So much is known. What the floating and unsettled claims may amount to, no man can say. Applying this ratio of expenditure to the nation, which would, no doubt, be realized if the Democracy should be entrusted with power-andestimating the population at 40,000,000, for convenience, and because that is no greater ratio of excess than allowed for New York-and the national expenditures for one year would exceed $2,300,-000,000, an amount greater than the present national debt, and greater than the expenditures of the nation during any year of the war, though at times

I told her I wasn't hungry, but it didn't make a bit of difference, I had to get up. The sun was up; I had no idea the sun began business so early in the morning, but there he was.

"Now," said Maria Ann, "we must fly around, for the cars start at half-past six. Eat all the breakfast you can, for you won't get anything more before

I could not eat anything at that time in the morning, and it was just as well I could not, for I had all I could do. There was the ice to be perioded to go around the pail of ice cream, and the sandwiches to be cut, and I thought I never should get the legs of the chicken fixed so that I could get the cover on the big basket. Maria Ann flew around and piled up the groceries for me to pack, and gave directions to the girl about 867,288 taking caroof the house, and putting on 998,438 a new dress all at once. There was a great deal of energy in that woman, perhaps a little too much.

The music teacher spilled a cup of coffee on Maria's head, and pulled all her frizzles off trying to wipe off the coffee with her handkerchie Then I sat on a piece of raspberry pie and spoiled my white pants, and conduded I didn't want anything more. Having rode till they nearly perished with cold, they attempted to exercise themselves in walking. Mr. B., who had proceeded on in haste, in order to reach some dwelling for assistance, soon became exhausted, and sunk down in a perishing condition, but afterwards recovered. Mrs. Blake, in the course of the night, froze to death, leaving her tender offspring wrapped up in her cloak, in which situation it was found the next morning alive. The following elegant lines from

If I must perish, save my child. She stript her mantle from her breast, And round the child she wrapt the vest. And smil'd to think the babe was warm With one cold kiss, one tear she shed, And sunk upon a snowy bed. At dawn a travelor pass'd by,

And saw her 'neath a snowy vell: The frost of death was in her eye, Her cheek was cold, and hard, and pale; He mov'd the robe from off the child; The babe look<sup>j</sup>d up and sweetly smilld.

You people I say who grease your hair, are just as barbarous as the Camanche Indian who greases his face. A gentleman will never fall in love with a soiled woman. She must be sweet. Have you never, in so-called polite society, met a young lady whose face would have been improved by a good square washing? Now, this is plain, homely talk. European Court circles do more bathing, ten to one, than the bourgeois. Indeed, in Russia-in Moscow, where you see the sweetest blonde woman in the worldthey have four bath houses, each as large as the Fifth Avenue Hotel.
