer attracted his notice. Questioning her as to her	to see if I could keep on my legs at	dling sized man, with a sharp, unwhole-	Mr. Fauntleroy. When I knocked at the private door	to make certain business inquiries on the spot, with a view to saving as much time	"At the shid of the week, shirp and per-
"Now tell us what 'twas all about." Young Peterkin he cries ;	Mrs. Wilbour is pretty. She is tall' hasgray, eyes, and dresses very charm-	howed themselves with their faces to the	parentage and surroundings, he found her in every way worthy of his regard,	pretty well, he would then help me for-	reckless manner, dressed in a style of	not been at the bank for the last two	as possible, and left them at his office to await his return. He came back look-	sung.ont : Sung.ont :
And little Wilhelmine looks up With wonder waiting eyes; "Now tell us all about the war,	ingly. She is very dignified and carnest in her manner while speaking, and ad-	several hours.	and a fit subject for his benefaction. He at once adopted her ashis ward, and gave	turned out, he proved to be a far better	look, and not so over burdened with po-	there, however, and was working at that	ing very much amazed, with the infor- mation that the stock had been sold out	Bing word and another and the state of the
And what they fought each other for." "It was the English," Kasper cried,	dicted to a deal of humorous by play at the meetings, and displays much wit.	hanged three or four wide tables, and on	her-an education. As she advanced in age, her charms of person as well as the	that I had very much underrated the hearty and generous interest which he	taking off his hat when he came in. I	I sent in my name at once, and asked	to the last five hundred pounds. The affair was instantly investigated; the	a har hand langer half that had out
- Who put the French to rout ; But what they fought each other for,	She is strong minded. Mrs. Phelps is pretty. She is tall,	ferings. There were five roasted hogs- full size-with tips of tinsel on the cars	brightness of her intellect won the affec-	had felt in my welfare from the first.	and I could not form the slightest con-	than strangers to each other, and the in-	documents anthorizing the selling out was produced; and the two trustees saw	Section of the sector of the s
I could not well make out ; Nut every body said," quoth he, " That 'twas a famous victory.	large, dignified, and one of the leaders of the suffrage movements, occupying the	and wreathed about their snouts. Three	Through this relationship he had am- ple opportunity of watching her pro-	difficulties of setting up my office, and	guessing his position in the world. He	unspeakably embarassing and humilia-	on it, side by side with Mr. Fauntleroy's signature, the forged signature of their	into has many drives fruits have a Till more which the said
" My father lived at Blenholm then, Yon little stream hard by ;	position of Vice President. She is pos- sessed of some wealth, and is the propri-	occupied prominent places. Then there	gress, and day by day his affections for her grow stronger. At length as his	so forth, I got a message from Mr.	to fixing his whereabouts in the infinite	home. I could not endure the inaction	own names. This happened on Friday, and the trustces, without losing a mo- ment, sent the officers of justice in pur-	What is it, Jack ? What is it ?
They burnt his cottage to the ground, And he was forcouto fly ; So with his wife and child he field,	etor of the Twenty-third Street, headquan- ters. Her dresses are very elaborate, and she indulges in rich cloaks, shawls, and	colored candies melted and run over them in imitation of robes. They were	ward bloomed into womanhood, though much her senior in years, Mr. Peabody	the banking house, the first time I was passing that way: As you may easily	ence in London, that was a mystery	phaving done my best on the spot to re-	suit of Mr. Fauntieroy. He was ar-	would only advance me three or four
Nor had he where to rest his head.	laces. Jewelry is not prominent with her. Has a pleasant tongue, but uses it	set upright in edible chairs, with their necks straightened, and fantastic covers	offered her his hand and fortune. Grate- fully appreciating his generosity, and ac-	imagine, I contrived to be passing that way on a particularly early occasion,	"Is your name Trowbridge?" he began.	had led me. Uncomfortable as I felt at	and remanded on the Saturday. On the Monday I heard from my friends the par-	hundred thousand dollars, I could invest it in Government bonds, and make my
Was wasted far and wido, And many a childing mother then	carefully, and speaks only in cornector She is about 1-o-years of age, and strong-	placed on top of their heads. Their clays were bent up and made to grasp	knowledging her attachment for him as almost a father, she with great feeling	I-was shown at once into Mr. Fauntle-	"Yes," I answered, dryly enough. "Do you bank with Marsh, Stracy,	I should have been far more unaasy in my mind if the partner had declaned to	ticulars which I have just narrated.	The old man never talks to Jack any
And new-born baby died ; But things like that you know, must be After a famous victory.	minded, Miss Dunning is pretty. She is on the	sucars, darts, and exoreising wands.	confessed that honor compelled her to decline the acceptance of this his greatest	roy's private room. He was as pleasant a man to speak to	Hauntleroy and Graham?	see mo. To my relief the bank porter returned	were not destined to end even yet, I had	mere about 'business.'
"They say it was a shocking sight After the field was won ;	Mass Durning Spiercy. The Fourthe blonde order, and can't help it, becauso 'its natural. Whenever she speaks she	were brown, and yet the feathers on their wings, the wattles on their necks,	act of generosity, informing her suitor that her affections had been given to an-	as ever I met with-bright, and gay, and companionable in his manner-with a		with a message requesting me to walk in.		Three brothers, bearing a remarkable resemblance to one another, are in the
For many thousand bodies here Lay rotting in the sun;	does it with much deliberation and dis- tinetness, and always manifests a readi-	and the crests on their heads were not		sort of easy; hearty, jovial bluntness about him that attracted everybody.	-Stracy, Fauntieroy and Graham and		gest and saddest manner, on the difficult	habit of shaving at the same barber's shop. Not long ago one of the brothers
4 But things like that you know, must be After a famous victory.	ness to talk—like most women. She is always advocating the coaxing policy	mented with tinsel and paper. Several large crabs from Meig's wharf	shocked, the philanthropist sent for his	The clerks all liked him—and that is something to say of a partner in a bank-	what then?" "Draw out every farthing of balance you have got before the bank closes at	so confused and distressed that I hardly	fore my friends had left my office-be- fore I had exhausted the arguments	entored the shop early in the morning,
" Great praigs the Duke of Marlhoro" won, And our gold Prince Eugene," "Why, 'twas a very wicked thing !".	with men, and sets a good example by dressing very tastefully, and always	lay in the centre of the table, and were		"Well, young Towbridge," says he,	five to-day.	time. The one circumstance which I re-	which my gratitude rather than my rea- son suggested to me in favor of the pris-	been at work in the shop only for a day
Fuld little Wilhelmine; "Nay, nay, my little girl," quoth ho,	looking well ; her favorite color is blue. She writes for the press under the signa-	pyramids of fruit also-apples, pears,	cessful rival in business, and soon after		ment. The words for an instant, abso-	refer to my interview with the strange	oner, a note, marked "inimediate," was placed in my hands, which silenced me	came in and underwent a similar opera-
It was a famous victory. And everyboly praised the Dulle,	ture of "Shirley Dare," which has be- come well known. She is strong minded,		of his ward. This, it is said, was the first	to set up in business for yourself, are you? I have a great regard for your	"Stare as much as you like," he pro-		the instant I looked at it. It was written from the prison, by Mr. Fauntleroy, and	the evening the third brother made his appearance, when the German dropped
Who this great fight did win." - But what good came of it at last ?" Quoth-fittle Peterkin,	-N. Y. Democrat.	tions of lambs, goats, ducks, etc., covered with melted confectionery piles of Josh	ble that from this episode came the in-		at your clock there. In twenty minutes	caused by mischievous reports which I	it contained two lines only, entreating me to apply for the necessary order, and	his razor in astonishment and exclaimed: "Vell, mine Gott i dat man hash do
"Why, that I cannot tell," said ha, "" " But, 'twas a famous victory.	The anthragite coal region, new so much talked about in connection with	Threat running, substag, and splattering	Peabody so universally distinguished,	Just on the point of beginning, ch ! Very good: You will have your difficulties,	shut. Draw out every farthing, I tell		to go and see him immediately. I shall not attempt to describe the flut-	fashtest beard I never saw. Ishaves him dis mornin', shaves him at dinner times,
SPEECH BY HORACE GREELEY.	the miner's strikes, includes about all	white and yellow paper, bearing myster-		my friend, and, I mean to smooth one of them away from you at the outset. A	"Draw out my money !", I exclaimed,		ter of expectation, the strange mixture of dread and hope that agitated me when	and he gomes back now mit his heard so
At the press banquet in New York, on the twenty-seventh ultimo, Mr. Greeley	It is 406 square miles, and 107 lie with- in the limits of Luzurne county, Penna.	ions characters ; doll looking images at screral points ; and everywhere tinsel,	A maiden lady, residing in great se-	word of advice for your private ear- Bank with us."	in your right sonses? Do you know that	not seem to notice the lamentable lame- ness of my excuses, and did not addition-		At this season of the year, all our farm-responded to the teast "Country Farm- ing and City Farming," in the following	State of Pennsylvania down to 1860,	paper, moke tumes, and insufferable stench. The streets were blocked by the throug of Chinamen, negroes and "su-	clusion, had not been to church for a long time; but on the accession of a	"You are very kind, sir," I answered, "and I should ask nothing better, than to profit by your suggestion, if I could	the first houses in the world? What do	A weary, absent look, which I had ob	went to the prison.	ers are preparing to salt their hams and r bacon, so we propose to give them a re-characteristic remarks: I don't quite understand whether I am expected to demonstrate an agreement,	amounted to a little over eighty-dree millions of tons, of which. Luzerne fur		small family property, she bought herself n new bound, shawl, and dress, with the	But my expenses are heavy at starting,	to me-by taking this extraordinary in- terest in my affairs? If you want me to	served on his face when I came in, re- mained on it while I was speaking. If	situation in which he stood, where afraid	ceipt whereby salting and smoking can or a contrariety between these two things. At any rate, if the purpose of	company for mining coal was formed in	n.en predominated. They were a de- graded and diseased looking set for the	peared one tonowing Sabbath in a style	shall have very little left to put by for the first year. I doubt if I shall be able	r act on your advice, why don't you ex-	keep up appearance of listening to me	had set two men to watch him. One	Many of our housewives are forced to things. At any rate, if the purpose of the sentiment is to affirm that one of these pursuits is as delightful, and as at	f shipped to Philadelphia, and this venture	most part, and enseased booking set for the most part, and seemed to be riveted in their tracks by idle curlosity.	The, hitherto, shabby and hopeless old	to muster, much more than three hun-	<ul> <li>'I have explained myself. Act on my</li> <li>advice or not, just as you like. It don't</li> </ul>	the middle of a sentence, and gave up	The other, who was bound not to leave	niencos to smoke with. Those of us who tractive as the other, I respectfully non concur. [Laughter and applause.] As	thorities consented to take it, and tried	A line backs and a rank of badgering backmen occupied one side of the street	and, and as every eye seemed tarned	after paying what I must pay before I set up my office, and I should be ashamed	I matter to me. I have done what I prome I lised, and there's an end of it."	an, wer he gave me was comprised in these	him, very delicately and considerately affected to be looking out of the window the moment I was shown in.	is to smoke just right. By this process, all trouble 7 is avoided. Take a large
Annone Frank Price and abbumerly	to burn it under the boilers of the en-		upon her, the choir commenced singing		He furned to the door The minute	few civil commonplace words : .	rene momone i was snown in.	sized butter firkin, cash or barrol, accord to enty educing, i have had something more of it than I have desired, and more than I could enjoy. As to my farming, with the matter works, but it put the fire out. The balance was broken up and the fire of the barrier of the barri there are gontlemen who have spoken of it rather more freely than their limited sidewalks, and only the blucksmith. near arms a lurge load of linselled paper. She knowledge of the subject would admit 1 think I have seen elaborate statements of the cost of each turnip, [laughter,]

The happy discovery was made by a lighted Josh stick set the mass on fire. tavern keeper, Jesse Fell, of Wilkes. Then other women brought out some the cost of each turnip, [laughter,] Barre, who concluded a good draft was d these statements were made by gon-lane results to use of the statements were made by gonalone necessary to make it burn, and he *** concur. [Laughter and applause.] As to eity editing, I have had something in an athen, the burder of the water works, but it put they waiting for their "loads."? an anthem, the burden of which was At 12 m. an old white headed woman "Hallelulah ! Hallelujah !" The indigcame out of the house, bearing in her nant spinster retraced her steps down aisle-in-high-dudgeon-oxclaim the mine used the coal for home use. threw it on the pavement, and taking a

" 'hardly knew you,' indeed ! Why Pauntleroy. this is not the first time I've been dressed up. , Hardly know you !' I guess I done yet. When you open the amount, afternoon."

He furned to the door. The minute account for such a trifle as that." hand of the selock was getting on from "Stuff. and nonsense !" says Mr. | the minutes to the quarter. "Done what you promised." I repeat "Are you a banker? ed, getting up to stop him What business have you to offer an opin-"Yes," he said, with his hand ou the ion on the matter? Do as I tell you-leave it to me-bank with us-and draw look, "I liave given my message. Whatfor what you like. Stop ! I have n't ever happens, remember that. Good the moment I was shown in. few civil commonplace words : "Vever mind, Mr. Trowbridge; pray He was sitting on the side of his bed, don't think of apologizing. We are all with his head drooping and his hands liable o make mistakes. Say nothing hanging listlessly over his knees when more a) out it, and bring the money back first caught singht of him. At the sound way is higher flavored, the born security on Mond y if you still honor us with your of my approach he started to his feet and, without speaking a word, flung both confidence He look I down at his papers as if he his arms around my neck.

My heart swelled up. was anxion, to be alone again, and I had Iternatit, of course, but to take my " Tell me it's not true, sir ! for God' leave immedi tely. I went home, feel- sake, tell me it's not true, " was all ing a little easy in my mind now that I could say to him. He never answered-Oh, me ! he never had paved the ay for making the best practical atonement in my power by There was one dreadful moment of sioringing my balance back the first thing on Monday morning. Still I passed a weary day on Sunday; reflecting sadly enough that I had not yet made my close to my ear. peace with Mr. Fauntleroy. My anxiety "Did you get your money out?" to set myself right with my generous Saturday afternoon ? " friend was so intense that I risked in truding myself on his privacy by calling I broke free from him in the astonis at his town residence on Saturday. Ho ment of hearing those words.

sized butter firkin, cask or barrol, according to the quantity of meat you desiroto smoke. Place it over a fire of corn coh with the corn on. Meat moked in this to produce a better taste than cobs; wood, or green walnuts. Let the tub smoke from five to six hours. To out hundred pounds of meat, take eight tlemon who I was not aware were so at etlations would seem to imply. I have placed it in a large, fire place in his bar not made any such calculations myself, for I have been a little shy of doing so. is a thing I very much believe in. Having done some share of work in the world. I lay down this proposition: That any man or woman who can get their work done by 8 o'clock at night, need not consider their condition a hard one. But when the work stretches far into the night, to eleven, twelve, one, two three, I begin to find it irksome. I am now not so fond of sitting up with a newspaper all night, nor with anybody else. on the press, man and boy, for forty fixing its web on Irish oak, and has no has the cheek of a cast iron Indian. He months, and years, and what have you growth; something in firmness of purpose ; something in clearness of intention; outwardly, nothing. How can your labors compare with those of the man. who has produced a book? And here let over was or can be produced on the instigation of a $50,000 check. Such of goose. Nor is it less an error that books as that of John Bunyan have been produced by authors who never thought they would get a dime for them. [Ap-Those are the books. The books that the $50,000 checks will buy, overy year about Christmas eve, is fathey sell I hope ; but the world is charitable, and soon forgets them. | [Laughter and applause. ]: Country farming will help, also to develope one of the phases of the questions of woman's rights-wherein I have not se full a part, perhaps as some of our or fourteenth. friends would wish. Country farming gives just the right field for the devolop the possession of a remarkable pair, father ment of your energies. [Laughter.] and son. When one has any complaint, Lots of you are wanted to take your part the other is similarly affected, if the father in country farming: [Renewed laughter.] has the headache, the son has it at the You need not dispute or clamor-there it is. "The world is all bofore you to same time; if one suffers with the toothache the other also suffers with it ; when choose from." If any lady wants her rights-I am a wood chopper myself-my one gets the cold, the other gets it also, and so it goes on through all the catalogue are is at her service. There are plenty of opportunities; so, then why don't of ordinary complaints. What one likes be not dependent on servants to make some of our friends who want their rights and eats, the other likes and eats ; and your bread ; sweep your own floors, and come out into the country and take them? I hope that some of this din and controversy will roll itself abroad in the world; and our excellent friend, "the last best gift," and so on, will achieve

her rights with her own right hand. [Great applause.]

unprincipled with plenty.

lations of several prominent anti cooli built a grate of green hickory saplings, ites. These they cast into the flames widenfly believing that possession of room, filled it with broken coal and deg them would certainly appease the malig- fought up hill, and to win it without terrupt me-good bye-God bless you !" wood under the grate and set it on fire. nent gods, and give Ah Poy a safe entree the flames spreading through the coal, it for words about country farming, which was soon ignited, and before the wooden into the land of the good. At 1 p. m. the coffin was placed in Learse, the mourners got into the backs, was proved, , and hundreds of people Rocked to the old tayern to witness the and the melancholy procession of pagans and Christians proceeded to Lone Mounflocken to ... discovery. b tain, where the remains will be entombed

ERRORS IN NATURAL HISTORY. till the sailing of the next China steamer . .... The stories that there is but one The Litchfield (Conn.) Sentinel thus phomix in the world, which, after many years, burns herself, and from her ashes photographs one of the institutions of rises another; that the pelican pierces the town; her breast with her beak, to draw blood "There is a man in this town who set as I was twenty years ago. This, then, I can say for country farming, that while only upon air, of the bird of paradise' morals, and who publishes and condemns it has some rugged aspects, and does not and of the unicorn, are all fabulous. It the shortcomings of his fellow mon. Ho premise any such brilliant and rapid ad- is an error, that the scorpion stings its- is as sanctimonious as if he had swalvances to fortune as some of our friends elf when surrounded by fire, and that lowed a conference meeting. Five hunsappose themselves likely to achieve in music has power over persons bitten by dred of the old, genuine, original, inard. Wall street, it is about the safest and it; that the mole has no eyes, and the surest thing any one can engage in; and elephant no knees; that the hedge bog pint, would makes weak decoetion when is is, moreover, a tranquil and certain de is a mischievous animal, particularly that compared with this individual. He is so light to any human being who can endure he sucks cows when they are asleep. It impregnant with the odor of sanctity his own society. [Laughter and ap- is said that the porcupine shoots out its that one could scrape it off his clothes plause.] My little place, while it is noth- quills for annoying its enemy, whereas it with a clam-shell. Yet this man is the ing to brag of-[Laughter]-there is this only sheds them annually, as other feath- mest inveterate bafer in the whole town te be said about it. I have got the most ered animals do.. The jackallis commondelightful barn full of corn, rich, golden ly called the lion's provider, but it has impudent nuisance, or intolerable gossip corn, that ever you saw in your lives. no connection with the lion. The bite of and busybody. If he sees two or more Now, that is something achieved, some-thing to look at. I have been at work progress end.

years; and I can see nothing that I have particular aversion to a toad. The ass is capable of interrupting the benedic-Much discussion has taken place in reaccomplished. You work for days, and was vulgarly thought to have a cross on tion at a wedding to ask the bridegroom lation to the proper distances apartto set the same hearty, easy way of speaking its back, ever since Christ rode on one of what fee he expects to pay the clergyappe trees in orchards. Many Western his mind to you at once, in the fewest to show? Something perhaps in mental those animals. It is also believed that man. We are not going to tell who this rmers prefer placing them near to possible words. I explained the business the haddock had the mark of St. Peter's man is ; if we should do so, some life thumb, since he took the tribute penny insurance company would gobble him out of a fish of that species. It was for a peripatetic agent, and we have too anciently believed, says Brand, that the much philanthropy to do anything that barnacle, a common shell lish, which is might increase his opportunity to make me say, that in my judgment, no good found sticking on the bottom of ships, his fellow men miserable, or to commit would when broken off become a species the sin of cursing." bears form their cubs by licking them

A wag the other day, speaking of a into shape, or that storks will only live man whose important air attracted a in republics and free states. The rose of great deal of notice, remarked that "his Jericho, which was feigned to flourish bump of self esteem was so prominent that he could not keep his hat on on a mous in the annals of credulity, but, like windy day." when it becomes older. The disadvan- wanted; the no less celebrated "Glastonburg · -

Thorn," is only a monkish imposter. If tages are, the greater difficulty of culti-A strong minded woman was heard to is commonly believed, and oven proverblal, that puppies see in nino days, but emark the other day that she would soil. We observe a statement of J. Penmarry a man who had plenty of money, the fact is, they do not see till the twelfth nington, of Macon, Michigan, in the though he was so ugly she had to scream Western Rural, that he has orchards set every time that she looked at him. out twenty years ago, which have so Flemming county, Kentucky, rejoices in ···· j · · · · · · · · · · · · prowded each other, that the fruit has A profane lady told her daughter the become small and stunted; and he is hinning the trees out. But they are not other day, that "them stockings were o good in form, nor will they probably darned---nico." ccome nearly so perfect and symmetrical

e) -----

as if sot out thirty or thirty-five feet apart Young woman, trust not to uncertain and allowed to grow and develop under riches, but prepare yourself for every full exposure to light and air. But where emorgonoy in life. Learn to work, and shelter is a necessity, it may nevertheless be best to set thick at first, unless timber belts are employed to screen the young what one dislikes and won't cat, the darn your own stockings. Above all, do trees from fierce winds. Oountry Gen other dislikes and won't eat. If one be- not esteem too lightly those .honorable tlemani-comes angry, or gloomy, or happy to the young men who sustain themselves and ame degree, and at the same time is the their aged parents by the work of their One of the members of the French leother angry, or gloomy, or happy. They own hands, while you caress and received gation, hard pushed for a compliment to succee at the same time, sleep at the into your company those idle popinjays fair lady who was marred by an undesame time and the same number of hours, who never lift a finger to help them-Better be upright with poverty, than and the most remarkable of all, they selves as long as they can keep body and niable flat nose, remarked ; "Madame, soul together, and yet find funds suffi- you are an angel fallen from heaven; but

He was gone before I could speak to the cashier. Perhaps you will The battle of life, in by far the greater find that he has got something to tell again. 'I tried to call after him, but my speech number of cases, must necessarily be yon. There ! there ! go away-do n't in-

That was his way-ah! poor fellow, it was very unaccountable, but there was struggle were perhaps to win it without lionor. If there were no difficulties, that was his way. there would be no success; if there were I went to the head eashier the next had more than half frightened me. something in the man's last words which nothing to struggle for, there would be morning when I opened .my little modi- I looked at the clock. The minute nothing to be achieved. Difficulties may cum of an account. He had received hand was on the quarter,

My office was just far enough from the intimidate the weak, but they act only as orders to pay my drafts without reference a wholesome stimulus to men of pluck to my balance. My checks, when I had bank to make it necessary for me to deand resolution. All experiences of life everdrawn, were to be privately shown cide on the instant. If I had had time serves to prove that the impediments to Mr. Fauntleroy. Do many young to think, I am certain that I should not thrown in the way of human advance- men who start in business find their have profited by the extraordinary warn- was not there, and his servant could tell ment, may, for the most part, be over prosperous superiors ready to help them ing that had just been addressed to me. me nothing of his whereabouts. There omo by sleady good conduct, honest in that way? -The suspicious appearance and manners was no help for it now, but towait till his zeal, activity, perseverance, and, above Well, I got on-got on very fairly and of the stranger; the outrageous improba-

suddenly failed me. It was very foolish.

speak

all, by a determined resolution to sur- steadily, being careful not to venture bility of the inference against the credit bank. mount difficulties, and stand up man-, out of my depth, and not to forget that of the bank, toward which his words fully against misfortune. Everything small beginnings may lead in time to pointed; the chance that some underwe learn is the mastery of a difficulty, great ends. A prospect of one of those hand attempt was being made by some and the mastery of one helps us to the great cuds-great, I mean, to such a enemy of mine to frighten me into emmastery of others. Things which at first small trader as I was at that portod brolling, myself with one of my best sight appear to be comparatively value- showed itself to me when I had been friends, through showing an ignorant less in education, are really of the great some little time in business. In plain distrust of the firm with which he was est practical value, not so much for the terms, I had a chance of joining in a first associated as partner-all those considinformation they yield, as because of the Tate transaction, which would give me crations would unquestionably have ocdevelopment they compel. The mastery profit and position, and overything I curred to me if I could have had time of these studies evokes effort, and culti- wan ed, provided I could qualify myself for reflection; and, as a necessary conating powers of application which other-for engaging in it by getting good sewise might have lain dormant. Thus curity beforehand for a very large amount. one thing leads to another, and so the In this emergency, I thought of my. would have been taken from the keeping of the bank on that memorable day. work goes ou through hife, encounter kind friend, Mr. Fauntleroy, and went to As it was, I had just time enough to with difficulty ending only where life and the bank, and saw him once more in his act and not a spare moment for thinking, hand, Some heavy payments made at the beprivate room.

There he was at the same table, with ginning of the week had so far decreased my balance, that the sum to my credit in the same heaps of papers about him, and the banking book barely reached fifteen hundred pounds. I snatched up my check book, wrote gother as a protection from cold winds, I came upon with some little hesitation draft for the whole amount, and ordered and fifteen or twenty feet have been rec-ommended. This close planting has proved the value of shelter, and while vantage of, his former kindness to meat What impulse urged me on, except the the trees are young, a larger amount of When I had done, he just nodded his blind inipulse of hurry and bowilder fruit is obtained from an dere. But head, snatched up a blank sheet of paper, ment I can't say. I acted mechanically, when the trees become larger and older, scribbled a few lines on it in his rapid under the influence of the vague inexplithese advantages in a great measure dis- way, handed the writing to me, and cable fear which the man's extraordinary appear. It is therefore proposed to thin pushed me out of the room by the two parting words had aroused in me, with them ont by successively removing the shoulders before I could say a single out stopping to analyze my own sensasupernumeraries, until double distance is word. I looked at the paper in the outer tions-almost without knowing what I who was talking to me. My strange visi. office. It was my security from that was about. In three minutes from the tor of the Saturday had taken possession crops are obtained in the earlier years of great banking house for the whole time when the stranger had closed my of all my thoughts, and his words of the orchard, and more space and light amount, and for more, if more was door, the elerk had started for the bank, and I was alone again in my room, with and I don't know that I can describe it in a whirl. I did not recover my control over mynow. I can only say that it has outlived the orime, the disgrace, and the awful self until the clerk came back with the death on the scaffold. I am grieved to notes in his hand. He had just got to spoak of that death at all; but I havo the bank in the nick of time." As the that I had so bitterly reproached myself > covery which exposed my benefactor doors, When I had counted the hank notes, and my friend to all England as the

and had locked them up in the safe, my forger Fauntloroy. I must ask you to suppose a lapse of better senses seemed to come back to me some time after the occurrence of the on a sudden. Never have I repreached events that. I have just been relating. myself before and since, as I reproached During this interval, thanks to the kind myself at that moment. 'What sort of assistance I had received at the outset, return had I made for Mr. Fauntleroy's my position as a man of business had fatherly kindness to me? I had insulted greatly improved. Imagine me now, if him by the meanest, the grossest distrust you please, on the high road to prosperity, of the honor and the credit of his house, with good large offices and a respectable and that on the word of an absolute staff of olerks, and pieture me to your-stranger, of a vagabond, if ever there selves sitting alone in my private room, was one yet. It was madness-down-between four and five o'clock on a certain right madness in any man to have acted

"What !" I cried out aloud, forgetting the third person at the window. "That man that brought the mes week day duties brought him back to the | sage -' "Hush !" he said putting his hands

I went to business on Monday mornupon my lips. "There was no better ng half an hour earlier than usual, so man to be found, after the officers had great was my impatience to restore the amount of that unlucky draft to my ac-than you do-I paid him well as a chance count as soon as possible after the bank messenger, and risked his cheating me dry. This is the surest and most experiopened. of the errand."

On entering my office, 1 stopped with, ." You sent him, then !". "I sent him." startled feeling just inside the door. Something serious had happened. The My story is over, gentlemen. There elerks, instead of boing at their desks as is no need for me to tell you that Mr. usual, were all huddled together in a Fauntleroy was found guilty, and that he group, talking to each other with blank died by the hangman's hand. It was in my power to soothe his last moments in faces. When they save me, they fell back behind my managing man, who this world by taking upon myself the arstepped forward with a circular in his rangements of some of his private affairs, which, while they remained unsettled, weighed heavily on his mind. They had "Have you heard the news, sir ?" he

** \ "No. What is it?"

He handed me the circular. My heart rave one violent throb the instant I looked at it. I felt myself turn pale; I folt my knees trembling under me. Marsh, Stracey, Fauptleroy, Graham had stopped payment.

tremity, when the strong arm of the law "The circular has not licen issued had already sizzed him. he thought of ore than half an hour," continued my the young man whose humble fortunes managing clerk. "I have just come he had helped to build ; whose heartfelt from the bank, sir. The doors are shut ; gratitude he had fairly won ; whose simthere is no doubt about it. Marsh & ple faith he was resolved never to betray. Company have stopped this morning," l leave it to greater intellect than mine I hardly heard him ; I hardly knew to reconcile the anomaly of his reckless falsehood toward others and his steadfast truth toward me. It is as certain as that we sit here that one of Fauntlerov's last warning seemed to be sounding once efforts in this word was the effort he more in my cars. This man had known made to preserve me from being a loser I could not express my gratitude then, my hands as cold as ice and my head all the true condition of the hank when not hy the trust that I placed in him. There another soul outside the doors was aware s the secret of my strange tenderness of it! The last draft paid across the of a felon ; that is why the word villain counter of that ruined house, when the does sometimes still grate on my heart doors closed on Saturday, was the draft when I hear it associated with his name, no other alternative. The course of my cash for my draft was handed to him for drawing ; the one balance saved from Youatt, in his book entitled, "The story must now lead me straight on to over the counter, the elock struck five, the wrock was in y balance, Where had the latter time, and to the torrible dis-Horse," says that this animal will never drink hard water when soft is within saved mo? and why had he brought it to reach, that he will leave clear, transpamy ears? I was still groping, like a man in the though the latter be discolored with tions-I was still bergildered by the un- will make the hair rise up, and not un. you must not publish it. fathomable mystery of doubt into which frequently cause an attack of gripes. they had plunged mo-when the discov. Give soft water if practicable, especially ory of the stopping of the bank yeas fol- if the animal be ailing. " This is a valualowed almost, immediately by a sdeond ble hint and we presume not known by shook, far more dreadful, far Heavler to every reader of THE HERALD, who keeps bear, so far as I was concerned, than the horses, While I and iny clorks were discussing "Oh I where do you get the red for the failure of the firm, two mercantile your cheeks ??' said a pale, wan young men, who were friends of mine, ran into lady, to a bright langhing mine. "Where All my letters had been written, all my own inconceivably thoughtless pro-news that one of the partners had been written, all my own inconceivably thoughtless pro-news that one of the partners had been written. aturday afternoon: All my letters had been written, all my own inconceivably thoughtless pro- news that one of the partners had been light," was the reply, as I had done. I could not account for the office, and overwhelmed as with the the the roses get their's-in the air and sun.

brown sugar, or three pluts of molactes and two ounces saltpetre. Rub a little fine salt into the hans and shoulders. answored, and he turned away his face. then put the most into the snackod tub If a soum rises on the brine, turn it off. scald and add a little more sait. If do whispored. "Were you in time on sired to keep through the summer, in the early spring, smoke the tub three hours onger, put back the moat, and turn on the brine when cold. In a month after the pickling, the hams will be ready for use. They can be kept in the brine all summer, and if a ham is cut, return it to the tub for further Beef and tongues can be kept in the same manner, and there is no danger from insects. In six or seven weeks the beef is packed and smoked enough to ditious way of salting and smoking pork and beef, and if once tried will always and the second states and the An instance of how successfully cunning may evade the officers of justice is exemplified in the case of an old darkey, in New Orleans recently, who had committed some sort of an offense; and was in : heurly expectation of in visit from the police. To prevent this .: he procured a yellow flag, and hung it out at his door. no connection with the crime he had com-Small pox in the house was an effectual mitted, so I could do him the last little preventive of any intrusive visits. Weeks service he was ever to accept at my hands went by, and still the yellow flag flutwith a good heart and a clear conscience teroil from the door, post. . The officers I say nothing in defence of his charac grew impatient, and at last one, more ter, nothing in palliation of the offence dventurous than the rest, knocked at for which he suffored. But I cannot forthe door. get in the time of his most fearful ex-

"Who dar ?" "Officers | Open, in the name of the

"Golly, boss, got de small pox." "Thatwon't do. You were seen upon ho street last night."

"Yes. I know, boss ; but I has him in to day time."

"I don't believe it, and am coming in." "Better stay ont, boss; cotch da-small pox, sure."

The officer persisted in coming in, and the old fox was caught in his lair, looking slock and marvalously well. With a broad grin on his face, he saluted the offleer with the remark-

"You did n't cotch de small pox, boss, but you cotched me." It is needless to say that the yellow flag was taken down.

A young lady explained to her inamor ata the distinction between printing and rent, hard water, for a pond of soft, even publishing, and at the conclusion of her remarks, by way of illustration she said : lark, for an anawor to these two ques- mud. Very cold water from the well you may print a kiss on my cheak, but

A gentleman once asked : "What woman ?" when a married man replica "Sho is an eesay on grave, in one vol ame, elegantly bound. Although it may bo dear, every man should have a copy of it."

A more glorious victory can gained over a man than this