MARK TWAIN .- The fourth entertain ment of the "Course" will be a lecture by "Mark Twain," in Rheem's Hall, Monday evening, January 22, at 8 o'clock. We need not urge our citizens to go an hear this popular humorist, for we know they will not miss this the last and only opportunity of hearing the author of

" Moment's Abroad." RIGHT .-- The authorities had the "bun mer brigade," out in force on Tuesday morning, shoveling off the pavements around the Public Squares. We would just "here remark and the truth it i plain," that these same individuals might, also, be compelled to clean all the crossings throughout the borough. Give them plenty of employment, and they will soon steer clear of Carlisle. CHOICE ENTERTAINMENT.-The Philharmonic Musical Association, at the urgent request of a large number of citizens, will give a grand concert in Good Will Hall, on Monday evening next, January 15. This Association is , already so well known in this communify, that it would be useless to adverthis occasion, and you will never have exercises that was fully carried out : occasion to regret it. LECTURE.-The third lecture the "Course" was an elocutionary entertainment by Hon. William Parsons, subject — Richard Brinsley Sheridan. Rheem's Hall was filled with a rilliant and appreciative audience on the occasion. The lecturer, a gentleman of commanding presence, was listened to with the utmost attention throughout; and at times the audience was convulsed with laughter while the speaker was relating some of the numerous anecdotes connected with the life of the renowned Irish orator, playwright and wit, Sheripleased, and we think the Lecture Committee were exceedingly fortunate in securing his services.
