

PLAYED OUT—Overcoats. The days are getting longer. In season—Chip hats and linen dresses. ADVANCING. The price of eggs, owing, no doubt, to the late spring propensities of the "cackling" hens.

It is rumored that a fountain is to be placed in Ashland Cemetery, during the coming summer. THOMAS LEE, Sr., one of the oldest and most respected residents of Dickinson Township, was buried on Tuesday last.

WOMEN PRESENT—The Cumberland Guards, (colored) of this place, contemplate holding a grand picnic, in the grove at the Meeting House Springs, on Thursday, June 8.

A SUGGESTION.—We think it would be advisable to trim the trees surrounding the public square, as the branches are entirely too close, either for beauty, or for the good of the trees.

ENTERTAINING.—Mr. J. B. Plank, of Mount Holly, runs a market car between that place and Philadelphia. So that his citizens are no longer denied the privilege of getting fresh produce from the mountains, for their weekly supply of marketing.

QUARTERLY MEETING SERVICES.—Next Sabbath has been set apart for Quarterly Meeting services at the Mt. Zion Church, Prof. W. H. Trickett, will preach at 11 a. m., and Rev. T. Mitchell, D. D., at 7 p. m.

BOUQUETS composed of lovely flowers, are offered for sale in market, at prices ranging from 5 to 10 cents each, according to the size and in which they are gotten up. There will be a great demand for them on Saturday morning, owing to the fact that Decoration Day comes on the following Tuesday.

CHOSEN.—At the annual meeting of the Philharmonic Society, of Brooklyn, held at the Academy Music, on the evening of the fifteenth instant, Hon. Horatio C. King, of the "New York Star" was chosen one of the directors of the ensuing year. This is a deserved compliment to the gentleman.

On Wednesday the 11 a. m. train on the South Mountain Road, arrived at the junction with a wedding party, consisting of three couples, Mr. John Osborn, the gentlemanly and affable conductor, having placed an extra coach at their disposal. The happy couple rewarded his kindness by presenting him with a large and handsome cake.

ELOPEMENT.—The citizens of Mount Holly, have been unusually excited during the past week, owing to the sudden disappearance of two of their number. Without going into details, we will merely say, that the parties in this case, are an engineer, lately employed in one of the ore banks, and the wife of an employee of the Paper Mill. Their whereabouts are unknown, and the discomfited husband is left to mourn over the loss of his "worse-half," and six of his best fine shirts.

PORTRAITS.—We tender our thanks to Messrs. Bourquin & Walsh, law book sellers, importers and publishers of Philadelphia, for the receipt of a portrait of Chief Justice Gibson, which is greatly appreciated by all who have seen it. This firm supply the legal profession, photographed or engraved portraits of any one of the Chief Justices, at $1.00 each, or in neat walnut frames, $1.50, and the Supreme Court of the United States, price $1.00. Address, Bourquin & Walsh, 431 Walnut street Philadelphia.

FULL ASSEMBLY IN MARKET.—On last Saturday morning, between 10 and 11 o'clock, as H. Oise, from the rural district, in attendance at market, was being very drowsy from the loss of his accustomed slumber, fell asleep on his feet and dropped over. Making a considerable noise and commotion, a number of persons rushed to the spot and assisted him to rise. Some one cruelly remarked at this time, "that he was always asleep—being blind," but this was a cruel pun at his expense. After regaining his feet once more, he appeared to be thoroughly revived, and was not again caught "napping in market."

FLOWER TALK.—Certain persons are engaged in stealing flowers, shrubbery, &c., from graves in the old graveyard. A friend of ours informs us, that for three successive weeks, bouquets placed on the graves of his departed children, have been ruthlessly stolen therefrom, and destroyed. Suspicion rests upon certain parties, who, if detected, will be brought to justice. For the benefit of this class of persons, we publish the following notice, conspicuously painted and placed at the entrance to the said grounds.

"If any person shall wantonly cut, injure, deface or destroy any monument, tombstone, or grave, or shall break, injure, or take away any railing, tree, shrub or flower, planted or placed within the enclosure of said graveyard, he or she shall, upon conviction, be liable to any justice of the peace, pay a fine of not less than $1, nor exceeding $30, as said justice may impose, and pay the family the damage sustained."

THEIR will be a meeting of the friends of the American Tract Society, held in the First Lutheran church, in Carlisle, on Sabbath evening, the twenty-eighth, at 7 o'clock. Addresses will be delivered by the Rev. J. W. Ellis, District Secretary, and by the pastors of the churches. "The Society's business department sustains itself." Donations are needed only for the benevolent work of the society. These may be handed to him at the close of the meeting, or when he calls upon you at your homes and at your places of business. The Society is now distributing, gratuitously, in books, periodicals and tracts, $1,200 per week.

Any friends of the cause, who may not have the opportunity of meeting with Mr. Ellis, can contribute to his address at Catawissa, Pa.

THE following is the statement of the Society: In forty-five years it has issued 444,000 copies of publications, of which nearly 25,000,000 were sold; performed 4,407 years of Union Missionary Colportage, granted in publications at home and abroad $1,850,000, and made cash appropriations for the press abroad of $89,740.

It has issued 9,535 different publications in 142 languages, and 4,500 different publications, 408 in German, and 205 in Spanish. $800 will pay the salary of a Colporteur, $500 constitute a Life Director, and $20 a Life Member. There will be no services in the First and Second Presbyterian and German Reformed churches on Sabbath evening, in order to give these congregations an opportunity to be present at the meeting in the First Lutheran church.

ACCESSION DAY, (Thursday last), was observed in this place. DUTY—the streets. A street sprinkler would be just the thing.

PLANT—Butter, at prices ranging from 20 to 25 cents per pound. APPROVED.—Curtisman, Wm. B. Parker, can receive the appointment of Consul to Zante.

SABBATH next is White Sunday. If it rains on that day, there will be rain on the six succeeding Sabbaths. So say the weather-wise; of course they know.

A SPECIAL meeting of Marion Council, No. 88, Jr. O. U. M. W., will be held on Monday evening, May 23. Business of importance.

THE New York Star, a morning daily, is one of the "neediest" little sheets printed in this city.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Charles W. Sheaffer, of Mount Holly Springs, left for Leavenworth, Kansas, Monday morning last. He will be absent about six weeks.

WE learn that a number of the young men of our town have made arrangements for the first picnic of the season, to take place on Saturday, June 3, at Hunter's Run. This is destined to be a popular picnic-resort for parties from our town.

A SIXK.—The Commissioners have a number of workmen engaged at the present time, digging a tunnel in the jail yard. When finished, it will be 50 feet in depth, and 14 across. Beneficial results sometimes are obtained by gratuitous advertisement, as in the present instance. Let the good work go on.

IMPROVEMENT.—The Free Press, of the twentieth instant, printed at Strasburg, Lancaster county, Pa., by Geo. B. Raper, Esq., reaches us greatly improved in appearance, having just completed its one-hundredth year, a spicy little paper, and George appears to understand his "biz" in "printing" it. Success to it.

CHARLES E. MANTONLIN, Esq., has recently had the American House, with the adjoining building, repainted, and otherwise renovated till repaired—Captain Rains, the proprietor of the American House, is still prepared to tend to the wants of the traveling public, that may favor him with a call.

NEW GROCERY.—Alex. Klink, Esq., late of New Kingston, Pa., having recently moved to the new store room, directly opposite Thaddeus's hotel, has opened a full line of groceries, queensware, willowware, together with every article to be obtained in a first-class grocery. Mr. K. is hoped, by a strict attention to business, to attract the patronage of citizens residing in that neighborhood. Give him a call.

SUPREME COURT.—The following Cumberland County cases have been disposed of during the past week: The meeting of citizens residing in that neighborhood. Give him a call.

DAVIDSON vs. M'CALLISH & Son—No. 67, May Term, 1871. Cumberland County. Judgment affirmed.

THOMAS vs. M'CALLISH & Son—No. 104, May Term, 1871—Cumberland County. The order of the court below setting aside the exemption made under the exemption act is therefore reversed and annulled.

DECORATION DAY—A meeting of returned soldiers was held on Monday evening last, to make arrangements for the annual observance of "Decoration Day," which is to be held on Tuesday, the thirtieth of May. The meeting resolved upon a programme similar to that of last year. Invitations to join in the parade, will be given to Col. Sumner, and the men under his command at the barracks.

NOTICE.—The directors, teachers and pupils of the public school, to the various Benevolent and Fraternal Societies, and to the several Fire Companies, and it is hoped all will cordially join, and form an imposing procession. The co-operation of the ladies, is of course, confidently expected, not only in gracing the occasion with their presence, but in contributing flowers.

THE action of the meeting on Monday evening, was mainly preliminary. Final and complete arrangements will be made in an adjourned meeting, to be held in the Arbitration Chamber, on Thursday evening, at 8 o'clock, which it is hoped every soldier in Carlisle will attend. Though no programme has yet been issued, the exercises on Decoration Day will probably consist of a meeting in the Court Room, at 10 o'clock, in the afternoon, when all the modern improvements, with their respective advantages, will be assembled, and after an address by Rev. W. C. Leverett, who will be assisted in the exercises, by Rev. Mr. Fryberger, the flowers will be distributed and a procession formed to move to the various graveyards.

It is expected all the necessary details will be arranged at the meeting, on Thursday evening, for the observance of Decoration Day, with beautiful and imposing effect, so that no soldier's grave will be left without its appropriate tribute.

A debt we owe our country, to the Nation's latest day. The nation's children will all say, "You died for me and you." Four hundred thousand of my brave men like this one sacrificed all their lives for me and you! (Good friends, for me and you?)
