Republican State Ticket. FOR AUDITOR GENERAL, *. COL. DAVID STANTON, of Beaver. FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL, COL. ROBERT B. BEATH, of Schuylkill.

THE DEMOCRACY AS IT IS.

A Democratic State Convention met at Harrisburg last week, to nominate for Senator Rutan, of Beaver. Mr. candidates for State officers, and to announce anew the political creed of that party. Its nominees are men who were soldiers, who fought, perhaps, just as red, and the Legislative machine was well, and certainly, no better than at stopped. least one hundred thousand other soldiers, who are unknown and unheard, fifty miles from their present place o residence. 'General, 'or rather Colonel-transacted than at any former session. McCandless, who leads the ticket, when offered the position of a brigadier general, refused it on the ground that his self respect would not allow him to countenance the measures of the Republican administration, by accepting promotion from it, and declaring that the post of local legislation, nearly all of which, to honor was that of the private citizen, he withdrew from the field at a time when soldiers were sorely needed. It is only justice to him, to say that this piece of folly should not be taken as a fair index of his character. A lot of Philadelphia politicians, who, with a desire to use him, were flattering him to his ruin induced him to do this very silly act, for which he has doubtless repented often. He is, perhaps, as good a man as could be induced just now, to take a Democratic nomination for a State office. and he will be beaten just about as badly and not any worse, than would any one else on whom the honors of the Demo cratic party might have been flung. Capt Cooper, the candidate for Surveyor Gen eral, is a person who was doubtless introduced to Messrs. Cassidy, McMullin Lester Smith and John Tobin, about an hour before he was nominated and thus he and those magnates of the Demogratic party became mutually aware of the existence of each other.

But if the nominations were by means remarkable, the platform on which the gentlemen found themselves mounted, is one of the curiosities of American polities. All that is in it that can not be explained, to mean anything that is necessary to obtain the vote of anybody who needs conversion, are the following resolutions, and if they -are not unadul terated Republicanism, we don't know where to find the article. The first i the one which winds up the negro suffrage business, and is as follows :

'Resolved, That we recognize th binding obligation of all the provisions of the constitution of the United States as they now exist, and we deprecate the discussion of issues which have been set tled in the manner and by the authority constitutionally appointed,"

The second is the endorsement of th financial policy of Mr. Boutwell, and runs thus :

"Resolved, That the public debt i hinding upon the nation, and must be paid ; and that we are unalterably opples for the Democratic party. On disposed to any and all movements looking towards repudiation, direct or indirect. but in justice to the laboring and produc ing classes the rate of interest thereon should be reduced at the earliest practicable date."

Here we have in a word, the grand outfit, In fancy we hear him : Yust look at this bootiful suit. Do fashion fizzle of Democratic pretensions. The only last year. Saturday last, at noon, was agreed upon by both branches, as the time for final adjournment, and every-body went to work industriously to clear up the calendars as far as possible, before that time. An immense number of private or local bills were hammered through, while the committee of conference on the appropriation bill, were completing their labors. Late on Friday afternoon, the ponderous document was presented with the report of the committee, and the most important measure of the session, was ready for final action. In the Senate, a few gentlemen briefly defined their positions, and then the bill passed. In the House, the clause giving Chambersburg an appropriation of $300 .-000 raised considerable excitement, and for a time threatened to defeat the bill. A GOOD TDEA. — Deputy Sheriff ¹Ben K. Goodycar, has resolved to place a Register within the prison, and require overy person that visits that institution to write his or her name, as the case may be, within its pages. This is a very good idea, and should be adopted, as there is a certain class of persons that visit the jail two or three times every day, to the great annoyance of the foffi-cials, and by thus adopting the Registry plan, it may put a check to their fre-quent visits. At 10 a. m., 30 men had been brought out, 10 of whom were dead, and at noon ot more than one or two remained in the mine. Every one of the men brought up since 10 a. m., was found stone dead.
