Idd this because I had used all kinds of advertised remedies, and had found them worthless, and some quite injurious; in fact, I despaired of ever gotting well, and determined to use no remedies herea.ter unless I knew of the ingredients. It was this that prompted me to use yobr remedy. As you advertised that it was composed of bachu, cubebs, and juniper berries, it occurred to me and my physician as an excellent combination, and, with his advice, after an examination of the article, and consulting again with the draggist, I concluded to try it. I commonced its use about eight months ago, at which time I was confined to my room. From the first bottle I was astonished and gratified at the benefit at effect, and after using it three weeks, we shill to walk out.
