

HARRISBURG LETTER.

Legislative proceedings during the past week have been of an especially important character...

Mr. Boutwell does not dance. His talents are not in his heels. Oliver Logan values her tongue at five hundred thousand dollars.

On Friday last, the bill to provide for the appointment of a metropolitan police for the city of Philadelphia, was taken up on third reading.

Mr. Joseph, who has considerable reputation for conscientiousness in legislation, made a lively little speech, in which he denounced the bill as most infamous one.

The act divides the city of Philadelphia into five police divisions, and provides that the appointment, control, and government of the entire police force shall be vested in a board of police commissioners.

During the pendency of the Police Bill, there were strong delegations from Philadelphia, representing both parties, by whom the members were abundantly cheered.

A bill was passed just as the House adjourned which makes very decided changes in the practice of the Courts in homicide cases.

Michigan has abolished tenancy by courtesy, leaving intact the widow's right of dower, and under the intestate law of this State a husband now has no share in his wife's estate.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Hamman is an Illinois notary public. Mr. Boutwell does not dance.

Ben. Wood, who is Morrissey's peer in New York, is in Cincinnati making an effort to settle up a difficulty with his partners in the Kentucky State Lottery business.

Dugenie sold the dress she wore during her Oriental tour, 350 in number, with a great collection of hats and bonnets at auction.

Gen. John S. Williams, a noted officer in the Mexican war, and in the late rebellion, was recently married to Mrs. H. Hamilton.

Mr. Victor Noir, lately killed by Prince Bonaparte, it is said, is in reality of Hebrew descent, his real name being Solomon.

Mrs. French is a large, fat blonde, with a sharp, up-pointed nose, a good complexion, a bright eye, lighted up partly with humor and partly with intention.

Three Arab chiefs lately supped with Napoleon at the Tuilleries. The vineyard California brags most of contains 300,000 vines.

Arkansas makes a loud call for school teachers and blacksmiths. Twelve thousand pupils attend private schools in New York city.

BRIEF ITEMS.

Last year Ohio granted 1,000 divorces. The Iowa Legislature has one female and one colored officer.

THE TREASURY INVESTIGATION.

The following is a recapitulation of the Public Debt Statement, published February 1:

Public Debt Statement, published February 1: Total amount outstanding, $1,480,000,000. Total amount paid during the year, $1,480,000,000.

Mr. Mackey declines to answer the question 'have you received any interest or compensation for the use of any money belonging to the Commonwealth?'.

Our County Finances. We published last week, the annual statement of the county finances. The entire revenues of the county, from all sources, amount to $119,102.04.

It is impossible to tell exactly, from an annual statement, what the operations of the fiscal year have been. Sometimes they will appear more plainly than in three consecutive statements were examined at once.

A bill has been introduced into the Legislature raising the legal rate of interest to six per cent. It is a very interesting and important bill.

Special Notice. 'Who would suffer?' It is now 21 years since the late President of the United States, James K. Polk, died.

Bottled Paralysis. This is the proper title of the horrible metallic disease. When the time of Abolition was at its height, the imagination was prepared for anything.
