ADAMS COUNTY PAIR. The Agricultwial Society of Adams county purpose bolding their annual fair the last week Entember, commencing on Tuesday, the twenty-sixth instant. Their buildings are commodious, and they can boast of one of the finest tracks in the southern portion of the State. We are also indebted to the Society for the receipt of a complimentary pass.

The prices demanded for thom, range from $3 to $3.50 from 35 cents to $1.25 A choice line of per bushel. In days gone by it was customary for the price of onions to range about the same as wheat. Our citizens, or rather those that are fond of these vegetables, should guard against exorbitant prices another year, by cultivating their own "little onion bed."

The market was overstocked with them on Saturday morning last, and several of the peach merchants being unable to dispose of their stock, wore obliged to haul a portion of their leads home. The peach season of 1871 has almost drawn to a close. The crop has been a very large one, and our citizens can congratulate themselves on the reasonable prices at which they were enabled to procure this delicious fruit. The first crop of peaches were far superior to the second and third, and sold at much lower figures.

For the Cambishe Harald | MR. EDITOR ;-Having visited out State Superintendent of Public Schools, and finding that he has no power in our schools, superior to that of our school Directors, I think citizens should know who they are electing. I believe the laws are right, but they were made with the expectation that gentlemen would adninister them, and obey that Golde Rule, "do unto others as you would have others do unto you," but the Directors of South Middleton have reversed the rule, and do unto others as they would not like others to do to them. And now, as I have no personal feeling in this matter, and what I have done has been to resist oppression, I will, after asking a few plain questions, submit to the powers that be, with as good grace

It is not too much to say that more than half the people of the civilized world need an occasional tonic, to enable them to support the strain upon their bodies and minds, which the fast life of this restless age occasions. In fact, a pure, wholesome, unexciting tonic is the grand desideration of the busy millions, and they have the article in Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. It is a staminal medicine, f. e. it imparts permanent strength to weak systems and invigorates delicate constitutions. Its reputation and its sales have steadily increased. Competitive preparations have been introduced ad libitum, and, as far as the public is concorned, ad nausoum, in the hope of rivaling it; but they have all either perished in the attempt, or been left far in the rear.
