

The Carlisle Herald.

CARLISLE, APRIL 7, 1870.

Alderman Cole has been elected to fill the unexpired term of W. W. Hays, deceased, Mayor of Harrisburg.

As John Lisziman, cabinet maker, was hauling a load of furniture to the Garrison, on Tuesday, the horse became frightened and ran off, overturning the freighted and damaging the furniture considerably.

Mr. John Irvine having sold out his stock of shoes and leased his store, Mr. D. A. Sawyer, formerly of the firm of D. S. Sawyer & Co., will during the next week open out with an entirely new stock of goods.

Charles Ramsey, aged about thirteen years, while playing on the rail road bridge at the eastern end of Main street, fell and dislocated his shoulder. The wound was dressed by Dr. Corning, and the boy is doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

The third of the series of monthly sermons to young men, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., will be preached by Rev. Dr. Wing in the evening of Tuesday, on next Sabbath afternoon, services commencing at three and a half o'clock. Young men particularly are cordially invited to attend.

The Garrison Amateur Dramatic Association will give an entertainment, at the Dramatic Hall, on Thursday, on tomorrow (Friday) evening. The program comprising this association are very fine actors, and always draw crowded houses. We hope to see the Hall overflowed to its utmost capacity to-morrow night.

The Land Department of the Union Pacific, on March 1, sold four thousand acres of land in Nebraska, west of Cheyenne, for a sum total of $14,200. The sale of these railway lands is rapidly increasing, and the Platte Valley will soon be thickly settled with industrious husbandmen.

Our old friend and fellow townsman, James A. Dunbar, esq., formerly an editor and proprietor of this paper, is in town on a visit. Mr. Dunbar is residing in Columbia Street, Carson, and is associated in his law practice with Attorney General Chamberlain, of that State. He is also solicitor to the Attorney General. We are glad to learn that Mr. B. is succeeding well in his new home.

The following officers of Silver Spring Lodge, I. O. O. F., No. 398, were installed on Saturday last: Wm. G. J. H. Bear, V. G.; C. H. Dumer, Secretary; H. G. King, Treasurer; L. Shaul, Historian. After the installation, the members of the Order held a grand supper at Lehigh's, who supplied all the necessities on such an occasion. The members present enjoyed and regaled themselves at the expense of the officers.

On last Friday evening, about eight o'clock, a drunken man by the name of Lehigh walked into the residence of Dr. Walk, on Pitt street, and engaged with a certain person lying. The doctor answered his questions, and escorted him to the place where the man lived, and walked along with him to the door, when Lehigh made an attack on the doctor, inflicting a number of serious wounds on him with a knife. Policeman George P. Myers arrested him and committed him to jail after considerable trouble.

The lecture of John B. Gough, on last Friday evening, was nearly as well attended as that of Miss Olive Logan, two weeks previous. The lecture advertised for the evening was "Fact and Fiction," but Mr. Gough, preferring the fresher one of "Inimitable," lectured on that subject. The lecture was rendered in his most eloquent manner. Opening with a few pleasing sentences, highly embellished with figurative language, the orator proceeded to present to the audience, in glowing colors, the peculiar character of circumlocution. Although the subject of the lecture was not one to bring forth great numbers, Mr. Gough managed in a masterly way to introduce an abundance of humor and pathos. After speaking for two hours, the brilliant beaver concluded with magnificent peroration. The applause was loud and frequent, indicating that the audience appreciated every word. The lecture was listened to from beginning to end with most profound attention.

A correspondent of the Lancet inquires says: "Brown corn has not received the cultivation and attention which its importance in the family of domestic plants, and the high price which it commands, entitles it to. To most farmers it is a crop about which they have little experience and information; and now, that its cultivation is beginning to be regarded profitable, many inquiries are made concerning it. The best seed comes from the West. As regards its cultivation, that is about the same as other corn; the only difference is, it must be planted thicker. Manufacturers like the bran fine, and consequently the corn ought to be planted pretty thick in the row, and cut off before it is fully ripe—about the beginning of September; then the bran will have a uniform color, and is very desirable, as a brown of a uniform greenish color will command a higher price in the city. A good acre can bring from five hundred to a thousand pounds of bran, which brings now in Philadelphia twenty cents per pound, or four hundred dollars per acre. Brown corn is now the most profitable crop that the farmer can raise."

At a meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association, held in their rooms on the fifth street, the lecture committee of Carlisle handed to the Association to be used for kindling, the sum of $78.75, the same being the proceeds of the recent course of lectures held under the control and management of the committee. On motion, it was resolved, "That the grateful and hearty thanks of the Association be tendered to the committee for their kind and generous donations, and with reward of their labor and exertions, and also

"By a decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, made on March 14, 1870, all soldiers who enlisted for three years, prior to July 23, 1861, and were honorably discharged for disease before the expiration of two years," are entitled to a bounty of $100. Men who enlisted after July 23, 1861, are not entitled under this decision. The undersigned is prepared to collect all claims arising from the above decision.

WILLIAM B. DUTCHER, Carlisle Pa.

At a meeting of the Cumberland county bar, the following action was taken on the death of Hon. John Stuart: On the day of last week, the Court held in session, Lemuel Todd, esq., assigned the death of Judge Stuart, and referred in the course of his remarks to the long connection of Judge Stuart with the court, and to the kindly relations which had always existed between him and the members of the court, and the members of the bar; and moved that as a mark of respect to his memory, the court do now adjourn, and that the members of the court and bar take action on the subject at a meeting to be subsequently held. This motion was seconded by W. M. Fenner, esq., and at his suggestion a committee of six were appointed to make report to the subsequent meeting, to be held on Tuesday following at eleven o'clock, a. m. And Judge Grant appointed Hon. P. W. Miller, esq., Lemuel Todd, esq., W. M. Fenner, esq., R. M. Henderson, esq., and A. B. Sharp, esq. The said committee on Thursday met at the Arbitration Chamber in the Court House, and Lemuel Todd, esq., was appointed to preside, and W. M. Fenner, esq., selected for Secretary, when W. H. Miller, esq., offered the following preamble and resolutions which are unanimously adopted:

It is with sincere regret that the court and bar of the county have heard of the death of the Hon. John Stuart. His name is a household word, and his kind and genial nature in social life, made him a universal favorite. For many years he was one of the Associate Judges of our courts. He first served under the old constitution; and when that was changed the people had such confidence in his integrity and his worth, that he was elected to the bench by their votes. In view of those facts; of our long acquaintance with the deceased, as one of the presiding officers of our courts; and the high regard we entertain for him.

Resolved, That the court and bar of Cumberland county do now adjourn until the day of the decease of the Hon. John Stuart which has been called hence, five years, after a life well spent, to a reward which awaits the just.

Resolved, That we offer our confidence to the family and relatives of the deceased; and that this expression of our sympathy be conveyed to them by the officers of this meeting.

Resolved, That the Judge of the Common Pleas be requested to add the foregoing preamble and resolutions to the record on the records of our courts as a mark of respect and esteem for the deceased, and to be published in the newspapers of this borough.

W. H. MILLER, President. A. B. SHARP, Secretary.
