HENRY WARD BEECHER in a recent EASTER comes on the second Sunday The Carlisle Merald. HARRISBURG LETTER. MRS. DEAN RICHMOND has set up ; ONE hundred and fifty laborers are at article, discourses of the Sumner trouble of April, or the ninth proximo. As river, in Maine, have been carried away $25,000 monument to her husband' work on the Iron Mountain and Helens HARRISBURG, March 21, 1871. in the following manner. It will hardly be allroad, by which the route from St. citizen of this place once used to remark, by the ice? iemory, in Batavia, N. Y. VOL. 71. NO. 12. During the past week the city has pretended that Mr. Beecher is the tool of RECENT, floods in Mississippi have do EUGENE DEJAZET SON OF Mme Dejazet. ouis to New Orleans is to be shortened "and the truth it was plain," we need swarmed with strangers. The people anybody, has'nt capacity enough to comiot expect any clear or settled weather great damage to the plantations. All and Rosa Didler, of the Comedie Fran-the lowlands have been overflowed. cause, are dead. 120 miles. from the anthracite regions, who repre THE NEW HAMPSHIRE ELECTION. rehend the situation, or isn't a sound, until after "them Easters are over." aise, are dead. THE boiler of a portable saw-mill a sent every phase of the present coa onsistent, and reliable Republican. We The result of the contest in New SEVEN hundred men are employed o VIRGINIA housewives make the best o Millersburg, Ky., exploded on Monday difficulties, are here in great force, and Some of our farmers have already mmend Mr. Beecher's article to some Hampshire has been disastrous. The the Eastern division of the Pennsylvani last, instantly killing the proprietor. will remain until the Senate-Judiciary pickels, and are forming companies to owed their oats. At least we have been Granite State has wheeled out of the f our doubting co-laborers. canal, in deepening the avenue of travel. Frank Wolford, and seriously injuring Committee has finished its labors send them to Northern cities "The Senate of the United States has informed of one gentleman in Middlesex Republican column, and gone over horse, In addition to these, the ordinary lobby the engineer and his assistant. A SHOE manufactory at Rochester en IT' is said that 'ex-Senator Ross' wil township having done so, some three decided the public good required that foot and dragoons to the enemy. Bes in very full force, and hundreds of A TERRIFIC tornado occurred at St another man should take Mr. Sumner's ploys nearly 500 workmen, and its busi soon publish a new newspaper in Law weeks since. Look out for an early oat fore the election we had the Governor, ersons who have some particular perless amounts to $700,000 a year. rence, Kansas. He began active life as a Clair county, Illinois, last week, destroyplace, as Chairman of the Committee on Legislature, and the whole delegation to harvest. sonal ax to grind, have also put in an ing over twenty farm houses, outbuild THE New York Star advises people t Foreign Relations. We presume this printer. Congress; since the election, we are in a appearance. The hotels are filled to PARKER PILLSBURY, the well-known ings, trees and fences, near Lebanon, and minority in both branches of the Legiz.' step was taken on purely administrative die now, as the undertakers are adver-WE have added a number of subscrib erflowing, and their proprietors wear killing one man and two women. tising "a whole funeral for $25." grounds. It was believed that at a criti. bolitionist of former years, preached in ers to our list during the past month lature, haven't a single Congressman, very jubilant countenances. They hope and no Governor. Occasionally Efter cal period in the negotiation of affairs We extend thanks to our friends for pat THE .. West Concord, N. H., woole Indianapolis, on Sunday, in favor of the present condition of things may conronizing us, and are ready to receive an important to a degree seldom surpassed a disaster, those that are wrecked, conmills are adding machines to knit jack 'free religion," Items About Home. tinue indefinitely. inlimited number of subscribers to THE in the lifetime of a nation, the Adminis ets, which will give employment to fifty GILMORE has nearly completed his hissole themselves with the reflection that Among the notabilities who have been HERALD. Let the good work go on. tration and the country could be better it might have been worse, but the New oman. tory of the Peace Jubilee, which he con in attendance for some time, are Judge THURSDAY, MARCH, 23 1871 served by another man, who, though he would not surpass Mr. Sumner in noble Railroad, Fran ... B. Gowen, President integrity, nor approach him in learning, of the Reading Railroad, and Mr. Siney, might have the capacity of being a better President of the Workingmen Benevocounselor, and a temper which should lent Association. These gentlemen repnot offend the self-respect of those who resent both sides of the great coal con were obliged to maintain confidential retroversy. When they are not in attendlations with him. ance on the Senate Committee, they If Mr: Summer had been turned out of may be seen on the floors of the Four men, with blackened faces, made his position on account of his life-long Assembly, talking most graciously to advocacy of liberty, or on account of his everybody who has a vote on the impendfidelity to great national interests, or be-cause he honestly held views of policy ing question. Perhaps no three mon day night. in the Commonwealth have just now ST. PATRICK'S DAY was generally cole more power to accomplish good or evil, than have these railroad Presidents, and the man who controls the labor organiza-World their home. tions of the coal regions. A MAN who stole a box of paper colin both Houses, on general politics. In the Senate Mr. Billingfelt introduced came a raving maniac. resolution deploring the removal of Mr. AN old villain of fourteen, in Dover, Sumner, which the Democratic majority and himself passed. There was the us nal amount of speech-making on the subject, in which there was little that was remarkable on either side. In the House similar resolution, attaching to it, how ever, an allusion to the New Humpshire election. This was debated at very considerable length, and 'developed the fact that the Democrats were exceedingly hard up for material out of which to make capital, but did not indicate any material trouble in the Republican camp. A very unusual parliamentary strategy progress that.

was adopted by Speaker Webb last week to crush out certain measures that were considered of doubtful propriety. The through the papers, and we expect to bills creating commissions for the city of hear of his tragic end. They shoot men Philadelphia had been referred to their on far less provocation in Memphis. proper committees, and were likely to be reported favorably. Oue morning the Speaker surprised the House by the annonncement that he had increased the committees which had these bills in with so much flour. charge, and named the additional members from those who were known to be hostile to the bills. This new element in at once, and the consequence was that the commission bills were reported dation. This in effect, killed the bills a two-thirds vote to take them up. This was certainly a stroke of pretty shar got mixed practice on the part of the Speaker, but it is claimed that the exigencies of the case justified his action. The House has disposed of the appro priation bill, and considerable other in portant legislation, including the bill for the calling of a Constitutional Convention and the Local Option Bill. The Senate has done little of importance, except passing the iniquitous apportion ment bill. It is rumored that it is de which the Constitution makes the Extermined by the Democratic caucus, that ecutive and the Senato co-operative. here shall be no further legislation un-Neither the President alone, nor the til the House agrees to the apportion Senate alone, can make treaties with ment bill as adopted by the Senate of foreign nations. The Constitution ormakes such a modification of the regisdains that in some things their action try law as will be satisfactory to the shall be co-ordinate. To put a personal Democracy. If this be so, it will only be enemy of the President at the head of the

SEVERAL bridges on the Androscoggin

THE sugar orop in Jamaica this year Packer, President of the Lehigh Valley will be unusually large, and is estimated at 40,000 hogsheads. Last year it was but 31,000.

him by the horns.

by the Blondes.

ing the shoemaking trade.

CAPT. ROGERS, au English officer

India, has invented a tiger trap, to be baited by a woman. In the absence of divorce courts, the bait is to be furnished of nearly 109 years.

by unhappy husbands.

rigorous surveillance.

refused to subscribe a kreutzer.

CHAPLAIN DRAKE of Barnesville, O.

as called a convention of the chaplains who were in the field during the rebellion to determine the best method of making their army observations and experi-high. They attain this enormous stature

Sisson.

GREECE' is the only one of the'Euro pean nationalities that has not recog nized the French Republic up to this time.

n unsuccessful attempt to rob the First National Bank at Indiana, Pa., on Frid brated throughout the United States by the Sons of Erin who have made the New

There have been a couple of field days ars was put in a loathsome dungeon, in the debtors' prison at Chicago, and be-

> Illinois, abducted an innocent little maiden of thirty-two, the other day, but they were pursued, and the tendor dove THE lumbermen of Wisconsin have ocen unsuccessful this season, and are oming out of the woods in large numbers, all hopes of retreiving the winter's misfortunes being at an end. Saturday, aged 68. THE correspondent of a South Jersey paper, writes to the editor that "your paper has been going about here like a greased steam engine on wheels." Queer day, and he will begin very soon.

A MEMPHIS gentleman is calling another a "Disciple of Erriascopialus" An exchange noted the fact that Louisville, Kentucky, received in one day 255 barrels of flour, and 808 of whisky, and then wonders what they did

To manufacture of reaping and mow ing machines, has attained such large proportions as to make it one of general nterest. The annual production is now stimated at about 125,000 machines. A MOBILE paper is indignant at a otemporary, for announcing that Mobile is the fourth coffee pot in the ountry." Investigation proved that 'cotton port" was meant, but the thing

THE Michigan State Prison convicts are tortured by a hand organ, which the varden hires a man to.grind. They are petitioning for the restoration of capital punishment. THE value of whale catchings brought into New Bedford in 1870 was $3,190,-

954. During the same period the value of imports at the port of Gloucester was $3,724,500. It is said that the great astronom religion. tein. It is in order now for some as-THE race of giants is renewed in Misonomer to tell us what is to become of souri in the persons of a man eight feet Charles Sumner. and six inches in height, with a twelve A NEW cattle disease has appeared in year old daughter already seven feet

Mercer county, Illinois. The animals siders a greater feat than the festival it HIGH-The Susquehanna.

Low-The price of eggs, ; selling GEN. D. C. BUELL is mentioned as ; Democratic candidate for Governor of market at 12 and 16 cents per dozen. Centucky. The Republicans will take THE old Town Council adjourned to die on Friday evening last. THE Prairie Farmer prints a portrait THE Orphans' Court was in session of a hog "weighing seven hundred pounds, and bred by H. M. and W. L. Tuesday. THE latest expression-"You kn low it is yourself.' CHICAGO is pleased. Fechter has de THE roads in the country are said parted, and there remain "The French be in an almost impassable condition. Spy," "Neck-and-neck," and "Lurline," fully 150 lbs.

FLITTINGS are now the order of th A RELIGIOUS weekly attributes Clara ARRESTED .- James Bell, a colored lad SUBSCRIBE for THE HERALD, 2.00 pe Louise Kellogg's success as an opera year, in advance. singer to the fact that she was reared in,

THE blue birds, and robins send forth and still adheres to the Methodist faith. Egolf, residing up town. James was into a shifter in the vicinity of the round heir sweet notes every morning, bright WM. MUTHART, now serving out a. placed in "Fort Foreman" until the house in that city." The injured man and early. twenty years' term in the Montgon April court. THE juveniles are already "picking" county prison for horse stealing, is learneggs; warning us of the approach of MR. WM. M. THOMPSON, of this place Easter. FELIX BOYLAN, who was probably the has succeeded in obtaining the position WE noticed some of the young "sports oldest man in the United States, died on of business agent for the Celebrated Cole Saturday night, in New York, at the age igged out in white vests on Sunday man Family. They left on a tour of th

ast. Rushing the season, we think. Western States on Monday morning last, HON. E. W. NESBIT, formerly Judge Tur squares are already presenting a and will probably re-visit this place reen appearance, bearing evidence of of the Supreme Court of Georgia, and next Fall. the arrival of Spring. member of Congress from; that State from 1888 to 1840, died at Macon on THE Cumberland Guards, a military SEE Sheriff Foreman's list of sales, which appear among the new things of ompany recently organized at Clovers-THE Boston Journal announces that the week. ourg, this county, received 50 Leman Messrs. James R. Osgood & Co., have en-WE call the attention of our readers gaged Mr. F. Bret Harte to write excluhe advertisement headed "To the tant General's Department last week, Daniel A. Barnhill is the captain of this hotel in that city: sively for the Atlantic and Every Satur-Working Class."

organization. Two daily trains run through to Pin Grove, on the South Mountain Railroad ONE of our subscribers, not many miles instead of one as heretofore. listant, residing in Middlesox township, THE jail is full of prisoners ; some ser has paid up his subscription to THI ing out terms of imprisonment, while HERALD until March, 1873. This grateere are about 14 individuals for trial ful rememberance of the printer is worthy

AMONG the French prisoners in Gerat the approaching Quarter Sessions. of imitation by all our subscribers. Who nany is a grandson of Jerome Bonaparte, ST. PATRICK'S DAY .-- Friday last, was will be the next to follow his example? Prince Charles Bonaparte. He is quarobserved simply by the wearing of the tered at Lootzen, Prussia, and is unde 'evergreen'' in the hats or button-holes MR. LEVI BRENNEMAN has of many of our citizens. appointed Assistant Clerk in the post-

FRITZ REUTER, the famous Low Get A STEAM fire engine passed through office in this place, vice W. M. Thompson nan novelist, has lately lost a good deal this place on the noon freight west, on resigned. Mr. B. is well-known in this of his popularity in Germany by violently Saturday last. We did not learn its desommunity, having held a position in attacking the Jews in some of his public the First National Bank for several years TROUT fishing commences on the first Mr. W. H. II. Widner, still retains his THE Emperor Francis Joseph, when of April. The followers of Isaac Walton position as Chief Clerk in the postoffice. called upon by Henry Lambe to take should note this, and get their fishing some_stock in the new theatre which tackle in readiness. Lambe is going to Build in Vienna, latly PAY UT .-- We would be pleased to WM. FRIDLEY, on East Louther street eceive visits from those indebted to us has a large collection of stoves, and also It is said that Louis Kossuth, who has at an early day. The first of April i a great variety of tinware. Give him nearly finished his autobiography in apidly approaching, and but very few call of the persons indebted to this establishseveral volumes, has hitherto beeffunable SOCIABLE HOP.-A sociable hop wi to find either in Italy or in Germany a ment have "put in an appearance," as be given in the Empire Hall, West Pom-fret street, on Thursday evening, the yet. - Friends don't be backward, we are once to any member of the Association, publisher_willing to pay him an adequate always ready to welcome you to or hirtieth instant, at 8 o'clock p. m. sanchum. THE attention of our readers is called to the advertisement of Lands for the FAREWELL SERMON .- On Sabbath even andless, and Homes for the homeless, in ling next, March 26, Rev. J. Hunter, another column. pastor of the West Street Bothel church THE individual that "confiscated" for the past two years, will preach his ences useful in the cause of morality and oocket knife out of our composing-roo'n, farewell sermon. Rev. II. has been ap pointed to take charge of the Bethe would confer a great favor upon the church at Mount Joy, Lancaster county owner by returning the same. and will leave for his new home on the WE would call attention to the adverfirst proximo. tisoment of Armstrong, Cator & Co. altimore, Md., which appears in th

•

C. S. SPRAGUE, the gentlemanly Ad-AT a meeting of school No. 14, held vertising Agent of Dr. J. C. Ayer & March 8, 1871, the following preamble Co's., medicines, has been in town for and resolutions were adopted : the last few days.

need of a remedy.

faction.

cure every description of plain and fancy delphia with a large stock of goods.

THE HERALD office is the place to pro job work. By-laws and constitution for societies, executed promptly and in

FAT SHEEP .- Last week Mr. Benja

-- 0

cities, and at reasonable prices.

Patronize him: as he guarantees satis-

NEW STOCK .-- J. P. Neff, on West

Main street, has just returned from Phila-

Having closed out last year's stock, at public auction, he is prepared to offer wHEREAS, All-wise and merciful Provi-dence has seen fit to remove from our midst our highly esteemed school-mate, Ayer's Medicines are a standard article, and should be used by all having midst our highly esteemed school-mate, William Kramer; and wHEREAS, We deeply and sincerely mourn the loss of him who was so sud-nenly stricken down in his youth, and taken from a wide circle of loving and faithful friends; therefore, Resolved, That in this bitter hour of grief, we extend our heart fait sympathy INTERESTING TO HOUSEKEEPERS .--- TO know where to procure good and cheap stoves, tinware, &c. Samuel R. Claudy, No. 18 West Main street, has a very grief, we extend our heart-felt sympathy to the family of the deceased, pointing hem to the Gospel where the saddened, weary heart may find sweet rest in this, their the same family is the same set in this, large assortment of stoves, comprising all the latest styles, together with an endless variety of tinware, which he will leir hour of grief. Resolved, That the members of our dispose of on advantageous terms Stove repairing promptly attended to chool shall wear a badge of mourning or thirty days, to express the grief a the loss of our companion. our companion. Resolved, That a copy of these resoluions be forwarded to t e family of th ceased, and published in the papers of the borough. WILLIE P. SWARTZ,

W. H. PEFFER, C. W. STROHM, Com -----

as good style as can be obtained in the bargains in his new goods. He has 20, RE-ARRESTED .- Philip Baker, o 000 paper collars, all sizes, shapes and Mount Holly, was convicted of riot at colors; an endless variety of cuffs; a the August term of 1870, and sentenced magnificent assortment of the very latest to one year's imprisonment in the county in Givler, of Greason, sold a good flock | styles of neckties, cravats and fine linen of sheep, about 70 in number, to two handkerchiefs. The very best brands of jail. On or about the sixth of December last, Baker succeeded in making his Harrisburg butchers. The drove aver- smoking and chewing tobacco in town escape from prison, and no tidings of his aged 120 lbs ;" 25 of 'the sheep averaging | can be obtained at his establishment. whereabouts could be obtained until ACCIDENT .- On Monday evening last, two weeks since, when he was re-arrested. Samuel Caster, a native of this place, at After escaping from prison he immedibout 14 years of age, was arrested on the present time a citizen of Harrisburg, ately proceeded to Mount Holly, remain-Monday morning last, for assault and had one of his legs cut below the knee ing there but one night. He then took pattery, on oath of John and David and thigh broken, by an engine running "the , wings of the morning" and pro ceeded to a more " congenial clime." By some means or other the Sheriff became was in the employ of the Pennsylvania acquainted with his "new home." Ac Railroad Company at the time of the cordingly Stuart A. Foreman, turnkey of the prison, started in pursuit week before disaster. Two brakeman were killed, and the conductor had one of his legs, last, and succeded in re-arresting Baker, broken in the same accident. rest he was at the Pennsylvania Furnace, FHILADELPHIA'S NEW HOTEL -In the in Centre county, this State, having able hands of the Messrz. Mullin Brothbeen employed there about 3 months, as ers, who have for so many years cona day laborer.

ducted the Mountain House, at Cresson PENN TOWNSHIP TEACHERS' INSTI-Springs, Penn'a., the new St. Cloud TUTE .- Institute convened in Centre hotel, on Arch street, above Seventh, Philadelphia, has proved a decided sucville schoolroom on Thursday evening, March 9. President in the chair. - Roll rifles and accoutrements from the Adju- cess, just what it deserved, for there is called by the Secretary, and absentees no finer and more comfortable first-class marked. A portion of Scripture read by Miss C. Williamson; T. L. Handshew

FAREWELL SERMON .-- On Sabbath conducted a regitation in written with evening last, Rev. H. C. Pardoe, pastor metic, and Samuel Coover a recitation of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, in grammar. The appointed lecture for the past two years, preached his and essayist being absent, that portion farewell sermon to a large and attentive of the evening's exercises was dispensed congregation. Rev. P. and family will with. Samuel Keller read four selecleave for their new home in Mifflin, Pa., tions as an elocutionary exercise. The to-morrow, (Thursday,) carrying with discussion being next in order, the questhem the best wishes, for their fature pros_ tion, "are fletitions writings "miurious" perity, not only of the congregation, but was taken up, and debated by Rev. J. S. of all others who were fortunate to form Woodburn, Samuel Coover, Wm. Stough an acquaintance with the Reverend and W. A. Coover. The President the gentleman's family during their sojourn made the following appointments for next meeting : Miss Stewart, to read scripture; J. L. Henry to conduct a WE would call attention to the " Dress recitation in mathematical geography Rehearsal" of the Philharmonic Associ-W. A. Coover one in orthography; Miss ation next Monday evening, in Good Sadie Keller to prepare an essay ; Miss Stewart an elocutionary exercise The price of admission has been fixed Samuel Coover to deliver a lecture, and at 35 cents, and there is quite a brisk de-J. L. Henry, T. L. Handshaw, S. E. Williamsön and W. G. Stough, to debate. mand for the tickets, indicating that all will be disposed of before Monday even-

Notwithstanding the inclement weathr, the audience was large, and mani-Those desiring tickets should apply at fested its usual interest.

Adjourned until. Thursday evening. or at Carlisle Deposit or Farmers' Bank. March 16, 1871. SUDDEN DEATH .---- Our community was SELECT SCHOOL .-- Select scholars for startled last-week on receipt of the in telligence of the sudden death of Mr. School No. 11-Charles Humrich and Frank B. Isett. Mr. I. had been in this No. 12-Emma Myers, Emma Kieffer place the week before, completing his arrangements for crecting a large agricultural warehouse in the southern part Kutz

B. Isett, was found yesterday morning (Tuesday,) about 7 o'clock, dead in hi bed at his boarding house, the residence of Simon Brotherline. Quite's quantity a hemorrhage of the lungs, but on furthe examination a small revolver was dis of blood was discovered and the set tion was that he had bled to deat

No. 13-Bella Hoffer, Mary of this borough. Below we give the Todd particulars of his death, clipped from Wilson the Hollidaysburg Register of the fifteenth No. 15-Annie L. Shoemaker, Hallie instant : "A SAD AFFAIR

Kepler forecast the destiny of Wallon-counsels of a man who refuses to recognize them on one side of the council the committees could not be manipulated tion can lead it safely through the mere routine business with an arrogant the House with a negative recommen office-holder, but in matters of counsel, down on Gon. Grant with enduring anger, and imperiously refuses him a social re cognition. It may be said that the Chairman of Foreign Relations is an officer appointed by the Senate, that he has to do with the Senate and not with the Executives But practice has established vital relations between the Executive and the Committee of the Senate on Foreign Relations. That committee stands at the point at the dawn of their political day. Already they imagine their success assured. Their great men can now become Presidents. Some of their other -men can be Senators and Governors of States. A good many of them, who are not of heart, of unbounded industry, and of ordinary prudence, it will prove a great great learning. But is it less widely stands ready to find fault with what lower? It was stated, in the debate in the Senate, that Mr. Summer was not in soof party faith. As long as the adminis- cial relations, either with the President, tration does its duty faithfully to the or with the Secretary of State. The country, and violates none of the principles charge was not denied.; it was only met that those who have gave it power hold by saying that Mr. Summer was not at dear their should be no denunciation of all times ready to confer with General its workings. In all organizations their Grant or Mr. Fish on public affairs. Are must be mutual forbearance, in order these gentlemen likely to profit by the that their harmony and effectiveness be not impaired. The country has yet great use for the room door, and only knows them officially Republican party. No other organiza- on the other side? One may transact dangers of the future. In the hands of once-notice, out in matters of outlined, dation. This in effect, kined the bins the Democracy its ruin will be inevitable requiring confidential consultations, it is for the present session, as it now requires dangers of the future, In the hands of and speedy. No man who calls himself preposterous to suppose that the Presia Republican dare doubt this. Who then dent can be benefited by one who looks will take the responsibility of contributing to its overthrow? Tur Democracy are in ecstacies. Th Summer trouble gave them great enjoyment. The New Hampshire election fo lowing so closely upon it, has increased and multiplied their joy many thousands of times. They see in these events, great fortune for themselves. The streaks in the horizon are hailed Jy them as very much of men, can be postmasters, ctors, assessors and various othe leaders. The Sumner difficulty being the most recent occurrence on which differing from those of the President, or some persons could ride into notoriety, because he boldly stood up for the inand coming right on the eve of the elec- dependence and dignity of the Senate tion, did most of this unfortunate work. Had a month intervened for rational con-

Hampshire Republicans will hardly he credulous enough to extract comfort for

Like all the other Democratic victories of the last year, this New Hampshire affair is simply a demonstration that there are Republicans enough in this country for one party, but not enough for two. In other words, the enemy have achieved a victory through the divisions in our ranks, and the folly and shortsightedness of those who aspire to be thisconsideration

sideration, this defeat might have been man in the nation would have cried shame. avoided, but now we have the mortifica- and would have crowned him a martyr. tion of seeing a Republican State trans- But no such supposition is true. The ferred to the Democracy through our whole truth we suppose, lies in this, that own folly. Those who contributed most with all liis eminent excellence. Mr. to this result, would doubtless have Sumner does not know how to yield anyacted differently, had they not supposed thing to others. He does not know how

New Hampshire was safe under any to have a conscience supreme over himcircumstances. We hope now to see self without making it supreme over Mr. Skinner, of Franklin, introduced a them do double duty as'a penance for others. It is no news that the eminent their political shortcomings. Senator is a man of singular purity of If this sudden and unlooked for dis- life, of eminent disinterestedness, of iraster shall be the means of teaching reproachable fidelity, of great kindness some of our most prominent politicians.

and lasting benefit to the party. While known that he makes his own convicwe greatly admire the independence tions the imperious law of other men's, which speaks out for the right against that he is apt to regard as personal foes the action of the party, we have no all who do not accept his judgments, respect for that captionsness, which that he is a poor leader and a worse fol injures no material interest of the country and conflicts with no recognized principle-

things, by which people who have natu rally not much that they can do, make comfortable livings and in which they play the kind of tricks that are said to make angels weep. In every city, town and hamlet in the country, the Democratic else. politicians are just now figuring what kind of offices they would individually like to have thrust upon them. These anticipations and dreams are pleasant, but they are unwarranted.

Their own logic might teach the De culties which have long threatened to mocracy that they are without hope, and embroil two great nations that ought to that their boasts are idle. On what are be helpful to each other, and whose falling out would be hailed with delight by sions and our defeats. Say they, a party every despotic throne in Christendo in power will come to ruin, if dissen The Angle-Saxon race should stand to of power get along any better when its gether over the whole world. In negotisions exist in it. Well, will a party out eadersare jarring? But the Republicans ment of threatening difficulties the Presiating an honorable and lasting settlehave lost New Hampshire and they dent has a right to demaud that he shall cannot succeed. Well the Democracy have the friendly help of the best men in the Government, and no man whose the score about even on that question. temper will not permit him to speak to If a majority party cannot survive dissensions, we imagine a minority party that another is put in his place, who knows how to treat the President as a If the party in power can't afford to lose gentleman."

a small State, the party out of power can't afford to lose a larger one.

"WE have the authority of a promi-nent Republican member of the Legisla-ture for saying that the Local Option Law was passed in the House for the purpose of "pinching" the liquor dealers. If what our informant states be true, cor-tain Redical members of the ribu expect The Democracy need have no trouble among themselves in parcelling out their ors and offices in advance. The party that wins in this country must win by reason of its own merits. It cannot obtain power solely through the default of its opponents. It will not succeed with a loff when the the sole with the bill. It is said that the liquor dealits opponents. It will not succeed with a platform that is merely, a criticism, or an indictment of its adversary: People hear mon for their own olaims, not be cause their opponents are criticised. The Democracy have 'no principles. Every idea they have advanced within the last ten years has been exploded. -Lancaster Intelligencor. Every principle they have announced

This is a very smart dodge for capita has been proved false. Every prediction they have made has failed. They have among temperance people, but it won't The Whiskoy Ring knows its no record that does not proclaim their demen too well to get bled by any Radical feat, disgrace and dishonor. When they have atoned for their treason, when they pinchers. It knows the Senate is Democratic, and that the bill will, therefor have discarded the principles that have never see daylight in that branch. Doubt so often been repudiated, and when they less some gentleman, on that side would announce a creed that contains in it justlike to pinch the massure a little, and ice, equality and liberty, they may hope ice, equality and liberty, they may hope to conquer. Until then the blunders or dissensions of their opponents can afford them no hope.

NEARLY sixteen millions of the new

WE see by the last number of th loan were reported taken at the Treas-Valley . Sentinel, that that journal has ury on last Saturday. This, considering changed hands, all reports to the conthat the bonds cannot be delivered betrary notwithstanding. Mr. Coffey, the fore the first of May, is gratifying, and former editor retires, and Mr. Singizor, indicates that the entire loan will be placed in a few months. The fact, that lately of the Valley Democral, succeed him. The Sentinel has been in good the Government can borrow at five per cent, will call down the high rates of inhands heretofore, and will continue in terest which capital has carned since the good hands as long as it is controlled by war, and enable the business interests of Mr. Singizer. Both the retiring and the incoming editor have our best wishes for thers, and navigation will be open in a the country to command such accommodations as they may need, on reasonable their complete success now and hereafter. terms. We are rapidly approaching May they live long and prosper. solvency, and substantial prosperity.

NEWS comes from Europe of very so LAST week a very disgraceful personal rious riots and disturbances in Paris, controversy occurred in Congress between and fears are entertained that they may Gen. Butler and Speaker Blaine. These ond in a civil war. If France cannot gentlemen have no right to impair their subside into quietness and good behavior usofulness by such performances. Both after the severe lesson of last Summer, have rendered very valuable, services to it would be better for her to apply for adthe country, which they have no right to mission to the German Confederacy, obsoure, by angry discussion and, bad Doubtless William and Bismarok would behavlor: undertake her governmont.

another proof of the tyranny and disr nittee through which the Presider of their sworn duty as legislators that deis to be in sympathy with the Senate, is voloped Thi their action in the Dechert as if a gentleman should attach a galontested election case. vanic battery to the bell-pull of his door, It is supposed that the famous and then marvel that people preferred to transact their business with somebody million bill will come up during this week, in some shape, and also that the Border Damage Bill will be introduced. It is to be regretted that this action How this may be, time alone will dethe Senate took place, and still more that velop. It is pretty clear, however, from it was necessary to have it take place. the appearance of the lobby, that there But the country will hold the President are some pretty considerable schemes on responsible for the settlement of the diffifoot for the remainder of the session.

NEWS ITEMS.

CINCINNATI has a $100,000 whisky uit. BALTIMORE is seriously annoyed nad dogs. THE peach prospect in Delaware wa ever better than at present.

Iowa mourns its peach and cherry ospects, ruined by a sleet storm. IT is thought that iron ore abounds in Lagrange county, Indiana.

THE wild geese are flying North this ason soveral weeks earlier than usual. SUICIDE by an insane person does not itiate life insurance. AUBURN, Maine, makes about two illion pairs of shoes per year. THE present taxable property of the tion is estimated at $36,500,000,000. THE Richmond Courts admitted their about one ton of beets per hour, nigh st colored lawyer to practice last week. and day.

THE woman suffragists are converting In Maine, milk is hereafter to be sold hicago. by what is known as wine or beer meas ure. Our readers will hardly believe us PEACH trees are in full bloom in Little lock. Arkansas. -THE-European-problem -How-will Paris continue to be quiet. A WOOBEN factory is about to be es tablished in Parkersburg, West Virginia. A BALLET illustrating Paris during the siege amuses the people of Baltimore. DULUTH has no graveyard, and its eitizens protest. THEY have a real ghost near Provi-once. Rhode Island. strangled to death. IN Wilmington, N. C., it is AT a gathering in Bridgeport, Condeath to ask a man if he ever sold water ecticut, a few days ago, a request was made that the four front seats be vacated to add that there was no great amount A FULL professorship of political econmy has been established at Harvard mong the false teeth after the service University.

THE Spanish troops in Cuba took the oth of allegiance to King Amadeus on Monday.

THE tobacconists of Cuba have formed vas over." society for the protection of their in dian.

$1,000.

614. ·

BOSTON expects its rate of taxation TRAIN is free to roam whither he will. his year to be not more than $14 on THE Emperor William was born in 1795.

or bushel.

THE ice has broken up in the Maine PETER PILGER, of New York, was drowned. few days. MISS GEORGIA BENEDICT, a Wisconsi

In Kansas the farmers don't want any printer, has been ordained as a minister. The editor of an Arkansas paper comes worth. out in a card denying that he plays keno

NILSSON'S $25,000 investment at Peo-A HIPPOPOTAMUS was born a week or two ago at the London Zoological Garria; Ill., has dwindled down to one-tenth that sum. NEW YORK is fond of peanuts-the JEM MACE and the husband of Mrs. recolpts for one year were 550,000 bush. Scott Siddons ran a foot-race in Albany on Friday. Mace won. The St. Louis papers and people are just now congratulating themselves on Tennyson's physicians that the poet may to protect the frontier against the the completion of their new water works.

lose the use of his eyes. . . . · .

PERSONAL. ®

live but a few hours after the attack and corn cake, being too poor to have so far every attack has been fatal. One much else. Another argument for the man has lost twenty-three head in three vegetarians, or four days. VICTORIA, wife of the Crown Prince An extensive oil-cloth manufactory at of Prussia, is declared to be as economi-Elizabeth, New Jersey, is soon to be cal as her mother, the Queen of England, closed, the proprietors claiming that the and to be greatly assisted in her financial tery. business is not a paying one. Some conservation by her husband. The copyright.

seventy men will thus be thrown out of princely pair are reported to save nearly every other juvenile you meet on the employment. a million thalers a year out of their in- street, is chewing away for "dear life." An Englishman claims to have income. Vented a new microscopical writing-

THE Rov. H. P. Cusick stands six and machine, whereby the entire contents of one-half feet high among the ministers the Bible can, with the holp of his conof Maine. The Colby University gradutrivance; be written twenty-two times in ated him. It is not true that the Presi- be offered at public sale, in Rheem's Hall the space of a square inch. dont of that institution remarked to the this (Wednesday) afternoon, at 2 o'clock AN Irishman with a heavy lad's father, when he stated he wished p. m. The furniture is nearly new, and his shoulders, riding on the front the a horse car, was asked why he did not bet to raise him for the church, that he would do better for the steeple. That his bundle on the platform. He replied bioke is older than, Mr. Cusick. "Be jabers, the horses have enough to  drag me; I'll carry the bundle.' MISCELLANEOUS. THE New Orleans ice factory runs siz machines, each costing $25,000 in gold, THE equinoctial storm is doing its and freezes sixteen tons of ice daily. The water is pumped from the Missis THE public debt of Canada amoun sippi, purified, and frozen into blocks $107,000,000. three inches thick and twelve by twenty 15,000 bales of cotton left Savannah las four inches in area. week for Liverpool. A BEET sugar factory company a NIAGARA FALLS is to be the popula Blackhawk, near Madison, Wis., raised ummer resort this season. last year one hundred and sixty acres of

THE potato crop of Wisconsin is in beets, with an average yield of ten tons inusual danger from the potato bug. per acre'; and is now running through NOTRE DAME University, in Indiana as a professor of the Irish language. THE Republican State Convention Ohio will be held on the first of June A SHIP loaded with cotton seed, for when we state that, owing to its superior Hull, England, left Savannah last week ichness and plenty, it has heretofore ANOTHER cargo of oystors was shipped been disposed of down East by the peck from New York to London last week fo ed. A HOLDEN. Massachusetts, hunter los THOMAS GILL, a veteran newspaper re is dog in a singular manner. The dog porter, died in Boston on Sunday, at the by the carrier-boy. ran a rabbit into a hole, and began to age of 66. dig for him. A root impeded his A HEAVY fall of snow is reported progress, and he gnawed it off and conthroughout Montana Territory, within tinued digging, till the end of the severed the past few days. root caught in his collar, and he was Tun latest returns give Boston, Massa husetts, a population of 250.526. of vhom 87,986 are foreigners. Tun "human hair" exported from Bohemia to the United States during by ladies over twenty, to make room for 1870 represented the value of $8,545. hose under that tender age. A malignant reporter says : "It is unnecessary A THIRD meeting of the oreditors of the Boston, Hartford and Erie Railroad of moving, but there was some rattling is to be held in New York on the twenty-eventh. THE new comic paper published a Washington, calls Mr. Sumner "the old Bay State Lion" and "the Numidian

THE San Francisco Chamber of Con nerce adopted the resolutions which were passed by the late National Board f Trade at Buffalo. REV. B EATON, for thirty years rector f Trinity Church, Galveston, Texas, livery stables. died there at four o'clock p. m., Sunday, while delivering his sermon. NEW YORK complains of being over ommissioned." the "tax lovy commis ion," and "gas commission" being the ersa del P "last feathers."

Two companies of the Seventh Cavalry have been ordered from Fort Harker, THERE is some fear on the part of Kausas, to the Saline and Solomen rivers, Indians.

ent issue. Orders from a distance bromptly attended to. SABBATH last was, truly, a "pet day," both Sexes, from the publishing house of and hundreds of our citizens availing Parmielce & Co., 181 Race street, Cincinthemselves of the delightful weather, nati, Ohio The work comes before us visited the old gravoyard and the come with strong testimonials, and it will n doubt have a very large sale. The pub-

READY SALE .--- Chewing gum ; nearly lishers want agents in every town and county, to whom the most liberal terms will bo given. Some there are, too, of larger growth, who indulge in this habit.

Ronneny, --- Two weeks ago last Mon A PORTION of the household furnitury day, Mr. Lewis Fabor and lady, of the of the late A. K. Rheem, deceased, will Cumberland Valley-hotel, of this place, took a trip to Newville, returning the same day. In their absence their sleeping-room was entered and a drawer.

of the very best quality. containing between $500 and $700, unlocked, and the money stolen the refrom. A NUMBER of the female persuasion The perpetrator of the theft is unknown, have donned the "shaker" or" sunalthough suspicion rests on one or two downs," at the same time carrying paraindividuals, but nothing positive is sols, while others are still arrayed in their nown. The deed must have been com muffs and furs. Onite a difference Vi aitted by some person well acquainted opinion between the fair creatures. with the premises, as a stranger in this ommunity would have been entirely ignorant of the whereabouts of th In our notice of Mr. L. T. Greenfield's new store room, two weeks since, we money. omitted to mention that the wood-world for the windows, on the second and third A SUBSCRIBER OF THE HERALD .---- We floors, was made by Messrs. McCommon publish the following letter, received on & Beetem, of this place. Monday last, from a constant reader of THE HERALD. As the parties referred IMMERSION .- On Sabbath last, Rev. J.

to were residents of this county, the Hunter, pastor of the Bethel church, in letter may prove interesting to their. this place, immersed two individuals in many friends and acquaintances in "these parts." It reads as follows : the Letort spring, at the foot of Pomfre street. Between 400 and 500 persons Monmouth, Ill., March 16, 1871. were present on the occasion.

EDITORS HERALD : 1 herewith enclose ---you draft on New York for $5.00 in pay-MANY of our citizens will move on the ment of my subscription to your paper first-proximo. - Town subscribers : thould Twenty-five years have nearly elapsed not fail to notify us of any contem plated since, with my father's family, (myself change in their residences, in or ler to a lad,) I left my native hills in secure the correct delivery of their paper Mother Cumberland," for the Far West, and after a tedious journey of seven weeks, settled in this place. To the best MR. JAMES WEISER, of the firm of Fryof my knowledge, there was not at that singer & Weiser, was taken sud denly ill time any settlers in this part of the State on Friday last, and on Saturday was refrom your county, but now, how differmoved to his home in York. We hope ent. I can count, myself, over thirty to be able to speedily announ ce his refamilies, residents of yours. Having been covery and return to our town. a constant subscriber and reader of your paper, (including the subscription of my 20 years of age, slept in the room directly father: whilst I was a boy) during this entire period, it is needless to say I feel vory much attached to it. Something almost every week in its columns, reminds use of my youthful days. in December last.

My eyo first glances on the marriages and deaths, although there are but few On Tuesday last the days and nights were equal, according to the Almanac. in the former that I can recognize, ex-Spring is said to commence on this day, cept through the family names. In case the twenty-first of March. We hope of the latter, though it is very different the prediction may prove true this As I read of the death of the fathers' in old South Middleton, especially those in the "Old Oak school house" district, THERE appears to be a lively competi tion going on at the present time, be tween the proprietors of some of the Competition, we know, "is the life of trade," and applies with as much force to the livery business as any branch of trade.

The next term of the Court of Oyer and Terminer and General Jail Delivery will be held in this place, on Monday, April 10, at ten o'colck a.m. Wa would they are both natives, and fifty years' be pleased to have, our friends from difresidents of your county. They are alforent parts of the county, in attendance ways anxious to see THE HERALD when call probability, the cause of the fire would at Court, drop in and see us. it arrives. Yours, truly. -W. M. GREGG.

Hoover and Kate Lindsey. A NEW WORK .- We have just received No. 16.-Frank W. Craighead, copy of a new work, entitled " Physical Hassler and D. C. Blair. Life of Man and Woman ; or Advice to No. 17-Katie Hoffman, Nellie Millward and Lizzie Gardner. No. 18-W. W. Thayer, G. W. Cornman and J. B. Fagan. D. ECKELS, Pres. S. S.

dently demented."

the fire originated in the dwelling of Mr.

James Jones (colored) residing on North street, between Pitt and West streets.

Mr. J. informs us that it has been customary for him to "smoke his pork" in the chimney, but he always took the William Jones, a young man of about were extinguished and thus a serious conflagration avoided. The fire was the meat and falling on the "dying embers," which soon started the flames and never have been known.

was all right before retiring.

February and March, 1871.

nd Annie Schuchman.

and Mary Ensminger.

and Albert Brindle.

No. 14-John Rhey,

Thomas Kerr.

in our borough.

Will Hall.

ing.

covered beneath the cover, and what ap-pears to be a bullet hole about the middle of his forchead. His death must have WHO IS HE 2-We clip the following from the Lancaster Inquirer of Friday last, referring to a clergyman hailing from this county:

"REFORMATION IN THE CITY LOCKUP shown evident signs of insanity. He was a young man greatly respected in this community, and was for a number of years a member of the irun of McLan ahan, Stone & Isett, in the foundry and An individual calling himself Rev. William Perry, and claiming to hail from Cumberland county, approached Officer machine business. Ho was aged about 30 years, and his parents reside at Spruce Creek, Huntingdon county. His sad death casts a gloom over the whole com-Cramer last night and asked for lodgings. He was escorted to the city lockup, where he spent the night. This morning he arose at an early hour, and asked the keeper whether he ever praved ; but be-manity. -An inquest is to be held this morning, (Tuesday) as soon as the arrival of the coroner from Altoona, when the facts of this sad affair will be examined into and fore he had time to receive an answer. remarked that he would pray for the Reoper-and thereupon knelt down and reported upon. Since writing the above, an inquest vas held and a verdict rendered 'That leccased came to his death by a pistol When brought before Recorder Evans deceased came to his death by a pistol, shot in his forchend, inflicted by his own, he declared himself to be "A Traveling Pilgrim," and that his special mission iands.

was to arrest the fearfully rapid progress REGISTER OF SALES. of the habits of swearing, smoking and chewing tobacco. The "pilgrim" is not Bills for the following sales have been a bad looking man, although far from printed at TUIS OFFICE :

wearing the appearance of a clergyman On Thursday, March 23, by Abne Neither has he the proper credentials for Miller, in Middlesex township, 1 mile northeast of Middlesex, extensive sale of a minister. He is probably not more than twenty-eight years of age, wears a personal property, horses, cows, young slouch hat, pantaloons tucked in boots, cattle, farming implements.

and carries a black valise. He is evi-On Friday, March 24, by Samuel Myers, No. 67 North Pitt street, valu-FIRE.-Narrow Escape of the Occupants. able household and kitchen furniture. On Saturday, March 25, by Lieut. C. -Abont 4 o'clock on Friday morning P. Rodgers, at the Carlisle Barracks, 9 last, our citizens were startled from their Cavalry horses, condemned as unfit fo slumbers by the dread cry of "fire." On cavalry service. proceeding to the spot we learned that

On Saturday, March 25, by George w. Leas, at Sterrett's Gap, 6,000 chest nut rails.

On Saturday, March 25, by Mrs. Eliza Washmood, No. 78 West Main street. valuable household and kitchen furniture On Monday, March 27, by George necessary precaution to see that the fire Getter, at the Green Spring store, miles North-west of Newville, young horses, carriage, household furniture an store goods. overhead, and was first awakened by a On Monday, March 27, by H. W. & J. choking sensation, caused by the smoke A. Kaufman, in South Middleton townwhich filled the apartment. He immediship, one mile from Boiling Springs, on ately gave the alarm, and succeeded in the Carlisle road, horses, cows, young arousing the family, who were compelled cattle, &c. to make their escape by jumping from

On Tuesday, March 28, by Sarah Ann the windows on the second floor. In a Royer, administratrix, in South Middlevery few moments thereafter the flames on township, one mile south of Paper own, horses, cows, young catle, &c caused, no doubt, by the fat dripping from

[ANNOUNCEMENTS.]

HALL'S Vegetable Sleillan Hair Renew-r prevents the hair from falling off.

"A WORD TO THE WISE." We understand it is the intention of Messrs. Duke & Burkholder to open..np, the latter part of this woek, a very handthe fatter part of this word, a Counter dress goods, for ladies' and gents' wear. Their entire stock being new, will hav the double advantage of being new styles and low prices. All persons in need of dress or house fainishing 'goods, will find to thoir advantage, to reserve their urchases until they open their now bock. Give them a call, and they will s to compete : with any mor hant. Give them a call, and judge for yourselves.

speedily communicated to the fireboard Retween 400 and 500 pounds of meat were consumed, together with considerable furniture; the glass in all the windows was more or less injured, and also quite a number of pictures, looking glass, &o. The loss is fully $200; on which there is no insurance, the policy on the same having expired about one month

· ..

show their goods with great ph ndeed ; had fifteen minutes more elapsed they would all have been burned, and, in and yet, a quarter of a century has passed since then ; it seems a long time, and yet how short when we realize that it is past. My father and mother are still living here, being now part of my family; they are each' 75 years old, and since. The family made a very narrow escape memory carries me back to their old familiar faces, and the scenes surrounding the happy association of my youthful days are as vivid as those of yestorday, still in the enjoyment of good health.

1014

THERE is but one case of a ny importance to be tried in the Quarter Sessions. We refer to Peter O'Rouke, the man charged with burning the learn of Mr. Samuel Sharp; jr., of Newton township,