CARLISLE, APRIL 21, 1870.

On Friday last as the workmen were engaged in erecting the new house of Mr. Rinesmith, on North Hanover street, the scaffolding fell and injured Wilson Lamisón, a bricklayer, severely.

Mr. William R. Gregg, Clerk of the Market, desires us to announce that he will, within the next two weeks, test the weights, measures, beams, scales, &c., of the dealers of Carlisle. Persons buying any of these articles can have them tested at the weigh room of the Market House.

During the past eight or ten days ein ployees of the Western Union Telegraph Company have been engaged in placing poles and wires on North Pitt street, preparatory to removing them from North Hanover street. This, we believe, is a very desirable change, as great difficulty has been experienced by the operators, in the transmission of messages heretofore which are so numerous on Hanover street. By this "change of base" the

The colored citizens of Carlisle and vicinity intend having a celebration and parade on Tuesday next, in honor of the ratification of the Fifteenth Amendment The U. S. Garrison Band has been engaged for the occasion. In the evening ere will be a meeting in Rheem's Hall, when addresses will be delivered by eminent speakers. It is the wish of the managers to have as large a turnout as possible, and we would ask our Republican readers in the surrounding townships to inform all colored men whom they may meet of the celebration, and urge

The following officers, of Marion Coun cil No. 88 of Jr. O. H. A. M., were installed on Tuesday evening, April 12, 1870: A. B. Spangler, C.; J. G. Thompson, V. C.; J. E. Bixler, R. S.; J. Askew, A. R. S.; E. J. Gardner, F. S.; E. E. Early, Con.; Charles Rhoads, W.; A. L. Connelly, I. S.; Charles Rhinehart O. S., by B. K. Spangler, D. S. C., of Senior Order, appointed by D. S. C., A. C. McKee, of Junior Order of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

To the Editor of The Carlisle Herald I see, in looking over your paper, the name of B. K. Spangler, of Carlisle, as a candidate for the nomination for the office of Sheriff. A more unflinching and hard working Republican cannot be found in the party, and if working for the good of the party is essential a nomination, then Mr. S. should re ceive it. From all I can learn in travel ing around, he will have the almost unanimous support of the lower end of the county. Lower Allen.

D. A. Sawyer has arrived with a splendid new stock of Spring and Summer Dry Goods, purchased at present gold prices. Mr. Sawyer possesses advantages over other merchants in not being encumbered with old goods, bought at high prices, and in having his brother, W. C. Sawyer, in Philadelphia, in the wholesale trade, who is always posted in the markets. Everybody should examine this new stock of goods, as great bar gains can be had and money saved.

Commonwealth vs. John Myers-Rape.

Assault and battery, with intent to commit rape. The defendant in this case is a young negro, aged about eighteen years. A few weeks ago he made an assault upon the wife of a respectable white citizen of Carlisle, as she was returning home from the country, in such a manner as to leave no doubt of his intentions. The negro appeared indifferent when brought into court, stated that he had no counsel and wanted none, and when arraigned, pleaded guilty.
