HARRISBURG LETTER. " Hanrisbung, January 25, 1870. Last week we had the inauguration thousek previous the election for State Treasurer. This week, unfortunately we have nothing out of the ordinary routine business of the session. The Legislature meets promptly at eleven in the morning, and adjourns with equal oromotness two hours afterwards. The principal business accomplished is the reading of bills in place, and their refera ence to the proper committees. Some interest attachés to the debates on the question of printing the record. It has been discussed, and considered, and reported on by committees, but no result has yet been reached. The Constitution requires the Legislature to keep a journal of its proceedings, and to publish it weekly. There has, as yet, been no authorized publication of the proceedings, and thus far this requirement of the Constitution has been disregarded. Several plans have been proposed with a view of getting a record published, without incurring the expense of last year, but none of them have proved satisfactory, and this morning, in the Senate, the subject was indefinitely postponed. Pending its discussion Senator Lowry indulged in some reflections on Mr. Bergner. This brought out Mr. Mumma, who gave the Senator from Eric the benbut of a half hour's reprimand for his sins, political and personal. *-The appropriation bill of last year abolished the franking privilege, and consequently the law makers have thus far been compelled to do their correspondence at their own proper cost, and charges, for postage. Yesterday the Scuate passed an act repealing it, which was duly messaged over to the House. Before the Senate adjourned, however, Mr. Billingfelt moved to recall the act, and at the call of the yeas and mays, 20 voted to recall and 11 against? This, of course kills the franking privilege again for this time. This is being conomical certainly, to asvery commendable point but it seems strange that Senators pass a bill giring themselves postage stamps and during the same session kill; it simply on the call of the year and mays It is doubtless all right, but censoriou persons are inclined to intimate that fear of the dear people may have doing what will be claimed for conscience.

This evening the committee on the contested election case in the first Sena on to hear torial district are in secargiments on a motion to mash the petition of the contestant. Of course the Democracy won't lose a Senator If they can lielp it, and therefore Mr. Diamond, the defeated candidate, contests. The committee drawn to try the case, are Messrs, Lowry Graham, Kerr, Warfel, and Brooke, Republicans, and Messes. Randall, an Miller, Democrats. The contestant is represented by Lewis C. THE END OF THE STRUGGLE At length the negro question is over The agitation caused by the injustice done to the colored people of this land closed by their enfranchisement. Right and justice have triumphed, in spite of the schemes of selfish demagogues and the struggles of armed traitors. The Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution gave civil rights to all, the Fifteenth will prevent any further policical oppression, on account of race, color
