Ead taste in the Mouth, Billows Attacka, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpad liver and howels, which render them of un- qualed effects in cleansing the blood of all im- parities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system, Billoys, Remittent, hud Intermittent Feyer, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially, those of the Missi-sippi. Missord, Humas, Dannes, und many others with their vast tributaries, during the Sum- mer and Autumn, and remarkably so during scasoms of unaual heat and dynews, are invariably accom- manied by extensive derangements of the Stomach and Hver, and other abdominal vicers. There are always more or less obstructions of the liver, a weak- ness and trittable state of the stomach, and great torper of the bowels, being cloged up with viitated accumulations. In their treatment, a purgative exerting a pawerful influence upor these various organs, is eitentially necessary. There is no cathar- tic for the purposs field to Dr. J.
