The Carlisle Kerald VOL. 71. NO. 10.

THE appropriations made by the last sension of Congress for the expenses of the Government during the coming year amount to $160, 414, 681.62.

THE Board of Public Charities at it last meeting removed Gen. Thomas Kane as President, and elected Geo. Hannon, esq., in his stead. This action sum, and the much larger one that rewill be heartily approved by all sensible persons who are acquainted with the gentlemen named WILLARD SAULSBURY, of Delaware, rose to address the Senate after the meeting of the Forty-Second Congress, which he was not a member. Saulsbury is so often in a condition to make mistakes, that the occurrence was not at a surprising.

LET the people understand that the Democratic party in this State, with all its pretensions of reverence for the will of the people, opposes a measure which is intended to allow them a vote on one of the most important matters connected with their municipal government.

On Monday evening the local option bill passed the House on third reading. Yeas, 51; Nays, 85. The vote was almost strictly a party one. The bill now goes to the Senate, with the chances that that body will send it "where the woodbine twineth." dates.

WE are glad to know that the Commissioners have gone to work vigorously to abate that terrible nuisance which was complained of in our last number. We have strong hopes that THE HERALD will succeed in making good and effective officers out offour county fathers. even yet. 🥐

THE whole country will be gratified at the re-election of Hon. James G. Blaine, Speaker of the House of Representatives, and Hon. Edward McPhorson, Clerk of the same body. They are both gentlemen of great ability, unimpeachable character, and consistent and active Republicans. Two better men could not have been chosen. _____

The Democracy in the Senate are showing their sense of fairness and honesty in the apportionment bill just reported. Philadelphia with a Republican, last Fall with a Republican majority of over 8,000, would have elected two Democrats and two Republicans under on the Hudson, and the canals, interfered the provisions of the present" bill. This is making an even division with a much with the nice little scheme of the vengeance.

HON. THOMAS I. BURROWES, one of the most prominent citizens of the State, died recently at Lancaster. He was Secretary of State during the administration of Governor Ritner, and has filled the offices of Superintendent of Common Schools, Superintendent of Soldiers' Orphans, and Mayor of Lancaster city.
