-- Haltimore having organized the "Ida Greeley Grays," Cincinnati responds by starting the "Nellie Grant Blues." —Hon. J. J. Davis and Governor Ja-cobs, two of the most influential Demo-crats of Western Virginia, have publicly amounced their opposition to Greeley and the Baltimore swindle.

—Hon. Wm. Dean, Chairman of the Delaware Democratic State committee has resigned, because he cannot go Greeley and Brown. Honest Democrats are coming to their senses. -Two more Democratic papers have hauled down the mongrel ticket and de-clared for Grant and Wilson: The Brook-lyn, (N. Y.) Democrat, and the Buffalo, (N. Y.) Evening Post, both Democratic of long standing. -Reform in York county has nov fairly opened, the people from all sec tions ask only for an opportunity to vote for a good County Reform ticket. We enjoin on all Reform men to work with all their might. -Grant's administration has paid 251 millions of the national debt in two years and a half. This saves the people and a half. anally lifteen millions of money. funding of the new loan so far as it has gone makes an additional saving of two millions of dollars per annum. —The Scranton Republican has determined to give its full support to the State ticket. In a long leader it states its position, and winds up by advising all Republicans to support Hartrant, Allon, Scholield, Albright, Moreur and the whole ticket.

—The Democratic organ in Voorhees' district, the Terro Haute Journal, announces that under no circumstances will it support Greeley. The Seymour (Ind.) Democrat says the same thing. So does Voorhees, and so do thousands of Democrats in Indiana. And they mean what they say.

The Louisville Ledger advises its friends not to worry themselves over what Horace thought of them in the past, devise.

—The National Defender—Democratic—published at Norristown, in its issue of a late date, refuses to hoist the names of Greeley and Brewn, saying: "The same influence that doomed our party to defeat in 1868, are dominant in 1872, the only difference being, that in the former interests and Depocrating as the instance, a Democrat was chosen as the Presidential candidate, whereas at the present a life-long, relentless maligner of Democracy, is foisted upon us." -The Pittsburg Commercial develops the fact (of which we were before aware) that Ward H. Lamon's Life of Lincoln, was really written by Chauncey Black, son of Judge Jeremiah S. Black, of York. Lamon supplied a good portion of the material, while Black worked it 1p. This accounts for the malignant assaults on Lincoln's religious and moral character, running throughout the volume, which has given so much comfort

-The New York Freeman's Journal the organ of the Roman Catholies of the United States, says: "Horace Greeley must not, and shall not, ever be President of the United States. The security of property and of persons requires that he shall not be. We speak from a wide induction of evidences, when we say that tens of thousands of Democrats, if necessary to prevent it, will do what we cannot imagine ourselves doing-vots for Grant to pre-

Copperhead editors.

—The following States and Territories hold their elections before November: North 'Carolina, August 4; Kentucky, Montana and Utah, August 5; New Mexico, September 1; California. September 2; Vermont, September 3; Kaino, September 10; Dakota, Indiana, Iowa, Nebraska, Ohio, Pennsylvania and District of Columbia October 8: South Carolina. of Columbia, October 8; South Carolina, October 10: West Virginia, October 24. Twenty States hold their State election at the same time as their Presidential which caves much trouble.

-The character of the "Liberal" candidate for President is thus tersely described by the Atlantic Monthly: "Mr. Greeley is believed to be capricious, conceited, peculiarly open to flattery and prejudice, bold in opinion, but-timid in action, and with that indefinable some thing if his character which makes it impossible not to laugh at him; how ver much we may esteem him. He is unsteady, grotesque, obstinate, and ridiculous—opithets never yet justly applicable, all at one, to a President of the United

—The District Republican Convention met at Washington, D. C., last week, and re-nonlinated General Chipman as delogate to Coupress, and passed reso-lutions endorsing Grant and Wilson and repudiating Greeley and Brown. More than one-half of the delegates were colored men, and several made speeches, in which they condemued the action of Senator Summer in advising the colored people to vote for Greefey, and expressing the opinion that as he had turned his back on his past record, the colored race would no longer look to him for counsel

-"The Democratic party of to-day is simply the Rebellion seeking to achieve is simply the Rebellion seeking to achieve its essential purposes within and through the Union. A victory which does not enable it to put its feet on the necks of the black race seems to the bulk of its adherents hot worth having. Its heart is just where it was when it regarded slavery and the constitution as two names for one thing. It hates the Generals who led the Union armies to victory, and racely misses a change to disparage and rarely misses a chance to disparage them. It clies to that exaggerated notion of State rights which makes them the shield, of all manner of wrongs and abuses."—Horace Greeley in the New York Tribune, March 23, 1871.

-We have seen Charles R. Buckalew the Democratic candidate for Governo the Democratic candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania, at the moment of the Republic's greatest peril, stealing across the Canadian border to confer with the rebel conspirators, who had taken refuge there to put in execution their perfectly devilish plots for burning Northern cities, stimulating domestic robellion and planting postilence wherever they could send their emissaries. In addition to doing this we have to say that CHARLES R chis, we have to say that CHARLES R. BUCKALEW, WHILE OCCUPYING A SEAT IN THE UNITED STATES SENATE, COMMUNICATED BY LETTER WITH THE LEADERS OF THE REBELLION IN THE SOUTH, EXPLESING SYMPATHY EXPRESSING SYMPATHY FOR THEIR CAUSE! Men of Pennsylva-nia! Shall this man be, your Governor? —Pittsburg Commercial.

—What Horaco Greeley knows about Domocracy, as shown in his editorials in the Tribune, makes some people think he disgraces himself when he asks that his associates. For a neat pen and iak sketch we commend the following which appeared in the Tribune for February 6, 1871: We learn with pleasure that quite a number of the Democratic lenders have resolved to—push*B. Gratz Brown, the new Governor of Missouri, for next Prosi-dent. We do not see how they could but they are the under dog at present and must resort to strategy to get upper most. We assure them they might select a much worse candidate—than Gratz Brown; and since he has just helped Frank Blair into the Senate, we assume that the Blair family will go their length for him. They must extensit to put dent. We do not see how they could better this choice. Grate isn't much to look at, but he has ideas in his head, and is rather honest for a successful politician. He was a good second-rate editor, makes a fair speech, is a radical Free-Trader, and can get some negro as well as some white Republican votes; whereas any known copperhead will get none of either, but those who can't help thomselves.
