FOR PRESIDENT, GENERAL U. S. GRANT. OF ILLINOIS. FOR VICE PRESIDENT HENRÝ WILSON, OF MASSACHUSETIS.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKE FOR GOVERNOR. GEN. JOHN F. HARTRANFT, OF MONTGOMERY COUNTY.

SUPREME JUDGE. HON. ULYSSES MERCUR, OF BRADFORD COUNTY

AUDITOR GENERAL GEN. HARRISON ALLEN, OF WARREN COUNTY.

FOR CONGRESSMEN, AT LARGE. Gen. Lemnel Todd, of Cumberland.

DELEGATES AT LARGE TO THE CONSTIT TIONAL CONVENTION. Wm. M. Meredith, Philadelphia; J. Gillingham Fell, Philadelphia; Gen. Harry White, Indiana; Gen. Wm. Lilly, Carbon; Linn Bartholomew, Schuylkill; H.N. M'Callister, Centre; William H. Armstrong, Lycoming; William Davis, Monroe; James L. Reynolds, Lancaster; Samuel E. Dimmick. Wavne: Geo. V. Lawrence, Washington David N. White, Alleghony; W. H. Ainey, Lehigh; John H. Walker, Eric.

THE Republicans of Franklin county, held their Convention last week, and placed in nomination a most excellent ticket. Their nominee for Congress, Hon. John Rowe, of Greencastle, is a gentleman of ability and enlarged experionce in political affairs. He filled the office of Surveyor General, of the State from 1856 to 1863 with great credit, and was Speaker of the House of Representatives, in 1859. As the Franklin county Republicans have not yet been swallowed in a Democratic district, Mr. Rowe is certain of an election, should the other counties concede the Congressman to Franklin. No better nomination could have been made.

John Stewart, esq., of Chambersburg, was nominated for delegate to the State Convention. Mr. Stewart is one of the leading lawyers of Chambersburg, is a gentlemen of high character, and is well fitted to do credit to this district in the Constitutional convention. He is a forcible and eloquent speaker, and always rendered effective service to the party in Papolitical campaigns.

Thad, M. Mahon was unanimously nominated for the Legislature. Mr. Mahon represented his county last winter with signal ability, and his bold and independent course on all questions made him an influential and respected member of the House. His election is certain. The other nominees for the various county offices are excellent men and earnest Republicans, and we have no doubt that the ticket will be elected by a larger majority than even that of last year.

BUCKALEW, 🄝

If one could credit the statements of compelled to regard their nominee for Governor as a sort of demigod, clothed with every perfect quality and grace; whereas, a close inspection of his character and life reveals him as a mere mortal, and a very ordinary one at that. Wherein lay his perfections, and how has he manifested them? What act of his life proves the possession of superior abilities and demonstrates that excellence so fondly attributed to him by his pretended admirers and onlogists? What great measure has he originated and illumined by the spleuder of his genius. the force of his logic, and the grace of his oratory? In what times of trial and trouble has he stepped to the front and assumed the direction of public opinion, and pointed out the way of escape from existing or threatened evils? What grand sentiment has he ever uttered that thrilled through the heart of the nation and fired it with duty and devotion, either to humanity or country When did he ever rise above grovelling partizanship, and exhibit resistence to its extremest demands? No man can truthfully give an affirmative reply to these queries that will redound to the credit of Mr. Buckalew. The truth is his greathess and eminence are manu factured—got up for a special purpose, and adapted to suit the emergencies of

During all that time he has been a bitter and unscrupulous partizan, adopting, without hesitation or scruple, the worst heresies of his party, and defending follows: them to the utmost of his power. It was the possession of this character that cletted him to the U.S. Senate, in 1862. What can better illustrate his character than his conduct in the Dechert case and the McClure case, when to sustain party purposes, he assumed and defended diametrically opposite doctrines and positions, and gave whatever of reputation and talent he possesses, without a blush, to decisions that squarely refute each other; for no other conceivable reason than that of party necessity. We know that That Mr. Buckalew is an honest man, this is not proof positive that the editor is certainly sufficient to make all Republicans fear that they are about to lose from the support of Grant, one who has hitherto been an important and efficient ally. If this is the case, we hope the Press will, have the manliness to go over at once to the enemy, inorder that its blows at Republicanism may not be made under the cover of pretended direct blow at Grant, and there is no man in nomination on that ticket, who is not eminently worthy of the support of all good ettisens.
