THERE will be an additional list of jurors for the August Court, published in next week's issue.

THE citizens of Mt. Holly have been considerably exercised over a rumor afloat in that usually quiet little village, regarding the mysterious appearance of "ghost." We have made diligent inquiry, but cannot trace the report to any reliable source.

THE Commissioners of Perry county are erecting a new poor house, on the order. same farm on which the present buildings are located, at Loysville. Messrs Campbell & Henwood, of this place, have received the contract for the plumbing, &c., to be executed during the coming year. The buildings are to be completed by the Spring of 1872.

COMPLETED.—Carlisle is now in teleand Pine Grove, the terminus of the South Mountain Railroad. Mr. John Campbell completed the work of stretching the wires on Tuesday, so that these places are now in communication with all parts of the country.

HANDSOME FOUNTAIN. -Our townsman, Mr. James W. Bosler, has lately had a handsome fountain erected in the beautiful grounds, immediately in front figure are four swans. The waste water is conveyed by pipes to the barn, for the benefit of the stock. The grounds are mand, accompanied by a half a dozon of celled for beauty and elegance.

ALMOST AN ACCIDENT.—As the Mail Train west, on Monday afternoon left the must have an end, and soon the Mail Cumberland Valley depot, it was noticed that one of the springs on the rear truck of the first passenger car had gotten out The train was immediately halted and the sweet strains of that the spring taken off, after which "all was given and the cars moved off. This was a fortunate discovery indeed, for fatal consequences must have followed had the train been running at the ordinary rate of speed. 'Too much vigilance cannot be exercised by our railroad men.

ACCIDENT.-Mr. George S. Beetem of the firm of Gardner & Co., of this place, met with a severe accident on Monday afternoon last, while superintending the erection of the iron columns for the company's building, on the corner of massive columns in position, by some unaccountable means, the pulley slipped

THE WOLF STORY

STERRETT'S GAP, JULY 24, 1871. The neighborhood lying east of Ster rett's Gap, along the State road, was thrown into a state of considerable excitement about two weeks ago, by the appearance of a pack of wolves, which graphic communication with Mt. Holly was first seen by a boy of Mr. George Stoey's, who was, at the time, hunting cattle in the mountain. The pack con sisted of six in number; they followed a house and gave the alarm, when soon there were men enough under arms to in the game. on the twentieth of July instant. The contractor, Mr. Richard Owen reported that the Monument was now so near completion, that a day might be fixed for publicly celebrating the event. The Council therefore resolved, that in commemoration of the patriotism and heroism of the soldiers of Cumberland county, in whose honor this Monument has been erected, the occasion should be marked by a military and civic parade, to be followed by the formal unveiling of the Monument, the delivery of a Oration and other appropriate exercises.

On motion, Saturday, the nineteenth of August, was fixed as the day. On notion, Gen. LEMUEL TODD was elected Chief Marshal, with power to appoint Aids and Assistant Marshals, and to arrange all the details of the parade The oration, it is confidently expected, will be pronounced by His Excellency, Gen. John W. Geary, Governor of Pennsylvania. On motion, Messrs A. L. Sponsler, Dr.

W. W. Dale and John Campbell, were appointed a Committee on Invitations. CROQUET .- The interest in this favorite game seems to be on the increase in our town. Very many of our citizens have private grounds for the pleasure of themselves and their friends, where they can enjoy this most healthful and popular of all out door exercises....

A number of our young men have lately organized a Croquet Club, and have engaged the lot on North street, owned by Jacob Thudium, where can be seen, every evening, a large number of the lovers of the game watching with interest, the exciting contests which take place there. The great difficulty and objection which has heretofore been urged against this game is the many different ways in which it is played. This Club has adopted Mayne Reid's rules which dog that accompanied the boy for a good were the original rules by which the distance.
