THE HERALD FOR THE CAMPAIGN. We propose to furnish THE HERALD during the present campaign, at the low rate of THIRTY cents, or for the remainder of the year 1870 at FIFTY cents. We do this in order that our friends may have the advantage of a live campaign paper, at a very low price. PARTY TYRANNY.

The nomination of Mr. Haldeman by the politicians of the Democracy was not surprising. He suited them in all respects. He was an eager office hunter who was willing to give up his residence. spend his money, break his promises, or do anything, whatever, that was required to obtain political position. They were of precisely the same stripe, and of course harmonized Mr. Haldeman has now the nomination, and those who did his work have whatever consideration was agreed upon by the parties. To all this we have no objection, and we regard everything connected with the Congressional nomination to have been fully up to the teachings, practices, and requirements of the Democratic party.

There has however, been a movemen since the nomination which has taken us by surprise. Mr. Bratton was before the conference that nominated Mr. Haldeman. The conferees from this county withdrew. and protested against the nomination made by those from the other counties. Mr. Bratton concluded that he would not support the nominee of the conference, and retained his own-name at the head of the ticket .- The appearance of the last issue of his paper was the signal for the meanest, most embittered, and senseless persecution that a public man ever encountered from the members of his own party. He was immediately threatened, not with the loss of future political support, but with a cowardly attempt to deprive him of his business and living. A few of the creatures whom he had written into power and place promptly threatened to take away the official patronage that had heretofore been given him, and the whippers in of the party actually organized a scheme to take man's organ in the ting every consideration of propriety and courtesy, charges Mr. Bratton with being hired by the Republicans to become an independent candidate, and shamelessly, through its own columns, appeals to nocrats to discontinue their subscription to the Velunteer. The last two Congressional campaigns had thoroughly convinced us of the total depravity of the party in power in this district, but we were unprepared for this crowning act of meanness and villainy. Two years ago the managers of the party betraying their constituents, gave Mr. Haldeman, who was then hardly a resident of the county, the nomination over one who had for more than twenty years fought their battles vigorously and well. This year the direct voice of the county was disregarded, and Mr. Haldeman forced upon the ticket again, although he had been repudiated by more than a two-thirds vote. It might have been supposed that having thus twice wronged a faithful servant out of his reward, the action would have been fairly placed before the people for their sanction. To them, from the de- gold, or more correctly by the increase of cisions of those who had cheated him, the value of the currency he receives in Mr. Bratton fairly and temperately took pay for it, and let him understand also his appeal. But this would not be tolerated. To beat him into the support dom of Grant's administration, and if of a fraud, to enforce his praises of a man whom he despised, and to prevent any expression of opinion that is unfavorable to the nominee of the party, an unheard of tyranny is practiced, in the hope that force will carry out what fraud and corruption began. Whether or not Mr. Bratton will be driven from the field re- can administration during the last month mains to be seen ! but if he is thus forced to withdraw his name from the people, it will be a greater outrage on him and has been reduced more than $18,000,000 his supporters than was the purchase of during August, or at the rate of a convention that was elected to nominate him two years ago.

There will come a time when even such tyranny as is now practiced will fail to hold together the discordant elements of the Demogracy even in the Fifteenth District.

Clarly fortunate in their nominations for Congress. Among the list we find such veteran statesmen as Scholick, Bingham, Shellabarger, and Garfield. These are all men who serve their country from a sense of duty, and they are of that small class who do not seek office but are besought by their constituencies to accept. We will lose no Congressmen in Ohio

OUR CANDIDATE

The Republican conferces, of the sev eral counties, of this Congressional Dis-trict, met last Thursday, at Bridgeport, and after a number of ballotings nom inated the Rev. W. B. Raber, of Mechanicsburg, for Congress. Mr. Raber is a ninister of the Gospel, of the denomina tion known as the United Brothren, and s well and favorably known, to the peole of the district. He is a writer of remarkable force and ability, and an orator who has few equals in the State. For many years he has held a high position in his church, and has been regarded by all as a gentleman of excellent charoter, and commanding ability.

Mr. Raber's political convictions hav always been in harmony with the principles of our party. When slavery was still a power in the land, he denounce its iniquities with his full vigor. Whom rebellion came he advocated its suppre duties of citizens. He has always advoto enforce his views by solid argument

We have great hopes that this nomi nation will add strength to our excellent county ticket. Many of the best Demo crats of the district, are convinced that they cannot vote for Mr. Haldeman, uness they are willing to forfeit their own self respect. In our candidate they find a man who is personally above reproach, who has eminent qualifications for the office, and who owes his nomination lone, to the confidence and respect of his fellow-citizens: that he will receive all competitors. many votes that would be cast for no other republican, we are assured. We know he will poll our entire strength, and we are confident that no one-who casts his ballot for Mr. Raber, will ever on the casts his ballot for Mr. Raber, wi have cause to regret such action.

On September 5, 1870, gold brought 1184, although a great European war was in progress at the time. Will our Democratic friends give reason for this great advance in the national credit, that will not show the good results of a Republican administration? Of this number, Senators Cragin and Anthony have been re-elected; Mr. M'-('reery, of Kentucky, will be succeeded by Governor J. W. Stevenson of that State ; Daniel S. Norton (lately deceased) by Wm. It is supposed that Morrill of Maine, Wilson of Massachusetts, Willey of West Virginia, Robertson of South Carolina, Warner of Alabama, Revels of Mississippi, M'Donald of Kansas, Yates of Illinois, Howard of Michigan, Howell of Iowa, Ross of Kansas, and Thayer of Nebraska will pretty surely be succeeded by Republicans, which will give the latter a gain of one, as Ross has generally acted with the opposition since his vote against Johnson's impeachment.
