

his men. His mouth will be full of evil. speech when he returns, if thou shouldst meddle with the work." Fritz scarcely heard her. A horrid excitement, that "wild delight punished by Nemesis," possessed him. He rushed charming girl looked down cagerly into up the steps toward the vent, swinging the maul in great curves as he went. The hammer descended with a crash the huge caldron wherein the molten upon the bars; with frantic glee he to dread familiarity with these ghastlyshadows. As she stood in the archway, with her bright yellow hair rippling -down-over-her--grimson--mantilla,-on might have thought that Aurora had returned at noonday to chide the sun for confiscating all her dewdrops. This the foundry. She saw the great furnace with its coruscations of blue flame. and

I ran over in my mind every precaution, ready. The crowning moment came, and another, a meddlesome servant, steps in and defrauds me of my rightful until it came into our hands. Now we every expedient that might insure suc- hear of "attacks by the Indians" in that cess. By night my dream, by day my territory. The report quotes, at this whole employ 1- At last, every thing was point, an intelligent Indian from the head waters of the Mississippi, who once remarked : "Oh ! if the Indians could only publish a newspaper, what a differ triumph as an artist. I say," he cried ent picture would be drawn of the agstriking his fist upon the table where his gressors in those outrages ! they would fetters made a loud jungling, "I say, it have white faces, not red !" The reason often and scan closely the paths in which your feet are walking.

-If any man or woman of forty-live over. not engaged in hard newaral labor, especially the studious, sedentary and inloor livers, would take but two meals a day for one month, the second not being later than three in the afternoon, and absolutely nothing afterwards, except it of the difference in Canada and Alaska might be in some cases an orange or a He sat down, and covered his face and this country, is held in the report to emon, or cup of warm drink, such as tea, broma, sugar water, or ice cream there would be such a change for the betsettlers, but the tide of emigration passed ter in the way of sound sleep, a feeling on peaceably by, and surrounded them, vaking that you have rested, an appetite while the strong arm of the governmen for breakfast, a bouyance of disposition during the day, with a geniality of tem-The Indian lack of confidence in th per and manner that few, except the aneliability of the white man is illustrated imal and the glutton, would be willing by an incident given in the report : to go back to the flesh pots of Egypt. "An Indian chief brought a young In cented drinks ahead. "Bon Wade," as he is frequently called, dian, we are told, before a white commisone of the political lions of the west, sioner to give evidence, and the commis has taken but two meals a day for twenty. sioner Mositated a little in receiving part years, and if all sedentary persons, those the soul from drowning in the 'gulfs of of the testimony, when the chief spoke who are in doors a greater part of their up with great emphasis : 'Oh, you may time, would after the age of forty-five obelieve what he says ; he tells the truth serve the same inflexible rule, there can he has never seen a white man before !" be no doubt, other things being equal, pace got down to slow walk afore we ap-The indifference to death prevailing that long years of happy exemption from mong them is illustrated by an anocdot the ordinary ills of life would be the requoted on the authority of Bishop Whipsult. The reason is that the stomach ple, of Minnesota, of a distinguished Inwould have time to rest. for recuperation dian who was imprisoned in connection and would thus be able to perform its with the horrible Minnesota massacre of part more strongly, making purer blood, 1862, and who was visited in prison by a giving better sleep and securing an apleast liear its voice before I die. And physician. In reply to a question of the vetite for breakfast. Let any man try it henceforth. let it toll at the death of Indian's what he thought the government for ten days, taking the second meal would do with him, the physician hesi your hands. seven hours after the first, and abandon tated, apprehending his case was a hope the practice if he can.-Hall's Journal of less one, when the Indian repeated the Health question. The doctor then said, "I fear can't cerry us much longer. He size for spection. After every day's journey over the good old time under Johnson's adthis worse than rough turnpike road, the inistrashun, when all the money reayfarer needs something more than ived by the Postmaster, - the - Collector ost; he requires solace and he deserves and Assessor poured into his drawer. He it. He is weary of the dull prose of life is morose and gloomy - and water - his and athirst for the poetry. Happy is the likker fearfully. I allez hev to take from ousiness man who can find that solace five to six drinks before I experience eny and that poetry at home.

ensation Warm greetings from loving hearts. But these tihngs iz not the wuss or the fond glances from bright eyes, and wel- of the world were exhibited, and then ny uy the signs uy i

6. It is one of the most toughest things the central globe. The lecturer argued for a female tu be an old maid success that the sun, a mass of molten matter, fully. A grate many have tried, it, and once embodied our entire planetary sysmade a bad job of it. Every body seem tom, and that Moreury, Mars, Jupiter, to-look on old maids az they do on dried Saturn, and Venus, the Earth; etc., were herbs-in the garret handy for sickness, ---flung in rapid succession by the contrifnd, therefore, girls it ain't a mistake ugal force generated by their rotary mothat you should be willing to swope yourself oph with some true fellow for a Crystal models of the great diamonds husband. The swoop is a gool one but don't swope for enny man who iz re-metal for the new bell for the Magdaler church lay shimmering like a lake of gold; she saw the rays of lurid light darting up to the ceiling of the vault and clinging to all the beams as with bloody hands ; but she saw no living soul within, for Reichart the founder and his artisans had gone to their midday meal : and the embryonic bell was apparently left to lake care of itself. A shade of disappointment crossed her pretty face. "I thought he truly would have waited," she said, and was about to turn away when a voice cried, "Helena, thou dea one, I am here," and presently there emerged in the twilight of the archway, Fa tall and handsome youth, who ran for ward in great joy, and seized the maiden's hands, and exclaimed, "I am glad ther art come. Thou shalt now descend into this black paradise of surprises, and behold all that thou hast been curious about so long."

"I thought, Fritz, that thou hadst left," she replied. "Nay," said he." "How should disappoint my dear one who wished to see our preparations for casting the bell? Be careful in passing down these steps. Our master lias often promised to have them repaired; though, for my part, I had rather he should mend his temper than the steps. Let me take thy hand. So! Thou canst not see the way? Ah. trust me; I will neither falter nor mis lead thee. Now will we mount this platform, where thou canst see that which will one day sound merrily over Breslau.'

"Oh, how beautiful," she exclaimed ; but a slight emotion akin to a shudder disturbed her, and she said. "Perchance. Fritz, this bell may sound notes of woe for thee or for me.'

At her feet lay the lake of shining metal, faintly palpitating in the intens heat. One could almost fancy the liquid was pollucid, so clear was the delusive shimmer upon its surface. Yet, while there was no visible impulse to give it dler !' motion, there were evidences of some mystorious yearnings that disturbed it. Inexplicable tremors, faint vibrations as if responsive to harmonies inaudible to human cars, agitated the mass. One might detect pulsations; The metal was unable to tranquilize itself with these flery raptures penetrating all its atoms. It trembled in delicious anguish. It writhed with the instinct for escaping as a bruto in a cage writhes against the ineverable bars. It beat in little petulant ripples upon the sides of the caldron | itable spirit. He heard it related that as upon a shore. It wanted to utter in waves and currents, and capricious eddies the delights of mobility ; it would lava ; it would unite in intention with sfinal touches of art, and masons and cartides and cataracts, and all the flowing masses of the world. It murmured, and thrilled, and purred, and uttered little regrets he heard all these rumors, but without compunction. soft seductive sighs. Across its surface danced innumerable sparkles, salamandrine flies, one would say; galaxies of for his friend Von Tallien.

emeralds, taking to themselves wings, could not sparklo more brilliantly. Now was shot up from the depth of the lake, injured. There are componsations, it is soul: He thought of the youth he had lief and trust in the Great Spirit, and his and exploded in tiny meteoric showers; said, in every life-but as for me, I can slain : "Oh, they unhappy boy. I pity protecting care is a predominant elewhile round the margin flery auroras were streaming.

vore streaming, "It is besutiful," repeated Helona. "Ab; many a handsome face hath wretched man, is not protected by home of own on the "bloody seat," thought he buried its grandfather with the child in s an affront of Fate. truck them one by one away; the flag fell, and in an instant the bright metal with his hands. Von Tallien was con- be that in the former they were never came roaring and hissing through the fused and perplexed ; he know not how pushed back on the approach of the white channel. Her eye was dazzled with the to deal with this haughty troubled spirit. rapidity of its down rush. In a short The silence that ensued was broken time the caldron was empty, and the by the entrance of a janitor, who came mould full. to announce that visitors must leave the extended its protection alike to all.

"It is accomplished," said Fritz. ex prison. Von Tallien again recommended nltingly. eligious ideas to his friend. "Let me "Alas, I fear thou hast done wrong." replied Helena. "And now I hear the osseech you," he said "by the love voice of the master." we have borne one another, to soften your disposition. Confess that you have Reichert indeed descended the done wrong. Confession is a life preof the vault. He cast a nod of recogn server thrown out by conscience to save tion without cheerfulness towards Helena. He moved towards the caldron: elfishness." he noticed that smoke and vapor were "No more !" said Reichert imperious thicker in the vault than usual. "How now," he exclaimed to Fritz. What art thou doing? See that all do wrong in vindicating his honoris going well with the metal. The bell ist be cast this night." "It is cast already," replied Fritz. "Cast? What means it ? What devil's prank hast thou been playing ?"

"I have run the metal into the mould," dalen tower this night, that, I may at said Fritz. "Thou fool and maker of mischief, thou hast ruined me !" shricked Reich-every one who is brought to such an end ert, in a burst of ungovernable fury. as I am." Von Tallion promised to use his infin-"Did I not forbid thee, on pain of death. to touch the vent? By Pluto, I will ence with the council for these objects, teach thee a lesson !" and he sprang and so prepared to leave his unfortunate upon the youth. friend forever. He was unable to re-All the lurid shadows. in the great press his emotion, and parted from him loctor, and calmly remarked : "Well, I arch above were moved with sudden in a paroxysm of grief. frenzy. They shook red hands in ghostly The workmen engaged in the Magdadon't care, I am not afraid to die; when I go to the spirit world, I will go to the deprecation; they beckoned for invisible len tower hurried to the completion of witnesses; they moved hither and thither their task, but it was not till the next Great Spirit, and look him right in the among the beams and rafters; they day that the work was accomplished— face, and tell him of the multiplied clutched at the unknown. Some of indeed, the bell was only just fixed as wrongs and cruelties inflicted on His red them lifted up a shadowy finger, as who the mournful procession left the prison. children by the white man, and He won' should signal, "Hush ! a tragedy is upon scold me much !" The executioner, the priests, the officers of the prison, the council of the city, in While the Friends' delegation were "Oh! mercy, mercy !" screamed the midst of them, the prisoner guarded mong the Indians of the northern agen-Helena. "No, none !" exclaimed the by two soldiers, moved along through by, the great total eclipse of last August infuriate founder. "He hath disobeyed the crowd, and reached the foot of th my orders and ruined my great work. Rabenstein, "the hill of death." As he hath blotted my fair fame, his life Then it was that Reichert heard sweet as follows : shall pay the penalty. Die, cursed med ind melancholy notes pour forth from and he plunged a dagger into the the Magdalen tower, and raising his youth's heart. The blood of the murdered boy spirted over upon the mould ensor, and laden with sound as with a ly. "Never will I confess that man can especially the artist. Let it pass. W is a request which I would have you con-vev to my tormentors. Ask them to have the bell secured in its place in the Mag-aust part. But still before you go, there nd gave a horrid baptism to the bell. nerfume. The vault rang with Helena's piercing The spectators spoke to each other of creams; bur presently she sank inser the singular circumstance that a man sible beside the corpse of her lover. should make a bell, and afterwards hear it tolled for his own death. A sun no go out; white man 'don't know.'

Reichert was condemned to death. creeping terror began to agitate their Gloomily he paced the prison cell ; but They thought so strange an event all the terrors that surrounded his conboded evil to them. Meanwhile the bell thought to be a part bitten out of the dition failed to bend that morose, indom ame shriller and more elamorous. It sun, and they exclaimed, Monster eat filled all the air with passionate appeals, sun-sun very sick,' and set off in full. on breaking away the mould, the bell Sometimes it pleaded for pity, some run for their lodges. Very spon they was found a perfect casting, without flaw or defect. His workmen-but his become fraternal with rolling floods of no longer-were engaged in giving it the one of the listeners declated that its or pistols, and commenced shooting up cadonces seemed very like low mocking at the 'monster' which was eating the penters were preparing the tower of the laughter. Magdalen church for its reception. With Reichert heard all these sounds. His heart was torn with contending emotions; he knew not himself, nor his

. . . .

The night before his execution he sent thoughts. Indistinguishable reverles sick." "The Indians regard it unnatural that whirled together in a vortex of pride, "You are come," he said, when the lat- shame, agony, and regret. "For this I a whole family should be hungry at once.

tor entered the coll, "to take your fare- labored," he said. Then the bell seemed They never sit at the table, but each one and then ... minute fragment of scoria well of a man whom destiny has oruelly to mean of remorse. It thrilled him to the when hungry, helps himself." The bement in the mental constitution of all the detect no such delicate arrangement in the thee," he cried. The tears gushed into " Some time ago à child died, and they

.

dropped his eyes a monient to the floor

The influence of good example is far they will hang you." The Indian reaching, for as a contemporary says, ourthen raised them, looked steadily at the experiences and conflicts with the world lead us at times to indulge misanthropic sentiments and charge all men with selfish and impure motives. The play of pride, prejudice and passion, and the earnestness manifested by the great majority of men to advance their own interests.

> often at the expense of others, and in violation of the golden rule, cause us to look with suspicion on the best intents of othors. Arrogance, hypocrisy, treachery, and violence, every day outrage justice, courred. How the red mon were af- till we are almost disposed to distrust hu- more, they hev money, but they spend it coted by this event is told in the report, man nature and become discouraged. But amid all that is sad and disheartoning

"The Indians were very much dis- in the busy, noisy world now and then turbed by the great eclipse. They were there is presented to us a life of such unieyes saw the new bell swinging like a told in the morning that the sun would form virtue, that we recognize in it a exceptin that my house is somewhat go out that day. They shook their head, character that brings hope for the perfect smaller. At the beginnin uv the winter No ; sun no go out; white man don't development and ultimate regeneration we wuz compelled to yoose our kitchen know.' They were again assured that it of our race. Such charactors are precious, for firewood as me and Jethro, my oldest would go out, when they repeated their and 'such examples should be held up son, coodn't procure labor to out the contradiction with great emphasis : ' No ; to the world for its admination and imitation ; they should be snatched from ob-When it began to grow dark in the afterlivion and treasured in the heart and tin room, then the wing wich we yoos thoughts of all who are in process of fulls spare bed room will follow, and if noon, they looked up and saw what they forming habits and maturing character.

An exchange says : A man who was times it shricked for rovenge, then it came out with their doctors or medicine too mean to advertise land he wanted to changed to doleful lamentation; finally men, as they call them, and their guns sell, put a witten notice in one of the too mean to advertise land he wanted to hotels the other day. A man who was nquiring for a small farm was referred to the written notice. He replied, "I sun, which they continued for some time. When the collpso began to go off, and the cant buy land at a fair price of any man who does his advertising in that way suy came out, they oxclaimed, 'Now sun got, well, monster dead ; sun was very Ho'd steal the fence,' the pump handle, and the barn doors, before he gave up possession."

A song that is just now very popular in the London music halls, has the unusual feature of funniness in the idea. The horus runs thus : 🦾 T saw Esair kissing Kate, And the fact that we all three saw; Heaven the time is not fur off. For I saw Esau, he saw me, And she saw I saw Beau, sugars of spatiality of a

There ere rooin abed uv us. The chivsand little arrangements for comforts alry uv the Corners have lost all speerit. and enjoyment that silently tell of Only last week there wuz a temprans lee turer advertised to make a speech in the hall over Pollock's store. "Shel this be an old and easy seat before we are aware permitted ?" said Bascom indignantly, of it : these and like tokens of affection and sympathy, constitute the poetry oringing his fist down on the bar til the glasses rattled.

which reconciles us to the prose of life. other in seven, the ferns and vegetable find the digging grows harder the fur-"Never !" shouted Isaaker Gavitt Think of this, yo wives and daughters of and the others in the bar room, who ousiness men ! Think of the toils, the perfectly healthy state. anxieties, the mortification and wear The professor closed his remark by stat-

Bascom-sot out the bottles. We all that fathers_undergo_to_secure for you ing that the thickest stone walls will alcomfortable homes, and compensate took suthin, and rusht tumultously to the hall. You remember with what enthem for their trials by making then ergies we formerly mobbed obnoxious happy by their own firesides. The sober speakers? We wasn't at all eager that and industrious man's home should be nite. We only run a rod or two; our made a happy one.

The other day, a gentleman apparent proached the spot, and when we got into beyond the prime of life, stepped into the hall, we merely sot down and listened to the heritikle cuss, and went away book store in Paris and called for some books on Spain. The clerk who was without heavin a stun at him. When waiting on him showed him some, and Bascom reproached us for our lack uv then asked the stranger if he would not speerit, I told him there wuz no use. like to see some caricatures on the de-Ien couldn't mob anybody on sich wis througd Queen, her husband and favorkie as he furnished, it won't do to diloo ites, which had just been received from when you hev sich bizness ez that on Madrid. "Oh ! yes," said the stranger,

"let me see them by all means." After New York has a horse that recently But that wuz not the most alarmin performed a curious freak. He walked sign uv the degeneracy uv the people looking at them, he smiled, asked the out of the stable, and, pushing open the price of them, and paid for them. "Can Within a month two Methodist minister they be sent to my residence ?" he then door of his owner's house, began quickly hey held forth in the villiage, and neisked. "Oh, yes," replied the clerk to ascend the stairs. The first story ther uv them wuz hung or shot ! What reached, some twelve steps, his horseship ' please give me your address." . The hope can there be when sich things hapstranger handed him a card, containing, quietly gazed out of the windows and pon ? And what is wuss two uv our old continued his ascent to the second story. these words : "Don Francis d'Assissis, friends attended their meeting, immejit-There again he paused to take breath, ly they guit comin to Bascom's, and I consort of Her Majesty, the Queen of Spain," and then quietly left the and soon arrived at the landing of the noticed yesterday there children had third story, where, after resting awhile, shoos on. Bascom side as remart about store. he began to descend, having managed and a perfect form. Then, too, the at-

.....

"A great many professed Christian

Another Washington correspondent "It is a mystery to mo" sez he. has been smiled on by the wife of the "What is a mystery," sez I. Russian Minister, and it has had the fol-

"Why, so long ez them men stayed lowing result: "Mme. de Catacazy swept with me all day they hadn't no money to owards us, and we were electrified by spend-now that they don't come her behuty. All the reports we had heard of her had failed to give us any a very contented appearance. At this on shoes and I dont get it. Why didn't idea of her magnificence. She was juncture an alarm was raised. A colored nachre make men capable uv workin all dressed in the richest of black velvets, day and drinkin all nite ?" nade with a train, and the loose Turkish There ain't no change in me or min sack she wore, of the same material. was heavily embroidered in gold. But lazzling in effect than her wealth o golden hair. This hair, which all admit s natural in quantity as well as in hue, winter's fuel. The niggers wont work s of that maraculous color about which for us. Next winter I suppose the setpainters rave, and in looking at it any de ree of rapture seems admissible. And addition, this supurb woman possesse I am not gone hentz by that time, I don't complection of remarkable clearness, know what we shall do for more. The coil of fate is rapidly titenin about me.mosphere of courts is about her, and she The niggers up, toward Garretstow makes one understand what innate maiare accumulatin pretty rapidly, and they esty is possible to beauty." pay their taxes promptly, but what good is that to Bascom ? The offishels is ab Dr. Lyman Beecher once said : ishionusts, and that money is divided in other than logitimate channels. These vandals hev macadamized a mile uvroad nave no other idea of religion than tha it is the means of getting to Heaven between the Corners and Garretstown, andbuilt a bridge over the run. Kin yo when they die. As to doing anything for God while they live, it does not enter blame poor Bascom for wantin to leave nto their plans." I tell you, my brethren, hero.

· · · · ·

I hey heard of yoor success and am I do not believe there is one in five hur glad uv it. Wood that I could get into dred of such professors, that will reach suthin uv the sort I Wood my fate wuz different. But we can't keep; all a grotrue religion that is above all such contemptible meanness." cory. I sell stay here, and whan all the people iz gone I shell go down. Thank KINANAH POURAM.

a conuine diamond was burned in an atmosphere of pure oxygen. The influence had better be an old maid for four thou of trees and plants upon the air we sand years, and then join the shakers thoughtful and expectant love, the gentle breathe was then discussed, and the lec- than to buy repentance at this price. No ninistration that disencumber us into turer stated that there is a gentleman in woman ever made this trade who didn't New York who possesses two large get either a phool, a mean cuss, or a big aquaria, in one of which the water has clown for a husband. not been changed in four years and the two flights of stairs.

rately ascertained.

·····

· · · · · ·

tion.

7. In digging down into this subject, I life in the water keeping the fish in a ther I get. It is much easier to inform von who not to marry than who tew, for the reason thereas no more ov them. I don't think you will foller my advice low gas to pass through and ventilation if I give it and therefore I will keep it, was greatly aided thereby. He had no for I look upon it as I do upon castor ile doubt that pipes would presently be laid a mean dose to give a man and a mean through the streets, leading into all prione to take. But I must say one thing girls, or vate houses like gas and water pipes, but containing oxygen, so that the air of a spile. If you kan find a bright eyed, coom becoming foul, by merely turning a healthy, and ballastered boy, who looks faucet a fresh supply of pure air could be upon poverty as sassy as a child looks procured. A noted chemist of Munich upon wealth, who had rather sit down has had a room constructed of iron, with upon the curbstone in front ov the fifth pipes leading in supplying oxygen, so Avenue Hotel, and eat a ham sandwich, that the rate of actual burning up and than tu go inside and run in debt for hi consumption of the body can be accudinner and toothpick, one who is armed with that kind of pluck, that mistakes a defeat for a victory, my advice iz tu take him body and soul, snare him at onst, for he is a stray trout, of a breed very scarce in our waters. Take him I say, and build onto him as a hornet builds on a tree. 🛸

The art of being agreeable is to ap pear well pleased with all the company, and rather to seem well entertained with them than to bring ontertainment to them. A man thus disposed, perhaps. may not have much learning, nor wit, but if he has common sense, and someto turn around on the narrow landing. thing friendly in his behavior, it concil-Going down, however, was more iates men's minds more than the brightdifficult than going up, and his fore feet est parts without this disposition; and slipping he went through the sash of when a man of such a turn comes to old the second story window, thrusting his age, he is almost sure to be treated with head and shoulders out and presenting respect.

Somebody wants to know the name of man was so frightened at the appar the tune which was "played upon the ition that he made the best of his way feelings," and also if the "cup of sorthrough another second story window row" has a saucer. The same inquisitor and fell to the ground. The police would like to know if the "light of other days" was gas or electricity. Also, if this rich trimming was scarcely more having been sent for, they succeeded in extricating the horse from the window, the girl who "clung to hope" had not a slippery hold, and did not get fatigued by but had a terrific time, after taking him into custody, in getting him down the the "exercise of forbearance."

Some years ago, a person requested pormission of the Bishop of , Salisbury to fly from the spire of his cathedral. The There was a little joke practised on a tutor some time ago by a freshman. The tutor had become very much annoyed by ral safety, told him he was very welcome the passing around of notes in the division during recitaton hours. One to fly to the church, but he would ennoon a suspicious looking missive was courage no one to fly from it.

o cause a great deal of merriment. Now A conceited coxcomb, with a very was his time. The sport must be checked patronising air, called out to an Irish la at once ; he orders the paper to be at borer, "Here, you bog trotter, come and; nce to be brought to his desk. He re- tell me the greatest falsehood you can, ceives it and finds written on it, "Turn and I will treat you to a glass koy."-"By my word," said Pat, "an' over." It is turned over somewhat cauastonished gaze. Do those who persist in "beating It is common to speak of those whon time" with their feet during musical heaven; for there is a magnanimity in a flirt has jilted, as her vlotims. This is performances intend to convince their a grave error. Her real victim is the man she accepts. This reminds us of a neighbors that they have music in their

Tt is said there are no loss than 1,500 is a rose from whom every lover plucks Advice is like snow : the softer it falls boys and girls from the United States in. a leaf, the thorn remains for her future, the longer it dwells upon, and the deeper it sinks into the mind. the various schools of Germany. Inteland. N 1910 正常の observed going the rounds, which seemed tiously, and "Bold again " meets his yor honors's a gentleman."