DISASTROUS FIRE. -On Sabbath after noon last, about two o'clock, the large frame stable of Carey W. Ahl, esq., on the York road, was discovered to be on paper collars, go to J. H. Wolf's. fire, and before assistance could arrive from town the building was burned to the ground. The alarm was promptly given, and the firemen repaired to the scene of conflagration, but upon reaching the ground a new difficulty was encountered, owing to the great searcity of water. The Cumberland attempted

In fact the day was intensely hot, and the heat from the fire rendered t almost unendurable tograpproach within a reasonable distance. Mr. Ahl's loss is considerable, being fully $1,000, partly covered by an insurance. It may o summed up as follows: A large quantity of hay, oats and grain; also a valuable young grey racking horse. The origin of the fire is unknown, although t is very generally conceded to have originated from spontaneous combus-tion. As the mow had just been filled with hay last week, and the flames were first seen issuing from this part of the stable, this seems to be a very plausible story.
