THE HORSE AND HIS RIDER .- It was a happy day for horse and his rider when the Mustany Liniment was intro-duced as a cure for the external diseases and injuries of both. In the stable, th barr and the household this wonderful emollient is equally useful. If a horse is spavined, or foundered, or harness-galled, or afflicted with any other of the many superficial ills that equine flesh is heir to, the Liniment effects a speedy heir to, the Limmont effects a specup cure, and it is equally efficacious whon applied to draught oxen or cows suffer-ing from outward swellings, strains or hurts of any description. As an applica-tion for bruises, cuts, burns, theumatism; stiff joints, sprains, neuralgia, carache and toothache, it takes precedence for all other-topical remedies, and is therefore an article of prime necessity
